Will Rogers Remarks:

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 9. [To the Editor of The Times:] Everybody has offered suggestions as to what is the matter with the world. I just got one to offer and then I will shut up. It's inventors that's put us where we are today; there aint enough jobs to go round. Why? Because every lazy man in the world has invented something to knock others out of work, and fix himself financially so he wouldn't have too. So, Mr. Hoover appoint a last commission and if they hear of anyone inventing something, or even thinking of inventing something stop 'em. With four-fifths of the world earning their living by work, we honor men that invent things to knock 'em out of work.

Yours,

WILL ROGERS.

Village in Pennsylvania Saved From Flames When Neighbors Send Help

BEDMINSTER (Pa.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Residents of this little Bucks county town prayed in the streets today for deliverance as flames swept through its main buildings and for a time threatened the village with destruction.

While firemen from seventeen near-by towns were speeding to the blaze two engines overturned, killing William Fisher, a volunteer fireman, and injuring eight others, one seriously.

Two three-story buildings, a general store, a warehouse and two garages were destroyed and the village school and several other buildings damaged. Persons whose property was damaged or destroyed said the combined damage approximately was $100,000.

JOHN LEE MAHIN DIES

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—John Lee Mahin, 61 years of age, widely known in the advertising business, died today in Madison Hospital.

BLISS RITES ARRANGED

Arlington Burial Wednesday

Death Closes Long Career of War-time Chief of Staff and Army Commander

Pershing and Others Voice Tributes to Veteran of Four Campaigns

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Funeral services for Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, war-time chief of staff and one-time commanding general of the Army, who died this morning, will be conducted Wednesday, and burial will be in Arlington Cemetery. Famous military and naval officers will escort the body to the grave.

Death came to the stalwart old army officer at 2:36 a.m. in Walter Reed Hospital, days after attending physicians had given up hope of his recovery. He suffered from an intestinal ailment. He was 76 years of age.

Mrs. Bliss and their two children, Col. Edward Goring Bliss and Mrs. Eleanor Frances Knopf, New Haven, Ct., were at his bedside when the end came.

REGRETS EXPRESSED

Gen. John J. Pershing, Secretary Hurley and Gen. Charles P. Summerall, chief-of-staff, were the first to express regret at the passing of their war-time comrade and counsellor.

Of his comrade, with whom he had served many years, Gen. Pershing said, "The Army loses a great soldier and the country one of its distinguished citizens," and added:

"He lived his life in fulfillment of the motto of his alma mater (West Point,) 'Duty-honor-country.'"

HURLEY'S TRIBUTE

Secretary Hurley, himself a war-time officer, said:

"With the passing of Gen. Bliss, America loses one of her most loyal and able public servants. In his long military career he won by sheer ability the highest positions open to a professional soldier. At the same time his qualities of mind and soul achieved for him international repute as a statesman and as a great American citizen. The conclusion of his majestically rounded life brings deep sorrow to the War Department."

"The death of Gen. Bliss," Gen. Summerall said, "brings deep grief to the Army. His career greatly transcended the purely military sphere, but in a long, distinguished and useful life he gave of himself devotedly to the military service. We mourn the passing of an inspiring chief and a noble soul. My personal sorrow is inexpressible."

IN FOUR CAMPAIGNS

He went through four campaigns and served in important posts of the government here and abroad. He was the only American army officer on the Supreme War Council and is the fourth of the five American members to die, Col. House being the survivor. The others were President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and Henry White.

At the conclusion of the World War he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal with the following citation:

"For his most exceptional services as assistant chief-of-staff, acting chief-of-staff and chief-of-staff of the United States Army, in which important positions his administrative ability and professional attainment were of great value to our armies. As chief of the American section of the Supreme War Council he has taken an important part in the shaping of policies that have brought victory to our cause."

Gen. Bliss received numerous decorations of the highest orders from Allied governments, including Great Britain, France, Belgium, Japan, China, Italy and Panama.

The men who knew Gen. Bliss as chief-of-staff during the war and after in the missions of peace to France, where he was President Wilson's personal representative on the American Peace Commission during the delicate settlement days, are to escort him to his last resting place with the nation's army of the dead in Arlington.

Former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker, Col. E. M. House, with whom he served on the 1917 mission to France; Gen. Pershing, Admiral W. S. Benson, Admiral Hugh Rodman, Maj.-Gen. Hugh L. Scott, Maj.-Gen. William Crozier and Brig.-Gen. Stanley D. Embrick, all

CANNON GROWING WEAKER

Bishop Reported Worse Due to Continued Pain From Arthritis

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The condition of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., today was reported by Dr. R. Lyman Sexton to be "weaker due to continued pain from arthritis."

The Southern Methodist churchman went to Sibley Hospital October 25 suffering from inflammatory arthritis, which gradually spread to both arms and legs and above the right knee.

Bishop Cannon is facing charges presented by four Southern Methodist ministers. While the charges, filed while Bishop Cannon was in South America, have not been made public, they are understood to include his work against Alfred E. Smith in the 1928 Presidential campaign and his stock market activities.

Bishop W. N. Ainsworth, with whom the charges were filed, recently appointed a committee to investigate and determine whether a church trial is warranted.

Gift of Plane Fatal Present

WARWOOD (W. Va.) Nov. 9. (AP) Alfred Hundt, 19 years of age, of Warwood, W. Va., crashed to his death here last night in an airplane that was given to him as a birthday present six weeks ago.

The youth, who was seeking hours of night flying looking to a position as an air mail pilot, fell with his plane on a cliff overlooking the Ohio River near here. The ship was demolished. The plane was a gift to the boy from his father.

Missing Man's Home for Sale

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—The luxurious furnishings of the Fifth-avenue home of Charles V. Bob, missing stock promoter, are being advertised for sale at public auction between the 12th and 15th insts.

Authorities said this seems to indicate Bob's family have given up expectations that the broker, who has been missing from this city since October 6, will return.

RED'S ARREST STILLS BELLS

Mexican Chimes Silent First Time in Century When Sexton Flies Communist Banner

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 9. (AP)—For the first time in more than a century the bells of the National Cathedral were silent today during services.

The reason was the bellringer, Anastasio Mayorga Reyes, 42 years of age, who has dwelt all of his life in the cathedral tower, as had his ancestors, is in jail under charges of being a Communist. His arrest with that of the sexton, Jose De la Luz Vega Sanchez, was the result of the appearance on the tower Friday of a Communist banner bearing in large red letters the words:

"Down with the government—up with Communist!"

The appearance of the banner produced enormous concern among the populace, who regarded it as sacrilege.

Police reasoned since all visitors to the tower must be escorted by the sexton or bellringer, these functionaries had knowledge of who hung the banner. They said the bellringer admitted he was a Communist and confessed having had a part in displaying the red emblem.

The bellman was born in the tower, as were his father and grandfather, and had never been out of it until his arrest. His wife, who married him in the building and since then had never left it, disappeared following his incarceration and hence the old tower is deserted for the first time in more than a century.

Wales to Foil American Tariff to Aid Charity

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP) — The Prince of Wales, aided by Ambassador Dawes and Secretary Mellon, has made a breach in the United States tariff wall to permit the sale of pictures by British artists in aid of the Prince's personal charity fund for British war veterans.

Nearly 400 paintings will comprise a floating art gallery on the liner Aquitania, sailing from Southampton the 22nd inst. for New York, where the pictures will be sold to anyone who cares to visit the ship and buy. Ambassador Dawes announced receipt of a cablegram from Secretary Mellon saying that, as an act of international courtesy, permission will be granted for holding the exhibition on the Aquitania in New York Harbor and allowing free customs entry of the paintings.

Hoover Gives Up Plans for Long Football Trips

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—President Hoover virtually has decided to make no lengthy trips this fall to football games.

He planned last month to attend the Princeton-Navy game, but was forced to cancel the trip and had been considering going to the Yale-Harvard contest at New Haven. This game, however, would necessitate his leaving the capital the previous night and it is indicated it has been eliminated from consideration.

Hurricane Rips Path of Ruin

TEGUCIGALPA (Honduras) Nov. 9. (AP)—A hurricane swept the Panama plantations in the Laceiba zone yesterday, injuring many persons and causing heavy property loss. No deaths have been reported.

Reports said 56,000 banana trees were destroyed, with all their fruit, on the Corinto plantation owned by the Standard Fruit and Steamship Company. Another plantation producing 3000 stems of bananas weekly also lost all its trees, reports said. Buildings were blown down, and many persons were hurt by crashing timbers. The extent of the loss has not been determined.

Heavy Seas at Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 9 (AP)—Heavy seas swept away part of the east beach endangering the David Gray public pavilion and damaged a concrete esplanade along the water front here today.

The pounding of the waves shook the beach sands and reverberated through the city, being heard in the residential districts several blocks away.

Southern Boat Blast Kills Two

BILOXI (Miss.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Two Biloxi fishermen were killed today in an explosion which destroyed their forty-five-foot trawl boat.

Several drums of gasoline exploded just after one of the men entered the cabin to make coffee. The victims were Ed Adolphsen, 50 years of age, and Conrad Hahn, 35.

MINISTER OF IRELAND IN RADIO TALK

Free State's Imperial Status Outlined Over International Hook-up

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Patric McGilligan, Foreign Minister in the Cosgrave Cabinet, told an American radio audience in a trans-Atlantic broadcast today the Irish Free State definitely has established her position as an independent sovereign state.

Ireland, he said, became a member of the British commonwealth of nations "because she believed that her national aspirations could be realized to the full within the group. She did not give up any part of her ambition to build up an integral Irish nation. Above all, she did not intend to allow her individual nationhood to become obscured in any form of group unit artificially created by legalistic devices."

Referring to the system of appeals to the judicial committee of the privy council in London, he said he did not wish his audience "to conclude that the existence of the interference is more than a nasty thorn awaiting extraction."

"Just as other elements of British control have disappeared, so will his element disappear," he said.

Motor Stage Runs Into Ditch, Injuring Five

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Five persons were injured today when a north coast motor stage was ditched near Pioneer on the Pacific Highway, sixteen miles north of Vancouver, Wash. The stage, southbound to Portland, turned out to avoid hitting a car which stopped in front of it, and in avoiding an appoaching auto, the driver went too far on a soft shoulder, which gave way, precipitating the stage down a fifteen-foot embankment.

The injured, who were believed not critically hurt, were Charles Anderson, Beverly Hills, Cal.; Mrs. Fred Karzmarck, Aberdeen, Wash.; Charles Worell, Kalama, Wash; Fred Yoek, Portland; Mrs. G. H. Loomer, Eagle Creek, Or.

They were taken to a Vancouver hospital. Nineteen passengers escaped injury. State highway officials are investigating the accident.

It officially was announced the flight will be made tomorrow.

EXPLODING AUTO TIRE BREAKS OWNER'S SKULL

GALES TAKE SHIP TOLL

Barge Men Lost Off Florida

Men of Tanker Aground Off San Mateo Still Stick; Six Boats in Peril

MIAMI (Fla.) Nov. 9. (AP)—The barge Northern Light sank in heavy seas of Cary Fort Reef, below Miami, early today. One man of the crew of five was rescued. Searching parties looked without success for other members of the crew, Commander R. L. Jacks of the Coast Guard base at Fort Lauderdale reported.

He said an airplane was sent today from the Key West naval station to look for the missing seamen. The Coast Guard boat Perry, operating in the vicinity of Palm Beach, was dispatched to the Florida Keys to aid in the hunt.

The barge was in tow of the tug Ontario when it sank.

POUNDING TO PIECES

The tug Messenger, cast upon the beach near West Palm Beach by high running seas off the Florida coast, tonight was in danger of pounding to pieces in the breakers. The tug was on its way to Fort Pierce to aid the freighter Lillian, aground in the channel there.

The Messenger, her rudder out of commission and her anchors failing to hold, was driven ashore at Jupiter last night. Capt. Charles Russell and six members of the crew were taken off with life lines by the Jupiter Lighthouse crew.

The Lillian was floated today, reports to owners, the Baltimore and Carolina Lines in Jacksonville said.

The Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company, whose freighter Upshur has been disabled off the coast since Thursday night, reported the steamer was taken in tow today by the tug McAuley of Savannah and was en route to Jacksonville.

AIDS ANOTHER

The Upshur yesterday assisted in the rescue of the crew of the schooner Dunham Wheeler, which foundered near Cape Canaveral. With her sails gone the Dunham Wheeler sent up distress signals which were sighted by the Upshur.

Unable to go to the scene, the Upshur relayed the distress signals by radio, bringing the steamer Aztec forty-six miles out of her course. The Aztec removed the Dunham Wheeler's crew and proceeded on her way to New York.

SIX SHIP VICTIMS OF WEST COAST GALES

BY FLOYD J. HEALY

"Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—While the crew of the rock-piereed tanker Tamiahua continued tonight to defy the reaching sea off the San Mateo county shore, bodies of the eighteen victims of the less fortunate lumber schooner Brooklyn, capsized at the entrance to Eureka Harbor, were expected to be washed ashore. The Brooklyn, only 137 feet long and a comparative chip in the tremendous waves that smashed the Humboldt Bar, fell prey to the fury of the same sea the Tamiahua has been able to stand off since last Thursday night, when the tanker grounded on Pescadero Reef.

Meanwhile fears for the safety of the former cruiser Missoula, which broke a tow line nineteen miles northwest of Coos Bay, Or., in a raging sea while being brought to Oakland for dismantling, abated somewhat when reports reached here that the Coast Guard cutter Saranac, which put out from Puget Sound, had succeeded in rigging another tow line and the propellerless hulk of a once-proud battle line ship was under control again.

ONE COMES ASHORE

At Pigeon Point the first break was made in the unity of the Tamiahua's personnel of forty-one, including Capt. Gustave Andersen, all of whom have refused to desert their ship as long as it remains afloat.

Forbes Copeland, quartermaster, came ashore in the breeches buoy on a line rigged from ship to shore, revealing the fact he has been suf-

AMERICANS BUTCHERED

Brazil Savages Suspected

Massacre Occurs Far From Nearest Civilization; Woman Injured

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Receipt of cablegrams stating two American missionaries and the infant daughter of one of them had been killed in an attack on an isolated station near Juruena, in the wilds of Brazil, was announced tonight by Alfred H. Vroom of Ridgewood, N. J., treasurer of the Inland South American Missionary Union.

The messages did not state who made the attack, but it is Mr. Vroom's belief it was perpetrated by Indians. In that section of Brazil the Indians are naked savages, Mr. Vroom said.

Last night Dr. Kenneth Mackenzie, president of the union, had announced the deaths were due to an automobile accident. Today he explained he personally had not seen the cablegrams, and from what others at the union offices had told him he gathered the mistaken impression.

RELATIVES INFORMED

Relatives of the missionaries received telegrams from the union office telling of an attack, he said. He referred inquiries to Mr. Vroom, who, he said, is better acquainted with the text of the cables.

Mr. Vroom said the messages listed the dead as Arthur S. Tylee, formerly of Worcester, Mass.; his 2-year-old daughter, and Miss Ethel Kratz, about 26 years of age, a registered nurse from Chicago. Mrs. Tylee was injured, but is recovering, while a Mr. McDowell of Ireland, another missionary at the little station, apparently also escaped with his life, for it was he who sent one of the messages.

FAR FROM CIVILIZATION

The station at which the massacre occurred is three weeks' journey by bullock cart from the nearest civilization. Juruena is a settlement of six houses near a telegraph line which stretches through the wilderness. Its inhabitants are a handful of Portuguese-speaking Brazilians. The Indians of the neighborhood are unclothed primitive types who hunt with poisoned arrows and sleep on the ground practically without shelter, Mr. Vroom said.

The American missionaries, fully acquainted with the conditions, went there courageously, Mr. Vroom said, in an attempt to help the Indians. Whether their deaths resulted from an uprising of the savages among whom they worked or from an invasion of a hostile tribe, is unknown to officials of the union.

Dr. Mackenzie said the latter might have been the case, although he said it is possible other white men "may have imposed on the Indians," and that the savages wreaked their wrath indiscriminately on the missionaries.

President Asks Nation to Back Red Cross Drive

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—President Hoover today called upon the nation to support the annual American Red Cross roll call beginning Armistice Day and ending Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Hoover, who is also president of the Red Cross, said:

"I trust the Red Cross membership drive this year may be more responsive than ever before. The Red Cross is our national insurance against suffering and disaster in any part of the country. It is not charity in the normal sense of gift without obligation. It is supported by all of us and the day may come when any of us may have claims upon its assistance or protection."

SHIP LINE HEAD DIES

TOKIO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Soichiro Asano, 82 years of age, shipping man and widely known in America as president of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, operating a shipping service between California and the Orient, died here today of cancer of the throat.

DAY OF JOY BRINGS SORROW

Widow of Brooklyn Engineer Mourns Mate Lost on Anniversary of Wedding Date

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (AP)—A widow who waited in vain to celebrate her eleventh wedding anniversary with Mose Guglielmetti, 33 years of age, was among those who today mourned the loss of eighteen lives when the lumber schooner Brooklyn went down on Humboldt Bar.

Guglielmetti, first assistant engineer, drowned yesterday on his eleventh wedding anniversary. It was to have been celebrated at the Guglielmetti home here when the ship was back in San Francisco Tuesday night, the tenth birthday of their son, Robert.

Another whose husband had escaped from two previous shipwrecks stubbornly refused to give up hope. She is Mrs. Jorgen M. Greve, a little gray-haired woman, widow of the veteran first mate of the Brooklyn.

Last year, while captain of the schooner Prentiss of the Redwood Lumber Company, Greve and his crew drifted for two days off Coos Bay, Or., when their vessel los[illegible] propeller. She was picked up and towed into port without the loss of a life. Seven years previously as master of the schooner Girlie Mahoney which ran on the rocks at Albion, Cal., Greve brought all hands safely ashore.

The possibility that William Morris, 50, may have been a victim of the wreck was advanced by relatives here. They said he has not been seen since shortly before the Brooklyn sailed from San Francisco, when he said he had been offered a job as fireman on the schooner.

Stephen L. Whipple, owner of the ship, said if Morris was aboard he was taking the place of S. Alavros, A. Budinich or M. Avalos, who are listed as firemen.

Breeden-Kilbourne Romance Brought to Life

Engagement Broken Years Ago After World Tour

Marriage Scheduled for Next Month

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—"Jack" Breeden and Kathryn Kilbourne are to be married in Santa Ana December 10. This fact, confirmed by the mother of the bride-to-be, today caused more than a ripple of interest in society circles, for it means the re-establishment of a romance that met apparent disaster nearly five years ago.

John Norton Breeden is the son of Mrs. Fred W. McNear, comes of two pioneer families and is known as one of the rising young American stage and screen stars.

Miss Kilbourne is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Kilbourne, formerly of Honolulu and now living in Santa Ana. She is a talented musician and singer and a social favorite in the islands and California.

The two met in Honolulu five years ago when young Breeden, after studying for the Diplomatic Corps in Europe, returned home and made a trip to Hawaii. Both had histrionic ability and, with this mutual interest, romance ripened quickly. Before Breeden left for the mainland their engagement was announced.

Three months later Mr. and Mrs. McNear accompanied by Breeden arranged a tour around the world and invited their son's fiancee to accompany them. A short time after their return the engagement was called off.

Cashier Kills Wife and Self

NEW ATHENS (Ill.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Ferdinand W. Fries, 65 years of age, cashier of the State Bank of New Athens, today shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Tillie Marie Fries, 46, and then committed suicide by shooting himself.

He left a note blaming his wife's 15-year-old daughter, Thelma Elrick, for trouble between himself and Mrs. Fries. The girl found the bodies after she had been attracted to the basement of the home by shots.

EX-CONVICT MURDERED

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (AP)—John Ready, 30-year-old ex-convict only four months out of prison, was shot to death at dawn today by two assailants. Persons attracted by the report of the single shot could afford police only a meager description of the killers.

SHIPS IN PERIL ON TWO OCEANS

fering from three broken ribs since yesterday. Obviously in pain, Copeland said he was injured in the handling of a small boat. He was taken to a hospital.

Otherwise the situation remained much as it has for the last seventy-two hours, except that food and fuel is running low on the stranded vessel. Theodore Roberg of the Golden Gate life-saving station, San Francisco, went aboard the tanker in the breeches buoy and came off the same way. It was he who said supplies are growing low. The crew, however, apparently is in good spirits. He said the sailors clamored for newspapers, to "see what they look like from shore," and are enjoying themselves with card games and "post mortems" of their experiences.

MAY FLOAT TANKER

Salvage company executives from Los Angeles are reported to be hopeful of refloating the Tamiahua when the sea quiets. Their exact means of preparation, if they are making progress aboard the ship, is shrouded in a thick blanket of fog that makes the vessel almost invisible, even from the shore, only a few hundred yards away.

In the last seven days six ships have been marked for the bottom of the sea by the Pacific along the west coast of the United States, but the raging waves have won only two of them and indications tonight point to defeat in the remaining questionable cases as the fury of the ocean is slowly subsiding.

The tragedy of the Brooklyn leads the list and the danger to the Tamiahua is next in consideration.

Last Monday the Japanese freighter Seiyo Maru was abandoned southwest of the Aleutian Islands when a gale battered it into submission, but not until the crew of forty had been taken off.

NORTHWESTERN SAVED

The liner Northwestern lost a rudder in Southwestern Alaskan waters Thursday, but was towed into Dundas Bay, south of Prince Rupert, without the loss of a life.

The Golden Cross, freighter, grounded on Point Reyes, just outside the Golden Gate, Thursday in a butter-thick fog, but was refloated.

The Missoula, in tow for Oakland, apparently has won its fight, with a new line aboard from the Saranac. Radio advices here report the vessel fighting its way slowly southward on the new tow cable. The Missoula broke from the Roosevelt, the tug on which Admiral Peary sailed on the voyage which brought discovery of the North Pole.

MISSING PORTLAND MAN'S BODY FOUND

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9. (AP)—The body of Sam Armishaw, 45 years of age, Portland shoe merchant for the past twenty years, who had been missing from his home since October 28, last, was found in twelve feet of water in Lake Oswego, east of here, today. The Clackamas County Coroner said the condition of the body indicates Armishaw jumped into the lake the day he disappeared.

STOP EXPERIMENTING!

Stop experimenting with one shoe and another, searching for relief, following this theory or that fad is not alone expensive, but is in fact irritating to your feet. The five famous comfort features built into every Dr. Kahler shoe are acknowledged to be the only real orthopedic and corrective principles yet developed and they have proven to be for the past 77 years. Good looks is a big feature with Dr. Kahler shoes, too, because the corrective features are built-in and concealed within the shoe. Here are the five famous features:

1. —The Dr. Kahler "Patented Instep Support" gives a comfortable and snug support to the arch without constriction.
2. —The Dr. Kahler "Straight Line Last" allows the foot full flexion and play along its NATURAL lines.
3. —The Dr. Kahler "Combination Last" two widths narrower at the heel than across the ball, assures a snugly fitting heel.
4. —The "Secret Spring" gives a gentle but firm support to weakened arches.
5. —The "Cupped Heel Seat," gripping the heel and preventing the foot from sliding forward at each step.

FORMER DEAN ADMITS THEFTS

Woman Educator Pleads Guilty in Chicago Court

Shoplifting Urge Attributed to Inactivity of Idle Days

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Almost speechless, Mrs. Mary Warhurst, formerly dean of the department of speech at Des Moines University and Iowa Wesleyan University, stood before Judge Jones yesterday and pleaded guilty to stealing 100 cheap necklaces, a fur-trimmed coat and two blouses from a Loop department store.

Dressed in an expensive fur coat, which was beginning to show worn spots at the edges, the former dean told the court a story of jobless days during the last two years and finally a job several weeks ago that proved to be all work and no pay.

IDLENESS BLAMED

Defending her behavior in turning shoplifter, she declared the urge for activity in days of idleness had prompted her to steal things which she had no idea of selling.

"I have always been an active woman," Mrs. Warhurst said. "So much idleness nearly drove me crazy. I can't keep my hands idle. Therefore, after walking the streets to shut out the monotony that was even worse than the lack of money and hotel bills staring me in the face, it seemed I couldn't help from taking things in the store. I must have been temporarily crazy, but I couldn't keep my hands still.

NEAR COLLAPSE

"Often when I pulled out my dresser drawer and viewed the gaudy beads I had stolen it seemed as though I would collapse from nausea," she continued. "I had no use for the beads or other things, but at the time I couldn't help taking them."

Several men, said to be trustees of the Iowa University, appeared today in Mrs. Warhurst's behalf. George McKibbin appeared as the ex-dean's lawyer and said he has known Mrs. Warhurst and her family more than twenty years and could truthfully testify that she had never been in trouble before. She was put on probation for a year.

tilted, however, and it climbed steadily, circling the airport a few times while the pilot sought for altitude. The machine carried thirty-four gallons of oil and 650 gallons of gas.

Capt. Ammel's plans were to follow the coast of the United States as far south as Florida, then cutting across the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico, to make his landing at France Field, Panama.

YOUTH SETS NEW CROSS-COUNTRY MARK

ROCKLAND (Me.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Stanley Boynton, 18-year-old Lexington (Mass.) aviator, landed here late today to complete a round-trip transcontinental flight begun at this airport October 17 in which he made two new junior records.

Ten thousand spectators cheered the boy flyer as he set his monoplane down at 4:20 p.m. (eastern standard time) with an elapsed flying time behind him of twenty hours and twenty-nine minutes from Los Angeles. This cut by three hours, twenty-four minutes, the previous west-to-east record of Robert Buck of Elizabeth, N. J. On the westward air trail he bettered Buck's time by more than four and one-half hours.

The last leg of his flight, and the roughest of the entire trip, Boynton said, was made from Rutland, Vt., after he had been forced down by rain while flying from Hochester, N. Y., today.

In bettering both of Buck's records, the Lexington youth flew a longer distance than any previous transcontinental flyer, as his elapsed time was reckoned from Rockland and return. Buck flew from New York.

On the westward flight to Los Angeles Boynton lopped four hours, thirty-one minutes from Buck's time of twenty-eight hours, thirty-three minutes. Buck's time for the eastward trip was twenty-three hours, forty-seven minutes.

G.O.P. ACCEPTS RIVALS' PLEDGE

Republican Leader Pleads for Good of Nation

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Evidently Republican leaders are expecting the Democratic leaders to keep their word in the next session of Congress and assist President Hoover in legislation for millions for additional public buildings to be expended at once and to provide free seed for that portion of the country which suffered from the extreme drought this summer. Recommendations for these important purposes will be included in President Hoover's message to Congress on December 1.

It is the hope that legislation for this purpose can pass both houses and be effective before the holiday recess. Many of the Senate and House leaders expect Congress to authorize the executive branch of the government to cash immediately soldiers' compensation on which they now can get only small loans. This method would immediately give to the veterans a large sum and the government could obtain it on short time government notes at less than the usual rate.

STATEMENT ISSUED

Senate Republican Leader Watson of Indiana this afternoon issued the following statement through the Republican National Committee headquarters here:

"We accept with full faith and credit the pronouncements of the seven Democratic leaders. We are very happy to know that their representation in Congress will co-operate with us in all legislative acts that tend to promote public well-being, and furthermore it is gratifying to know that they will not obstruct or embarrass the President in the conduct of the government.

"I could, of course, indulge in criticism at the obvious political propaganda which accompanies their public assurance and I could recriminate as to the past, but this is not the spirit in which I desire to accept their offer of co-operation.

"The country is in a time of difficulty from world-wide causes and co-operative action in the Congress is necessary. I believe their scheme should steady the public mind. It was, no doubt, put forward in the hope that it would stabilize the public markets which have been falling, out of unnecessary alarm, since the day of election, and it should carry conviction that this alarm is uncalled for because it gives assurance that there will be no attempt on the part of the Democratic party to support disturbing legislation.

DUTY OF G.O.P.

"It is obviously the duty of Republican members to co-operate. The two parties are practically equally divided in the Congress. It may be that the Republicans have a majority in the lower house. The very eveness of division between the two parties is without parallel in our history. It represents a legislative victory neither for the Democrats nor the Republicans. It may be well said on one side that the Democrats have made considerable legislative gains. It may be said on the other side, that the number of gains of the opposing party is much less than in many midterm elections hitherto; that the Democrats have failed in their objective and that the Republicans have held astonishingly well in the face of the adverse factors temporarily in motion.

"But, be this as it may, we are faced with a national situation where the only patriotic solution lies in co-operative action and I welcome it and I am sure my colleagues will welcome it also."

KIDNAPER BELIEVED RAIL BANDIT

Woman Sees Robbery Suspect Force Berkeley Autoist to Drive Him

OAKLAND, Nov. 8. (Exclusive)—While armed posses searched Alameda and Contra Costa counties today for a trace of the gunmen who held up the Oakland-Stockton Southern Pacific train at Nobel Friday, a youth answering the description of one of the bandits kidnaped a man from a Berkeley street.

Pistol in hand he halted a roadster at 3:30 p.m., climbed into the machine and ordered the driver, as yet unidentified, to "hit like hell for the north."

The kidnaping was witnessed by Mrs. George Heide, who was standing in her doorway. She immediately phoned police. Within five minutes they had covered all roads leading out of Berkeley.

Police advanced the theory the bandit gang has broken up, believing they will attract less attention by individual departures from the bay district.

The group of army men at Walter Reed Hospital who attended Gen. Bliss will bear his body to the grave in conformity to his wishes.

Born at Lewisbourg, Pa., December 31, 1853, one of thirteen children of George R. and Mary Raymond Bliss, he entered the Military Academy in 1871. Four years later he entered the Army. His career took him through the Spanish-American War, the Porto Rican campaign, the Philippine disorders and difficulties with Mexico.

It was ten years after his time for retirement had elapsed that he actually returned to civilian life in May, 1927, and lived in retirement in Washington.

Seine Swollen by Heavy Rains Laps at Paris

PARIS, Nov. 9. (AP)—The River Seine, swollen by heavy rains, rose to high levels today but behaved better than expected. Officials believed tonight the worst would be over in a day or two despite the fact that rains continue in many parts of France and tributaries again are rising.

While yesterday the prediction was made that the river would rise to four yards eleven inches above normal, the highest mark reached was five inches under that. In the disastrous flood of 1920 the river climbed to nine yards nine inches above normal.

The waters have invaded low-lying sections of the city.

DRY SPY MEETS SNOOPER'S FATE

New England Mother of Two Shot in Speakeasy

Woman Informer Rated as Best in Section

Unseen Assailant's Bullets May Prove Fatal

CONCORD (N. H.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Shot mysteriously as she mingled with the bootleggers she was paid to betray, Mrs. Mary G. Jeffrey, 32-year-old mother of two children, whose zeal as a dry spy made her known as "the best woman snooper in New England," is near death here today.

With two bullets in her chest Mrs. Jeffrey cried out in her delirium:

"The authorities want me to take this on the chin and keep my mouth shut—but I won't do it if I'm going to die."

Held incommunicado by the detectives who guard her against further gangster vengeance, she asked to see her machinist-husband, James Jeffrey, and her children.

His wife was employed by local, State and Federal authorities in New Hampshire and Vermont to betray the route of rum shipments and other secrets of the bootleg trade, Jeffrey admitted.

"She made lots of money, but it was dangerous work," Jeffrey said.

"Jonathan Lewis, Prohibition Director of New England, urged her just recently to keep under cover so he could use her on some important cases that are about to come up. But she spoiled that by getting herself shot."

TWO PLANES JOIN IN LOST FLYER HUNT

Seattle Aviators Added to Air Force Searching for Missing Parties

SEATTLE, Nov. 9. (AP)—Two more planes today joined the fleet of aircraft searching for six flyers missing in Northern British Columbia. The Seattle planes, piloted by W. J. Barrows and Harry Blunt, both of San Francisco, took off from Boeing Field here for Vancouver, B. C., from where they will proceed north when weather conditions permit.

The objects of the search are Capt. E. J. A. Burke, who with his pilot, Emil Kading and Bob Marten, a prospector, have been missing in the Liard post district since October 11, and Pilot Robin "Pat" Renahan, Sam Clerf and Frank Hatcher, all of Seattle, last seen near Prince Rupert, B. C., October 28. Renahan and his party were en route north to hunt for Burke.

Possibility that navy planes may be employed in the relief expedition was seen in the request of Senator Wesley L. Jones, prompted by W. W. Conner, president of the Seattle chapter of the National Aeronautic Association, that three planes from the base at San Diego be assigned to aid in the quest.

The Royal Canadian Air Force has assigned two planes to assist in the hunt and a relief committee in Vancouver is also planning an expedition.

LICENSE TO WED NOT MATRIMONY

Amelia Earhart's Nuptials Still Mystery

Clerk Certifies Issuance of Her Permit

Aviatrix Denies Marriage or Intent Now

NOANK, (Ct.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Henry L. Bailey, town clerk, tonight said he had issued a marriage license yesterday to Miss Amelia Earhart, first woman to fly across the Atlantic, and George Palmer Putnam, New York publisher. Probate Judge Anderson said he had waived the Connecticut five-day marriage license law for the couple.

Although Miss Earhart and Putnam were reported to have been married here after they had obtained the license and the waiver, a check of several persons eligible to marry them failed to bring confirmation of the wedding. Under Connecticut law the wedding must be performed in the community in which the license is obtained.

Mrs. Francis Putnam, the publisher's mother, who maintains a summer home here, declined to confirm or deny a report the marriage had taken place.

MISS EARHART FLATLY DENIES MARRIAGE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Miss Amelia Earhart, first woman to fly across the Atlantic, said tonight there was "not a word of truth" in reports she and George Palmer Putnam, New York publisher, had been married.

"There is not a thing to it at all," she asserted.

Asked if she had been to Noank, Ct., recently, she replied:

"Oh, yes, I go up there quite frequently."

She added, however, she knew nothing of a marriage license being issued there yesterday to her and Putnam.

"Some time in the next fifty years I may be married," she explained, laughing.

Miss Earhart, a vice-president of the New York, Philadelphia and Washington Airway Corporation, said she came to Washington early today on business and will remain here several days. She said Putnam is not here.

Although attending physicians hesitate to officially declare him out of danger, it is evident that Chicago's chief executive has beaten his illness.

Friedman was visiting here when, Oliver Hughes charges, he was racing another car and bumped into Hughes's truck, December 12, 1927.

Deputies have been looking for Friedman to come to Ohio ever since the suit was filed, but were unsuccessful until a process-bearing official found him at Portsmouth last Wednesday while he was there with the New York Giants for a professional game. Officials said Friedman was thereupon formally "tagged."

JAPANESE DRAFT NAVAL PROGRAM

Plans Will Be Submitted to Cabinet Tomorrow

Compromise Made With Civilian Element

Large Sum Will Be Saved for Tax Reduction

TOKIO, Nov. 10. (Monday) (AP)—A new naval program totaling 373,000,000 yen (about $186,000,000) and covering the six-year term of the London naval treaty has taken definite form as the result of a compromise between Baron Kiyokasu Abe, Minister of the Navy, and Junnosuke Inouye, Minister of Finance, after extended discussions aimed to reconcile the divergent claims of their respective ministries.

The compromise of Ministers Abe and Inouye will be submitted to the Cabinet tomorrow and its adoption is considered probable.

The program includes a 70 per cent increase of the navy's aviation arm and 50,000,000 yen for modernization of capital ships.

THREE-PART PROGRAM

The program is designed to give Japan the maximum tonnage and efficiency permitted by the London pact and is divided into three parts, as follows: First, 218,000,000 yen for new warship construction, including 160,000,000 yen for vessels limited by the London treaty and 58,000,000 yen for naval aviation expansion; second, 90,000,000 yen for the addition of twelve new air squadrons to the present strength of seventeen squadrons, including 50,000,000 yen for maintenance; third, 65,000,000 yen for modernization of existing warship strength, including 50,000,000 yen for modernization of capital ships.

The compromise indicates the civilian element of the government was largely successful in its stand against the navy's larger claims.

LARGE TAX REDUCTION

It is estimated the London treaty has relieved Japan of the necessity of building naval tonnage costing 508,000,000 yen (about $254,000,000.) The navy asserts most of this sum should be devoted to the new six-year program, while civilian members of the Cabinet insist that at least one-third should be devoted to reduction of taxes.

The compromise means that about 135,000,000 yen will be available for tax reduction, 10,000,000 yen in 1931 and 25,000,000 yen for each of the next five years.

PORTUGAL COMPLETES NAVAL PROGRAM PLANS

MURDER IN BLAST PLOT DISCOVERED

Slaying of Watchman in Try to Blow Up Hospital Laid to Discharged Man

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—John Weber, night fireman and watchman at a Catholic hospital here, was found murdered early Sunday in the boiler room of the hospital. He was slumped beside the huge hospital boiler which throbbed and glowed with white heat, all the water in the tank having been let out.

Rrom this circumstance police surmised that the murder had been done by a vengeful plotter, who killed Weber only as an incidental step in a plan to explode the boiler and blow up the hospital.

The discovery of the dead man and the condition of the boiler was made with little margin to spare, as it was believed that the heating plant would have exploded shortly.

The lives of forty-two patients in the four floors of wards, and of twenty-one sisters, five nurses, several internes and two workers on the hospital staff hung in the balance.

The search for the murderer turned to Thomas McNamara, 38 years of age, who was discharged because of his drinking last Tuesday, after he had served for six weeks as day fireman. As he left, McNamara told Mother Superior Dorothea:

"You will regret discharging me. I am going to blow this place up. It was Weber who lost me my job. I'll get him."

BUILDING Trust Business

THE PAST FEW YEARS have seen a great increase in the volume of trust business brought to the banks and trust companies of Southern California. Recognition is becoming general that the best way to protect estates and beneficiaries is to name a corporation, rather than an individual, as executor. A very large proportion of this augmented stream of Wills and Trusts has been directed to Security-First National Bank.

While it is true that this Bank has devised efficient methods of building up its trust business, the fact remains that a great many Wills are drawn, a great many Trusts are created with this Bank as Executor or Trustee, solely because of our excellent reputation.

Efficiency in the handling of business details, accuracy in accounting, business acumen in handling property to produce the best return consistent with safety, a strong sense of responsibility to those who are under our protection, with a sincere desire to be helpful to them...these are the elements which have built up this Bank's reputation as a good Executor and Trustee.

Built to stand up to our GUARANTEE FOR LIFE

Yet made with a velvety, non-resisting point—for which we pay our point-smiths cash rewards

Pressureless Touch

Nowhere else do you get this combination of lifelong durability with Pressureless Touch—Parker's 47th Improvement

While difficult to build a pen that will last for life—the greater achievement, by far, is to make it both life-enduring and pressureless-writing. To take from the point all resistance to hand and paper—to make it velvety smooth and instantly responsive.

Parker's inspiring success in this has baffled the whole pen industry. But Duofold points are clearly without rival. We have developed a body of point-smiths who are aces, every one.

We limit the number of points that each may make per day, for every point must pass 11 merciless tests, including Pressureless Touch. Then we pay its maker a bonus.

There's one of these Bonus points in every Parker Duofold Pen. Go and try it beside any other. The difference will win you, as new thousands daily are won to Parker Duofold.

And note the world of style in Parker's new streamlined barrel. Yet for all its grace, it holds 17.4% more ink than average, and lets the Pen set low and unexposed in the pocket, without bulge. All dealers are now demonstrating.

PARIS FASHION SHOPS HARD HIT

World-Famed Places Forced Into Bankruptcy

Dressmaking Leadership May be Forfeited

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Hard times have hit the Paris fashion factories and a number of people are wondering if soup kitchens are going to have to be established in the Rue de la Paix.

In the last week several important shops have been forced to close their doors and some smaller ones which can be found in almost any block in the city are going out of business by the dozens. An investigation today revealed a staggering list of internationally-known houses which have either failed or are struggling to keep their heads above water.

FAMOUS SHOPS CLOSED

Some of the well-known shops which have already closed their doors are Cyber, Deuillet-Doucet, Alice Bernard, Maghelly and Irfe. The last place was run by Prince Felix Youssoupoff. Drecdl-Beer, one of the leading couturiers in Place Vendome, went broke a short time ago and only escaped bankruptcy by merging with the world-famous Agnes.

A number of the older firms which dictate fashions to women the world over are known to be in desperate straits.

It is feared that if the movement keeps up Paris will definitely lose her lofty position as the fashion capital of the world—probably to New York. In addition it is a serious blow to the business in France since the couturier industry is one of the most important in the country and provides employment for thousands.

MIDINETTES HARD HIT

The bad times which have hit the dressmaking industry here have particularly affected thousands of midinettes whose only source of income was from this business. They were forced to work for starvation wages even when conditions were most favorable, and since many are completely alone in the world the continuance of failures among the couturier houses is bound to reduce them to terrible misery.

On the other hand the dressmakers' hard luck is proving to be a godsend to thousands of women of moderate means who are taking advantage of the closing-out sales to pick up bargains.

FATAL ACCIDENT HAS ODD SEQUEL

Husband Admits Blame for Wife's Death But Sues Company He Heads

ROCKFORD (Ill.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Maintaining that his own careless driving was the cause of his wife's death, J. H. Krause has brought suit for $10,000 damages against the J. H. Krause Company, holding the company liable because he was its agent on a business trip at the time of the accident.

Krause is president of the company that bears his name. Mrs. Lillian Krause was killed November 13, 1929, in an automobile accident near Elgin, Ill., while she was accompanying Krause.

Suit was started by Krause as administrator of his wife's estate.

PHILIPPINE LEGISLATORS END SESSION

Law Creating Board for Control of Sugar Trade Most Important Passed

MANILA, Nov. 9. (AP)—The Philippine Legislature ended its session today. Probably the most important legislation adopted, in so far as foreign nations are concerned, was that creating boards vested with a large degree of control over the sugar and cocoanut industries.

These boards will have the power to limit crops and the legislation contains the possibility of forcing diversification of crops, advocated by many governor-generals.

The Senate refused to approve the "board of education bill," which would have given to the board many powers now held by the Vice Governor-General. The measure was passed by the House when it was believed Nicholas Roosevelt would come to the Philippines as Vice Governor-General. Roosevelt resigned and was appointed United States Minister to Hungary.

Nothing was done by the Legislature to curb Filipino emigration to the United States or to divert it to the Island of Mindanao.

TALKIE PROJECTOR IN VETERAN HOSPITAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Talking-picture theaters for the amusement of disabled ex-service men are being installed in all of the United States veterans' hospitals of the country, Brig.-Gen. Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs, announced today. Contracts for the installation of sound pictures in veterans' hospitals were awarded July 9 and the installation has been completed at sixteen hospitals, including those at Minneapolis, St. Cloud, Minn.; Camp Custer, Mich.; North Chicago, Ill.; Hines, Ill., and Knoxville, Iowa. Installation work will be completed shortly in all of the other hospitals.

Hoarding of Capital Hit by Business Leader

This is the sixth of a series of articles by leading business men of the nation discussing commercial conditions and the general trend. Other articles will appear in The Times from time to time.

BY BERNARD F. GIMBEL

(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Much has been said, and more written, of the causes for the depression from which the country is now beginning to emerge. And many have tried to forecast the future. Some people are discouraged with the outlook—visualize a changed standard of economic life in America; others foresee larger-than-ever prosperity ahead.

Since the period of recession in industry predates the drop of the security market in 1929, it may be said that we are now well into the second year of less than normal prosperity. I believe the country is emerging, not alone from indices that appear in industrial reports, but because two years have about been the extent of previous depressed periods.

PROSPERITY NOT DISTANT

And since every period of depression in the past seventy years has been followed by a longer period of greater prosperity than the one preceding, I confidently look to fine prosperity in the not-so-distant future.

It will be recalled that the United States had a trying period in 1913-14. At that time some of our statesmen said the country was "psychologically" depressed. It was then, and is now, small comfort to a person out of work, an individual whose income has been curtailed through diminishing profits or diminished capital, to be told that depression is other than very real.

But there are many so-called psychological factors which contribute to a continuance of present conditions. A very slight change in these factors will hasten prosperity's return. No one likes to get their fingers burned a second time.

When the country failed to take heed of underlying conditions and got "burned," all tried to avoid the second time. Everyone held back—the public, the retailer, the distributor, the manufacturer, the commodity factor and the producer of raw material. It suddenly became a cardinal virtue to get along with as little as possible and to hoard. Every one of us has been prone to haul in all canvas and drift. Many have been surprised with how little they can get along.

KEEP UP STANDARDS

The thinking person holds no brief for wasteful extravagance. Actually, however, the great majority of our countrymen have not had their income reduced. American prosperity was achieved by a high standard of living on the part of the entire nation. American prosperity can be maintained by a continuance of these standards.

It is time now for all to realize that "money makes the mare go" and to stop their hoarding and maintain a proper standard of living and spending. And there is every reason for this. For there has not been a period in many years when as much can be secured for the money.

In a period of depression the retail business is affected less than others. Retail stocks turn over nearly every two months. Price recession in commodities and finished goods are quickly available to the public. People must live; they must be clothed and fed. Their household needs must be replaced.

The year 1930 has been no exception in retail business history. A recent survey indicated that retail sales were behind only about 9 per cent while transactions with customers were far ahead of last year. I believe that prices are down about 20 per cent. With the coming of colder weather, business has improved. I believe we are in the convalescent period. Soon we will be well. Later we will be stronger than ever.

INVENTORIES LOW

Many facts substantiate this. Inventories in manufacturers' and retailers' hands are very low. The public is awakening to a realization that life is going on pretty much as always. Even now shortages are occurring in wanted goods, deliveries are slowing up, and larger orders are being placed. The starting of factories will take up the slack in employment.

The large retailer is doing a better job for the consumer than formerly. The period of depression focused attention upon every job and every individual. Production and service have been improved, and with lower prices, there is every reason for the public to buy with confidence.

The movement of the government to hasten public work, the efforts of communities to aid the unemployed, the "buy now" campaigns in many cities are creditable and all help in emergencies.

But the quickest way to bring back American prosperity and to keep our citizens living at the world's highest standard is for the employed individual, the head of a business, our capitalists, to work courageously and spend sensibly.

Prosperity's return will be greatly hastened if every one of us realizes that he must do his share, and that prosperity is not manufactured or ordained.

Game Warden Shoots Hunter

CHARDON (O.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Richard Hannah, 18 years of age, was shot to death, his brother George, 22, was wounded, and another brother, James, 28, was captured in a clash with officers today. A. I. Davis, game warden, said they resisted arrest for violating the law prohibiting Sunday hunting.

PORTUGUESE TRAVEL

LISBON, Nov. 9. (AP) — Portugal's consuls in Spain report there are 15,000 Portuguese working in the neighboring kingdom, of whom 4000 earn livings in Madrid.

RANCHER'S AIRPLANE USED AS MERCY SHIP

DEL RIO (Tex.) Nov. 9. (AP)—An airplane owned by Emery Davis, rancher-aviator, twice served as a mercy ship during a flood near here.

Mrs. E. L. Chapman was stricken with a serious illness at her ranch home, eighty miles from Del Rio, but because of high water it was impossible to bring her here over the highways. Davis flew to the ranch and brought her in the plane. She recovered in a Del Rio hospital.

A short time later Everett Duke of Del Rio was drowned in the South Concho River near Christoval. Davis took Earl Duke, the victim's father, to San Angelo in his plane to identify the body after it was found.

Drought Rail Rates Will Be Discontinued

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—Emergency reductions in the freight rates put into effect by railroads for the relief of drought sufferers will be discontinued the 30th inst.

Eastern, western and southern railway executives, in making this announcement today, said the revenue loss will aggregate several million dollars "and such a drain on the revenues cannot longer be continued."

The announcement said the reductions were made effective at the request of President Hoover and more than 60,000 carloads of freight will have been moved under the reduced rates by November 30.

Newspapers of Old California Change Hands

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Sale of two California newspapers, one among the oldest in the State, has been announced.

At Martinez State Senator Will R. Sharkey, publisher of the Martinez Daily Standard, has purchased the Contra Costa County Gazette, reputed to be one of the three oldest daily papers of California, from John F. Galvin, who also publishes papers in Richmond and Crocket. Senator Sharkey said he will combine the two afternoon papers.

At Santa Ana announcement is made of the sale of the Santa Ana Times to J. Frank Burke, owner of the Santa Ana Register. The last issue of the Times, which was owned by M. C. and D. E. Maloney, was published today.

Third Passenger Injured Perhaps Fatally

Craft on Barnstorming Trip Drops 500 Feet

STAUNTON (Va.) Nov. 9. (AP)—A barnstorming airplane crashed from a height of 500 feet at Verona, six miles north of here, late today, and carried to their deaths the pilot and two passengers and seriously injured a third passenger.

The dead are Greenlee Bauserman, 22 years of age, and Sam Driver, 22, both of Mt. Sidney, Va., passengers, and Jairus Collins, Jr., 25, lawyer-aviator of Bluefield, W. Va. Paul Rimel, 24, of Romans, Va., may die from injuries.

The plane, a cabin type, had taken off from the field here with Collins at the controls only a few moments before the crash occurred.

Collins, Bauserman and Driver were dead when spectators pulled the wreckage apart. Rimel was brought unconscious to a Staunton hospital.

Horses Blessed at German Fete

BAD TOLZ, Nov. 9. (AP) — St. Leonhard's day, the 6th inst., saw again in various parts of Bavaria the ancient "Leonhard processions," ending with the blessing of the horses, of which Leonhard is the patron saint. In Bad Tolz, where the custom has existed longest, the peasants drive with their finest horses, harnesses and wagons, to the Leonhard chapel, a mile from the spa. Here the priest celebrates high mass, and the horses are then led past the chapel and blessed. The same scene can be observed in many other Bavarian villages on this day.

AUSTRIAN VOTE CHANGES LINE-UP

Social Democrats Lead in Election Count

Christian Socials Drop to Second Place

Fascist Heimwehr Obtains Only Few Seats

VIENNA, Nov. 9 (AP)—With returns from the Austrian Parliamentary election nearly complete, apparently the Social Democrats have ousted the Christian Socials from the power they formerly held.

Late indications were the Social Democrats would have seventy-three and perhaps even seventy-four mandates in the new House of 165 members. The party had seventy-one in the old House.

The Christian Socials, who held seventy-three seats in the former House, apparently dropped to sixty-three in this election. With them were allied certain factions of the Fascist Heimwehr.

The straight Fascist Heimwher, which is contemptuous of Parliamentary government and stands for a dictatorship, ran poorly, with indications it would have only five or six mandates.

Dr. Johann Schober's party, the economic group, working with the Agrarian League, probably will have twenty-three seats. The former Chancellor cut into the Christian Social returns.

Reports from over the country indicated only slight disturbances occurred. Some had feared the Fascists might create trouble, but the young leader Prince Ernst Rudiger von Starhemberg told a Fascist meeting last night the party was not particularly interested in the election. He added the Fascists were indifferent as to the capture of mandates, saying the party intended to govern Austria from outside the walls of the National Assembly, anyway.

The Fascists favor a stern dictatorship and long have opposed Parliamentary government, labeling Parliament a "jabbering-booth."

Fourteen parties participated in the elections, but of these the Christian Socials, the Social Democrats and the Fascist Heimwehr were reckoned the strongest. The new party of Dr. Schober, who formerly was Chancellor, was calculated to cut somewhat into the Christian Socials, as the returns indicate.

While apparently no widespread disturbance occurred, a report from Donawaitz, Styria, said that Fascists armed with wired whips attacked a group of Socialists, injuring two persons severely and two others slightly.

PAIR FEARED LOST AT SEA REACH LAND

Men in Canoe on Long Trip Put in at Santa Barbara After Week Battle

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 9. (AP)—Fred Pohl and Max Riek, who were given up for lost when they failed to reach Monterey, landed here tonight after being a week at sea in a sixteen-foot canoe. The pair was attempting a cruise from San Francisco to Montevideo in the frail craft.

Utterly exhausted from a battle with high seas which roughened the Santa Barbara channel today the pair rowed in to the beach and were assisted to town.

Pohl said heavy swells washed their chart and compass overboard while they were off Monterey and they were unable to make their scheduled landing there. He said they left Santa Cruz last Sunday and had been afloat ever since.

RIOT AVOIDED BY HITLERITES

Mourning Rites Conducted on Republic's Birthday

National Socialists' Chief Stays in Background

Only One Speaker Heard and He Remains Moderate

MUNICH (Germany) Nov. 9. (AP) Two thousand National Socialists today conducted mourning services here to commemorate the twelfth anniversary of the revolution which established the German republic.

They gathered around and in the historic Buergerbrau beer cellar where Adolph Hitler planned his abortive conspiracy to overthrow the present German government in 1923. The ceremonies were conducted without disorder and Hitler himself kept in the background.

MODERATE LANGUAGE

The Bavarian government's ban on Fascist uniforms continued in force, but 100 or so of the leading Fascists had obtained special permission to don the brown shirts for the occasion. The program largely was musical, the only speaker being the Fascist divisional commander, Alfred Wagner, who is a member of the Bavarian Diet.

In moderate language, Wagner said the present government has lost all touch with the nation, and it is to Hitler's merit that he has roused 6,500,000 citizens to readiness to stake all for the Nationalist idea.

AUSTRIANS MENTIONED

Referring to "our Austrian brethren," who, he said, are also busy rebuilding their state on Fascist lines, Wagner predicted the day will come when, standing shoulder to shoulder, the Germans and Austrians will reconstruct the greater German fatherland.

To music especially composed as a Fascist march, the meeting dispersed in orderly fashion. Previously the National-Socialists had participated in official mourning exercises for the war dead at the army memorial in front of the Army Museum. These exercises also ended without untoward incidents.

After visiting Yuma Thursday, the commission will spend Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Calexico and Mexicali, while problems presented by the Tia Juna River will be studied at a meeting to be held in San Diego Monday of next week.

BRAZIL FACING FACTION FIGHT

Row Over Representation Preference Grows Acute

Provincial Forces Continue to Haunt Capital

Vargas Must Settle Quarrel Before Term Opens

(Copyright, 1930, by the Associated Press)

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 8. (AP)—Travelers recently arriving from Brazil assert Dr. Getulio Vargas, who took over the government of Brazil Monday following upon a successful revolution, may not have an easy path in the future.

Many persons in Rio de Janeiro, it was said, fear fighting between the different revolutionary factions which have brought their troops into the Federal capital.

MEN ORDERED HOME

It is understood when fighting ceased Dr. Vargas told the rebel generals to take their men home from the fronts occupied, but the officers said they had promised their men victorious entry into Rio and hence would march there.

Even before Dr. Vargas arrived at Rio De Janeiro to take over the provisional government several contingents of southern gaucho soldiers had reached the capital. Others have been coming since, from northern and southern States by boats and from Minas Geraes by train. Observers estimate 20,000 now are in the city.

The southern revolutionists have a large showing in the provisional Cabinet, but the north is not represented except for Capt. Juarez Tavora as Minister of Communications, while Minas Geraes has only one place also.

ROW OVER PREFERENCE

The revolt was engineered chiefly in the southern State of Rio Grande do Sul, but broke out simultaneously in Minas Geraes. Juarez Tavora at the same time took over the operation in the north and eventually claimed nine States.

Hence, political observers say, the different factions are quarreling over preference, and trouble is predicted unless they are satisfied by the 15th inst., when the official Presidential term begins.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Brazilian steamer Pocone, which carried a bevy of European beauties here for the September beauty pageant, is being outfitted as a "yacht" the newspaper Esquerda says today, for transportation of banished political prisoners to Europe.

IMMIGRANTS TO GET PALESTINE PERMITS

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The Colonial Office tonight confirmed reports permits will be issued to 1500 Palestine immigrants in the next six months, but explained this does not mean a reversal of the British policy in Palestine, as set forth in a recent white paper. Zionist circles in London, which asked for 2000 permits, said the granting of 1500 does not allay their grievances as to restrictions placed on Palestine immigration.

He was arrested on orders from Washington as he was visiting his cousin, Miss Frieda Mierse, a show girl and New York's candidate for "Miss America" at the 1927 Atlantic City beauty show.

Borah Enlists Public Opinion to Insure Peace

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 9. (AP)—Senator Borah of Idaho declared in an address tonight that organized public opinion, not military force, must be brought to bear to insure peace in the world.

'KING OF KINGS' NEEDS PALACE

Abyssinian Emperor Decides Residence Shack

Million-Dollar Edifice His Present Ambition

Coronation Cost His Fortune, Job Pays No Salary

ADDIS ABABA (Abyssinia) Nov. 9. (AP)—Now that the coronation ceremonies are ended and Emperor Haile Selassie is better known to the outside world he intends to build a sumptuous $1,000,000 palace on the site of the present unsightly wooden structure, believing the new building will be more in keeping with the dignity of the "King of Kings."

Since the Emperor spent most of his personal fortune on the coronation the funds of the new palace must come from the granting of concessions of foreigners, the sale of some of the Emperor's vast land holdings and voluntary contributions from the people. The Emperor receives no salary and therefore is largely dependent for income upon customs revenues and levies on tribal chieftains.

AMERICANS LEAVE

The American delegation to the coronation left today, tired but exhilarated by the three weeks of festivities attending the splendid and barbaric ceremonies.

The Americans left for Djibouti, where they will board the liner General Duchesne November 11 for Port Said. After ten days in Egypt they will start for New York by way of Marseilles.

The chief delegates, H. Murray Jacoby and Gen. W. W. Harts, and their wives said their stay in Abyssinia was the most wonderful experience of their lives. They were the recipients of marked courtesy on the part of the Emperor, who received them in special farewell audiences.

BURTON HOLMES THERE

Another American, Burton Holmes, motion-picture lecturer and travel authority, received unusual honors. Haile Selassie presented him a magnificent national Ethiopian costume and also decorated him with the Order of Menelik, II.

The German, Swedish, Egyptian, Dutch, Turkish and French delegations also left today, but the Duke of Gloucester's British party will remain three weeks longer for a lion hunt.

A sidelight of the coronation festivities last week was the situation brought about by the wife of a foreign diplomat, who questioned whether a German midwife who had advanced to the position of principal lady in waiting to the Ethiopian Empress had the right to sit at dinner with the foreign Diplomatic Corps.

DOLLY GANN CASE

So difficult was the problem the foreign corps held a special meeting and decided Frieda Haetel, the lady in waiting had a right to sit with the foreign diplomats if in the presence of the Empress, but was not of sufficient social standing to be invited to dinners and other functions at foreign legations.

The incident at one time threatened to disrupt the coronation festivities but was solved before news of it reached the Emperor's ears.

The German woman, who came to Abyssinia many years ago, is considered the most powerful person in the entourage of the Empress.

STRANGE WORLD UNFOLDED

Resident of Northwest Village "Comes Out" for First Time This Century to See Sights

SPOKANE (Wash.) Nov. 9. (AP)—A grand jury subpoena yesterday unfolded a strange world to G. L. Kells, 61 years of age, of Republic, Wash.

Kells, who is a cobbler, police judge and caretaker of the town water pumps in his little Northern Washington village, "came out" for the first time in thirty-one years and stared in bewilderment at changes time has brought.

Although Republic is only 150 miles from Spokane—a short outing jaunt to the motorist, or a few minutes' travel to the fast airplane—Kells saw his first electric street car, his first oiled highway, his first talkie, traffic light and motor bus on this trip, and he became panicky as he shot skyward in an express elevator.

But after his gasps of amazement, Kells seemed little impressed by what he saw. The homely practices of his village held him in a firmer grip than all the new-fangled inventions.

At the first opportunity he pulled two buckeyes out of his pocket. Some one gave them to him to cure rheumatism, he confided.

"A fellow in Republic," he said, "tried sleeping with his feet on a black cat to cure rheumatism, and another kept a potato in his pocket for years."

But he didn't believe in those old-fashioned ideas. "I have an idea when you get rheumatism you've got it, that's all," he philosophised.

"The carrying out of street widenings, highway grade separations, railway-highway grade separations, pedestrian subways, and other major improvements," he added, "afford an obvious means of aiding in the present situation, where plans and arrangements are or can be sufficiently advanced to permit the work to be undertaken.

"Several cities," Lamont continued, "have followed the practice of building pedestrian subways near public schools which are located on busy traffic routes. Scores of pedestrian tunnels of this kind have been built in Los Angeles and have resulted in eliminating accidents to school-children. Tunnels of this character cost an average of less than $10,000 each and readily pay for themselves over a period of years in lowered police costs."

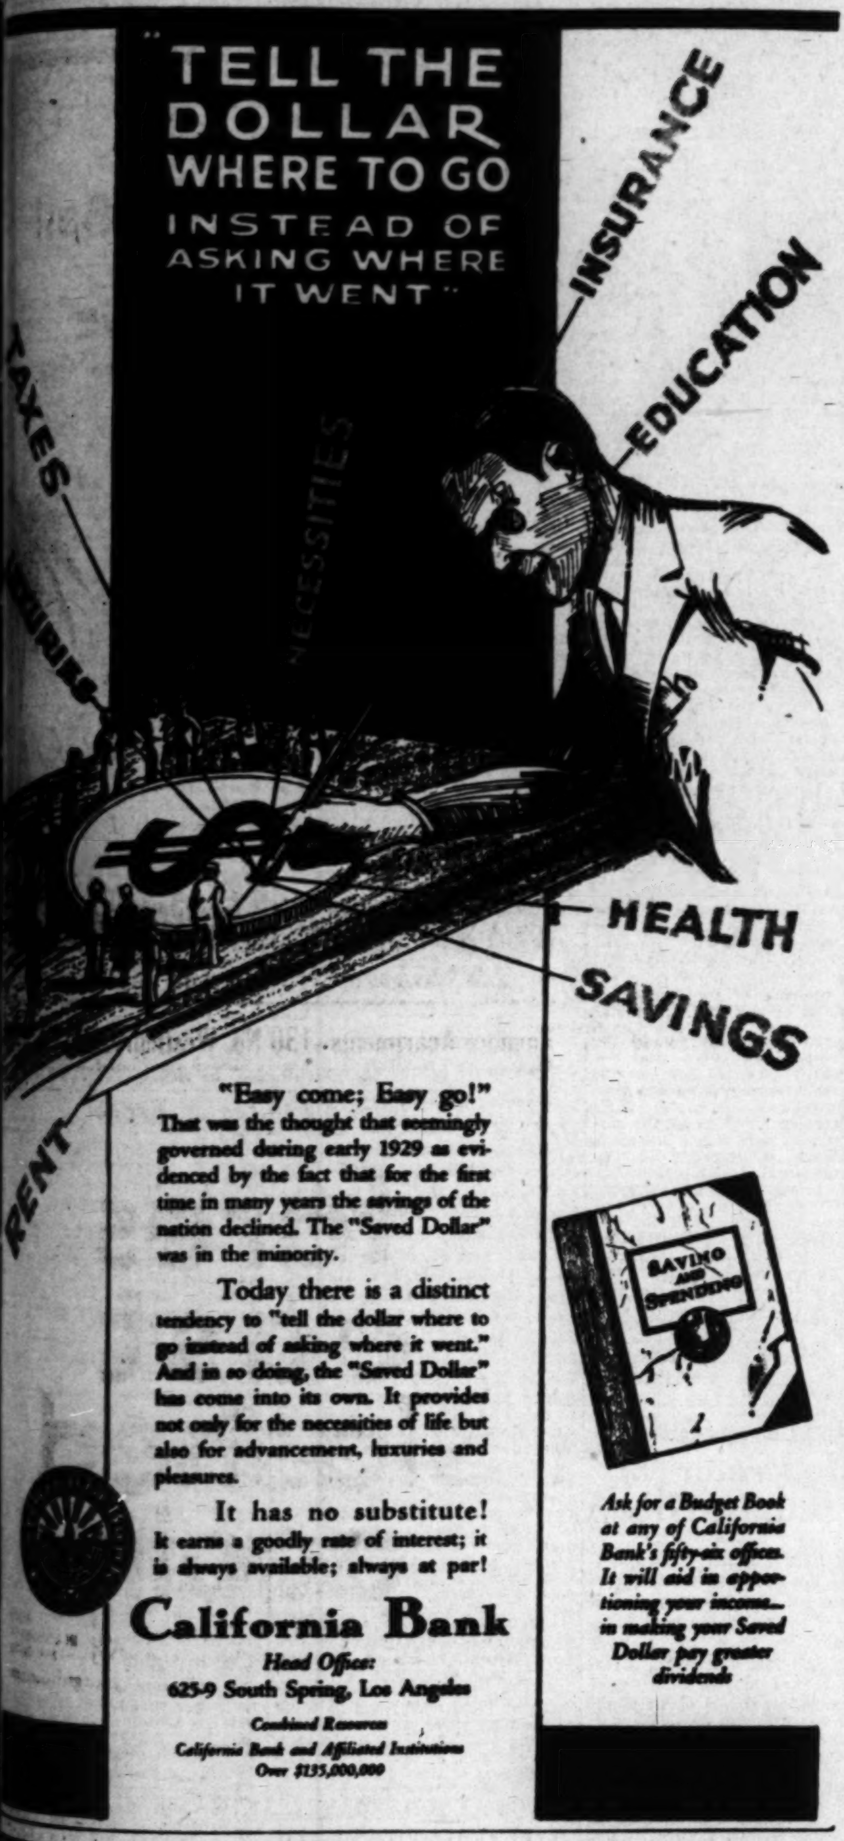
Lamont said many of the materials required for construction could be obtained at a more favorable price than usual and "now would seem to be a very favorable time to undertake a kind of community house cleaning with respect to traffic matters."

OLD FARM OF LINDBERGH MAY BECOME STATE PARK

LITTLE FALLS (Minn.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Creation into a State park of the boyhood farm and home of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, near here, will be asked of the next Minnesota Legislature, Representative Rosenmeier of this city, said tonight.

The Lindbergh homestead, where the aviator as a boy, tinkered with an old motorcycle and evinced his first interest in mechanics, is two miles south of Little Falls on the Mississippi River.

A survey is being made of the farm consisting of eighty acres, and Representative Rosenmeier said that owners of the Lindbergh farm are ready to deed it to the State as a gift if favorable action establishing a State park is obtained.



"Easy come; Easy go!" That was the thought that seemingly governed during early 1929 as evidenced by the fact that for the first time in many years the savings of the nation declined. The "Saved Dollar" was in the minority.

Today there is a distinct tendency to "tell the dollar where to go instead of asking where it went." And in so doing, the "Saved Dollar" has come into its own. It provides not only for the necessities of life but also for advancement, luxuries and pleasures.

It has no substitute! It earns a goodly rate of interest; it is always available; always at par!

WOMEN FLOUT POVERTY GHOST

Full Co-operation Given in Employment Campaign

Housewives Urged to Keep Up Living Standards

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. (AP)—The nation's women, in the words of one who appealed to them, are responding "marvelously" to the administration's call for country-wide co-operation against the ills of involuntary idleness.

Dr. Lillian Moller Gilbreth of New Jersey, mother of eleven children and grandmother of two, who won scientific praise for a study of "the best way to do work," was optimistic today as she discussed the work of the President's emergency employment committee.

"Hundreds of thousands of women are represented," Dr. Gilbreth said, pointing to a stack of letters and telegrams that have brought to her desk assurance their senders already have begun to co-operate or will do so.

PLEA TO CLUBS

Two weeks ago, when she took charge of the women's division of the committee, Dr. Gilbreth asked through the press that housewives join efforts against unemployment by surveying their surroundings and arranging for repairs and odd jobs. Then she dictated letters to 200 presidents of national women's clubs.

"In Birmingham, Ala., they have started a 'give-a-job,' campaign," Dr. Gilbreth said. "This, of course, is the best possible relief work, for it means stabilization of morale as well as aid to distress.

"From California comes word that 26,000 members of the Federation of Women's Clubs have been called upon to help," continued Dr. Gilbreth. "Their president suggests if each of them gives a day's job to the unemployed, 26,000 days' work will be supplied."

Another Alabama community—Mobile—has a working relief machine manned by women. A group have constituted themselves an employment agency, and they have found work for 902 persons. In Providence, R. I., a women's organization has undertaken a similar project. The Daughters of the American Revolution, as a national society, has offered co-operation, as have the General Federation of Women's Clubs and others.

"KEEP UP STANDARDS"

"Back your local organization"—this is the first admonition of the women's leader. Her next is, "Work with regional relief directors," and she urges, also, "Keep up your standard of living in your own home."

The goal of Dr. Gilbreth is to make her office a clearing-house of advice and information, to stimulate local efforts and to give information on successful methods available where knowledge of them could be applied. Soon Dr. Gilbreth will begin a radio campaign, urging women to "buy—but buy wisely." She will suggest that the women look first to their own homes, to maintain normal diets for their children, to seek relief if necessary, although they have never before done so. She will ask Parent-Teachers' organizations to insure correct lunches for school children.

"From coast to coast, women are asking for directions," Dr. Gilbreth said. "We are furnishing them as rapidly as possible."

MEMORIAL FUND GIVEN $250,000 FOR RELIEF

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Donation of $250,000 from the Milbank Memorial Fund and the selection of former Gov. Smith to be chairman of a committee of 199 to unify relief work were developments in the city's war on unemployment today.

The $250,000 gift was made to an emergency employment committee headed by Seward Prosser, chairman of the board of the Bankers' Trust Company.

The fund was established in 1905 by Mrs. Elizabeth Milbank Anderson as a memorial to her mother and father, with an appropriation of $10,000,000. Its purpose is the improvement of the physical, mental and moral conditions of humanity and the general advancement of charitable and benevolent objects.

Four Kentucky Youths Killed

ENGLAND TO ADOPT RAIL-AIR SERVICE

LONDON, Nov. 9. (AP) — The Reynolds News said today that after months of secret negotiations the four big British railway groups have almost completed plans to inaugurate rail-air services between Great Britain, the continent and Ireland.

Twenty new amphibian airplanes have been ordered, while coastal rail-airdromes will be established at Dover, Harwich, Hull and Holyhead. The first routes will be between Holyhead and Dublin, Dover and Paris, Hull and Holland and Harwich and Holland. Express trains will run up to the air stations.

EX-ENVOY WALLACE GOES TO WASHINGTON

The parade moves north on Euclid avenue to Chaffey Union High School where the patriotic program is to be given at 11 o'clock.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION AT HUNTINGTON PARK

HUNTINGTON PARK, Nov. 9.—Armistice Day in Huntington Park is to be celebrated Tuesday in the most elaborate way ever attempted by Robert T. McColley American Legion Post, Commander W. Y. Bellert announcing that four large divisions will participate in the opening feature of the day's celebration—the parade. This will move over the main streets of the city beginning at 10 o'clock. Several floats are to be seen in the procession, besides disabled war veterans, Grand Army of the Republic Veterans, Spanish-American War Veterans, civic and fraternal organizations, the city police and fire departments, and three bands, the High School, South Gate boys and the city band.

After the parade, which will disband at Municipal Park, where Patriotic Hall is located, there will also be a program of music and addresses, the main address to be given by Rev. Kelly O'Neall, pastor of the First Christian Church of Huntington Park.

In the afternoon there will be out-of-doors sports, the principal one to be a football contest between two high school squads. This event will be at Reeder's Field at the local high school.

The celebration will end at night when the American Legion will give a grand ball at Patriotic Hall.

It is announced that stores in the city will be closed from 10 o'clock in the morning until the noon hour.

HEMET OFFERS PREMIER RODEO

HEMET, Nov. 9.—With the signing of Bonnie Gray, widely known fancy rider, and her talented horse, King Tut, the program for the Hemet American Armistice Day rodeo is complete, according to J. W. Russell, general chairman. More than 100 riders will compete for prizes in the big show.

Arrangements have been made to accommodate 4000 spectators around the big arena that has been constructed for the rodeo.

The feature of the show is expected to be the attempts of veteran California and Arizona cowboys to ride five wild Brahma bulls. It is stated here that the Brahma bulls have never before been ridden.

The entire memberships of the Hemet American Legion post and auxiliary will constitute a welcoming committee and will endeavor to see that the thousands of visitors thoroughly enjoy themselves. Band music will be provided during the afternoon.

A public address system will carry the voices of the announcers to all parts of the rodeo grounds.

Almost fifty entrees have been received in the bronco-bucking event and an equal number of contestants will participate in the steer-riding and roping features.

Several fancy riding and roping features are on the program and there will also be a number of novelty races.

VENICE BELLES PLAY PROMINENT PART

VENICE, Nov. 9.—Armistice Day will be celebrated with the most elaborate program in the history of Venice, according to plans being formulated today by the Venice Legion post and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce branch at the beach. The U.S.S. Mississippi will anchor off the Venice pier, and plans for entertainment of the officers and men include an automobile tour of the bay district's scenic points, starting at 10:30 a.m., and taking in Hollywood and Culver City studios. At noon the officers will be guests at a luncheon.

Free dancing at the Venice ballroom, free admission to some of the concessions and sports in the surf and ashore will feature the entertainment for the bluejackets. In the afternoon Venice girls will be hostesses at a tea for the officers, and from 4:30 until 7 rest and recreation will be provided at the Valdorf Hotel.

A dinner at the Crystal Cafe will wind up with a patriotic ball at the Venice Ballroom for the officers and their fair hostesses. The Legion auxiliary is active in the arrangements for the day and night. The committee which will board the big battleship an hour after it comes to anchor includes Will Rattray, G. Hamilton Fay, Dr. Joseph Saylin, Fred Walburn, Henry Kline, J. R. Hunt, Jack Gerety, James Smith, Henry Wooding and Capt. W. H. Behrendt.

FIVE BANDS TO APPEAR IN VISALIA PARADE

VISALIA, Nov. 9.—H. T. Lewis, chairman of the Armistice Day parade committee, reports everything in readiness for that important event of the local celebration. The parade will form at 9:30 around the Visalia Municipal Auditorium.

Five bands will participate. These are the Visalia city band, Visalia High School band, Tulare High School and Tulare Portuguese bands and the American Legion Oriental band of Tulare.

Capt. W. E. Riley and two aides of the State Highway Patrol will lead the line of march. They will be immediately followed by the Gold Star Mothers, G.A.R., W.R.C., Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish-American War veterans and other units, including two Portuguese marching units, decorated automobiles and floats, National Guard, costumed children. Colors and units of the American Legion and their auxiliaries of Visalia, Tulare, Exeter and Big-Tree posts will close the line.

Following the parade, the American Legion Oriental Band of Tulare will give a concert at the high school, with an oriental dancing exhibition by the baby mascot of the Tulare band. Public patriotic exercises will follow, and the Pageant of Peace thereafter.

Other features of the day include a football game between Visalia and Tulare high schools, special Fox Visalia Theater program at 3 o'clock, carnival and dancing at night.

All of the kiddies—3000 of them—who participated in the Kiwanis Halloween parade in costume, have been invited to appear again in the Armistice Day parade.

NOVEL PROGRAM MARKS CELEBRATION

BURBANK, Nov. 9. — Armistice Day ceremonies will take place here at the intersection of San Fernando Boulevard and Olive avenue at 11 a.m. A grave similar to the grave of the Unknown Soldier, will be placed at the center of the intersection and four groups, representing different departments in the Legion activities, each marching from different directions, will meet at the tomb where the formal celebration will be conducted.

These ceremonies, it is stated, will take the place of the usual Armistice Day parade, with the belief that it will be more impressive. Thousands are expected to be present when the ceremonies begin, and local police already have indicated their completion of a plan to handle the crowds and traffic.

Legion men from all over San Fernando Valley will co-operate with the local Legion men while the memorial program is on.

AIRPLANES FEATURED AT LENOX OBSERVANCE

LENOX, Nov. 9.—Armistice Day will be celebrated here for the first time in the history of the community with a parade almost two miles long. Three squadrons of airplanes from the Municipal Airport are to participate, and Judge Warren Atherton of Fresno, prominent in State Legion activities, is to be the speaker.

There is also a Civil War veteran who will be 90 years of age on Armistice Day and a special honor is to be conferred upon him.

The Armistice celebration is being worked out by a general committee of delegates from fifteen organizations in the community under the leadership of the Legion, so it really is a community event.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS TO BE HONORED GUESTS

TORRANCE, Nov. 9. — Bert S. Crossland Post, American Legion, will have charges of the Armistice celebration here and have planned an elaborate observance. Members of the Gardena post of the Legion will take part in the parade and program with the local— post and Gold Star Mothers of both communities as well as Civil War veterans and city officials will be honored guests. The parade, which will form at 9:30 a.m., will be followed by a patriotic program at the American Legion clubhouse, in which the Torrance band, formerly the Pacific Electric Band and the Boys' Glee Club of the high school will take part.

R. M. Bailey, Earl Conner, N. F. Jamieson, William Sager and L. G. Barkdul are in charge of arrangements.

BATTLESHIP TO BE AT MANHATTAN BEACH

MANHATTAN BEACH, Nov. 9.—Armistice Day will be celebrated here under the auspices of American Legion Post, No. 184, and plans are being made for the entertainment of one of the largest crowds of the year.

The Legion has secured the U.S.S. Idaho for this bay over the holidays and a parade in which the ship's band and the officers and sailors will take part has been arranged. There will be a patriotic program, with Mayor George E. Delavan extending the official welcome and a luncheon for the officers of the U.S.S. Idaho at the Neptunian Club at noon. Inspection of the ship and a band concert form the entertainment planned for the afternoon and at night a free dance will be given in the marine pavilion.

JAPANESE CONSUL WILL SPEAK AT WHITTIER EVENT

WHITTIER, Nov. 9. — With a parade in the morning by the patriotic organizations of Whittier, sponsored by the Whittier Post, No. 51, of the American Legion, and field and track events at the high school, and an address on "America," by James Foley, nationally known writer and speaker, the forenoon of Armistice Day will be ushered in.

The homecoming day for the alumni of Whittier College will be observed, and the big event of the afternoon will be the annual football game at Whittier College; this year the opponents are to be the members of the football team of Pomona College.

Before the football game, a Japenese stone lantern, six feet two inches tall, and weighing 1300 pounds, is to be unveiled on Whittier College campus, as a gesture of friendship and good will between the two nations. The lantern is the gift of Mrs. Lydia M. Cammack, to whom it was given by a Japanese friend.

Hon. Toshito Satow, Japanese Consul at Los Angeles, will make the dedicatory address and Dr. Walter F. Dexter, president of Whittier College, will accept the gift for the college.

In the evening there will be a dance sponsored by the American Legion and a banquet at the William Penn Hotel for the alumni of Whittier College and their friends.

ALL ORANGE COUNTY PARADES AT ANAHEIM

ANAHEIM, Nov. 9.—Throughout Orange county today forty-two cities and organizations are bespangling ornate floats with flowers, military and veterans' organizations are "policing" up martial equipment, and more than 75,000 people are believed to be prepared to attend the celebration of the twelfth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice ending the World War, to be marked here Tuesday.

Committees in charge announce that the most elaborate Armistice Day observance ever undertaken in the county has been prepared.

Floats have been decorated to carry out a theme of a "Pageant of States," each float entered being designed to depict a State or some outstanding characteristic of a State.

Starting at 11 o'clock in the morning, the parade will traverse a line of march nearly four miles long. The parade itself is to be a full mile and one-half long.

The line of march has been divided into eighteen divisions and sections with a band or other musical organization assigned to lead each. All bands, fife and drum and bugle corps will play in a synchronization so planned that no two will be playing at the same time, and yet so that there will be continuous music during the marching.

Following the parade, expected to be over at 12:30, a tennis meet will be conducted at the city park courts. A free vaudeville program provided by the merchants of the city will follow the tennis, and that will be followed by a football game between the Anaheim and the Brea-Olinda Union High schools to be held at the Anaheim athletic field.

The evening will bring a demonstration on the city park athletic field by the Maywood and the Alhambra auxiliary drill teams, a drum and bugle corps exhibition by Maywood, Whittier, Redlands, Long Beach and Santa Ana Legion corps.

Later in the evening the Anaheim post of the American Legion will sponsor a dance, and will close the day with a midnight matinee which it is sponsoring at a local theater.

The Anaheim Legionnaires have advertised that they have "taken the dollar mark" from the celebration. A charge is to be made for the football game, for the dance and for the midnight matinee. Otherwise the program and all its features will be free.

The custom of observing Armistice Day with a parade in Orange county originated in Anaheim in 1920, being planned that year as a part of a program to raise money for a Legion clubhouse. The event was repeated here in 1925, the coming celebration being the third held in Anaheim and the eleventh in Orange county.

OLD BIKE RIDER GOING STRONG

"Long Bill" Furman of Ocean Park, 51 years of age, has applied for reinstatement as an amateur in order to compete in short-distance cycling events at the forthcoming Olympic Games in Los Angeles. For thirty-eight years he has gone back and forth between his home and his office on his bicycle.

SANTA MONICA, Nov. 9.—A track and road bicycle champion of the "Pedaling Nineties" has applied for reinstament as an amateur in order to compete in short-distance cycling events at the coming Olympic Games in Los Angeles. "Long Bill" Furman, 51 years of age, Ocean Parker whose giant build and splendid condition won him a silver cup last year in a Venice contest for physical perfection, will be remembered by all the old-timers—some of them not so old at that—who saw him win the La Fiesta western bicycling championship at old Athletic Park on April 22, 1897, defeating Dean Cromwell, now a prominent athletic coach at U.S.C. Ralph Hamlin, Fritz Lacy and other noted pedalists of that day were in the race. Furman has ridden his bike five miles or more daily ever since. For thirty-eight years he has gone back and forth from his office on a bike.

He is a newspaper feature writer and telegrapher, and recently he founded the "Fit-at-Fifty" Club of America, a nonprofit organization to create nation - wide sentiment against the age deadline in industry where it affects physically and mentally fit men and women of middle life and older.

"Bill" stands 6 feet 4, weighs 235 pounds and rides a twenty-pound bike. He will be among the prominent Los Angeles and Southern California bicyclists of the past, who will hold a reunion of wheelmen at the Ambassador Hotel on the 15th inst.

FOREMAN WILL FACE POSSESSION CHARGE

MENTONE, Nov. 9.—The case of H. F. Hoppe of Greensport charged with possession of 875 gallons of port wine found in a cellar on the Redlands Heights ranch by dry officers, has been postponed until Wednesday. Hoppe is foreman of the ranch and says that he made the wine under orders. It was loaded in trucks and taken to the Courthouse in San Bernardino.

NORTH OUTLET TO CITY LOOMS

New Gateway to San Diego in Rapid Development

Rose Canyon Road Paving to Be Completed This Week

Dirt to Fly Today on Grade Over Torrey Pines Cliffs

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 9.—San Diego's new gateway to the north, dream of road boosters for years, is rapidly taking form and this week will see two important steps taken.

First will be the completion of the paving of Rose Canyon Road, which runs for a distance of six miles from Balboa avenue in Pacific Beach to the Torrey Pines mesa.

Second will be the start of actual dirt-throwing operations on the new grade over the Torrey Pines cliffs. Four steam shovels are expected to go on the job of removing the dirt for the new gradient that will replace the present tortuous Torrey Pines grade.

The Rose Canyon work is being done by the State. The city is financing the Torrey Pines job. The Rose Canyon paving, while it is to be completed late this week, will not be opened probably much before the end of the month, because of necessity of "curing" the concrete. The Torrey Pines grading is a job estimated to require from six to eight months.

The city administration, while pleased with the progress toward the Rose Canyon and Torrey Pines links, is pressing forward to improve the road from the city limits on the north into the built-up portion of the municipality. Included in this plan is a widening of the causeway across the flats near the northern limits, widening of the Torrey Pines mesa road, and improvement of the road from the mouth of Rose Canyon into the city.

Street Superintendent Gregory has reported that paving at the junction of the Rose Canyon and Torrey Pines roads would be completed tomorrow. This work was asked by La Jollans in order that southbound travel to La Jolla would not have to make a sharp turn to take the La Jolla road.

RETURN ON CITRUS AT NEW MARK

Orange County Fruit Exchange Receipts Total $15,000,000 for Year

ORANGE, Nov. 9.—Leaving in its wake a golden trail of citrus wealth that will total upward of $15,000,000, the 1930 citrus season has been brought to an official close by the Orange County Fruit Exchange, following close of the fiscal year on the 1st inst.

All records for citrus returns in the history of the local exchange were smashed by this year's crops, despite the fact that it was known as a short crop that totaled less than 70 per cent of last year's bumper yield.

Pointing out that the fiscal exchange year runs from November to November, Hillis said that 1930 receipts include $850,000 received for fruit shipped after November 1, 1929.

This will be offset, however, by fruit remaining to be sold during this month, which, it is estimated, will bring receipts amounting to at least $500,000.

"By this it can be seen that the 1930 yield will easily reach $15,000,000, a new all-time record for Orange County Fruit Exchange sales," commented Hillis.

The month of July, which marked the peak of the hot weather in the East, was the largest single month for sales during the past season.

The midsummer month also established a new all-time exchange record with sales amounting to $2,471,196.74.

August was next in point of monthly sales, with a total of $2,471,196.74.

Shipments for the season totaled 5520 cars, of which 4170 contained Valencias and 1350 represented lemons and miscellaneous varieties.

The 1929 crop, which brought total returns amounting to nearly $12,000,000, yielded a total of 7684 cars, the highest production in the exchange's history. The shipment included 6698 carloads of Valencias and 986 carloads of lemons and miscellaneous varieties.

The fact that a new record for returns was established this season, despite the much shorter crop, was attributed to a highly receptive market for the short crop, which at times resulted in extremely high auction prices.

GOOD RETURN IN SMALL LEMON CROP REALIZED

UPLAND, Nov. 9.—For 638,637 boxes of lemons received during the fruit season just closed, grower members of Upland Lemon Growers' Association will receive a total of $1,619,207.95, and an additional sum of $60,000 for cull fruit of 1928 and 1929, L. R. Bradley, secretary-manager of the association, reported at the annual meeting of the members at the packing-house.

The association shipped 62 per cent as much fruit this year as last year and received 77 per cent as much money this year as last year, Bradley said.

Among the speakers at the annual meeting were Floyd D. Young, government meteorologist; J. W. Hall, manager of the Exchange Lemon Products plant of Corona; Harry B. Harlow, manager of the Ontario - Cucamonga Fruit Exchange, and B. B. Gregory, assistant secretary of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

E. C. Harwood, "grand old man of Upland," and father of the lemon industry in Upland, was called upon for a short address. He has been president of the association since its founding. Harwood is 100 years of age.

TROUT OFFERED TO HOOVER

Woman Angles for President's Table

Doris Manley, Azusa Champion Fly Caster

AZUSA, Nov. 9.—Winter's icy grip on the Rapidan River fishing camp of President Hoover is not going to deprive the great Californian of his weekly mess of trout, if Doris Manley, Azusa's champion woman fly caster, has anything to say about it.

Miss Manley's first shipment of trout caught by her own rod at the Rainbow Angling Club here left Azusa today addressed to the White House. In a letter accompany the shipment, Miss Manley offers to keep the President's household supplied with trout during the winter season.

To assure safe arrival in the President's hands, the shipment of a dozen Rainbow trout, all over eleven inches, have been specially packed under a method devised by Leigh O. Garnsey, manager of the Rainbow Angling Club, which he says has proven successful in delivering fresh trout as far away as New Hampshire and Honolulu.

The further precaution of having Congressman Swing deliver the trout in person to the President was undertaken by Miss Manley, who is anxiously awaiting the Presidential order to supply weekly trout shipments.

Lewis Elected Moderator of Baptist Group

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 9.—Alfred M. Lewis, widely known Riverside business man, was elected moderator of the University Baptist Association, comprised of fourteen churches in San Bernardino, Riverside and Los Angeles counties, at the concluding session of a two-day conference, attended by 300 Baptists of the district.

Mrs. Anna Hill of Hemet was elected vice-moderator, and J. B. Williams of San Bernardino, clerk of the association for the year. Next year's conference will be held at the Colton Baptist Church, it was voted.

The retiring officers are Rev. Horace M. Blood of Colton, moderator; J. M. Davison of Riverside, vice-moderator, and Rev. Fred M. Wight of Banning, clerk.

A number of outstanding Baptist ministers, including Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, Jr., of Los Angeles, participated in the convention's program.

Four Robbery Suspects Taken on Desert Road

CADIZ, Nov. 9. (AP)—Four men, accused of holding up a deputy Sheriff near Amboy Friday night, were captured near here today by a posse led by Deputy Sheriff J. Everett of Ludlow.

The suspects identified themselves as John Claude Lewis, Tulsa, Okla.; Jack King, Tulsa, Okla.; Bill Long, Vancouver, Wash., and Fred Porter, Greenfield, O.

V. A. Scott, railroad agent here, called the officers after one of the men came to the station for food. The men are asserted to have robbed Deputy Sheriff Charles Eddy, who transports the pay roll for the New Mexico Construction Company. They obtained only $2 and Eddy's personal effects, all of which were recovered, possemen said.

Everett said the men were armed with three pistols and a rifle, but offered no resistance when accosted in the Mojave desert a mile from here.

LARGE AREA MAY JOIN SAN DIEGO

La Mesa, Lemon Cove, Spring Valley Irrigation District in Merger Move

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 9. — A territory larger than the cities of Long Beach or Akron soon may be knocking at San Diego's door for admittance to the city, according to well-informed persons in the territory and in the municipality. This territory, comprising two incorporated cities and enough unincorporated area to make a total of approximately 19,000 acres, is known as the Le Mesa, Lemon Cove and Spring Valley irrigation district. It adjoins the city to the east and stretches along the southern banks of the San Diego River.

Conversations have been started with city officials by proannexation advocates in the district, with a view to ascertaining the possibility of being annexed. Most of the San Diego officials consulted have declined to encourage the annexation advocates, contending it is a point for the district itself to decide, without interference from an outside corporate body. Within the district pressure for annexation, always present, has been growing until it is reported that few if any of the community leaders oppose it. Some of them openly are in favor of the plan while others, while expressing satisfaction with the idea, have declined to make public announcement of their views.

FLAGS AT HALF-MAST FOR TEACHER'S DEATH

BURBANK, Nov. 9.—Funeral services were conducted yesterday, with cremation in Forest Lawn Cemetery, for Miss Orell Freeman, assistant principal and dean of girls of the John Muir Junior High School here. Burbank schools were closed for half a day when the death was announced. Until Monday, flags at all schools will stand at half-mast in honor of her memory. Miss Freeman was a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

ALTADENA IN MERGER MOVE

Secretary Green of Chamber of Commerce Inquires

Shoestring Link Suggested Through Other Sections

ALTADENA, Nov. 9.—Annexation of Altadena to the city of Los Angeles by means of a "shoestring" link through the La Canada-La Crescenta section, is being considered by leading real estate dealers and business men of this community, it was learned today from R. Jay V. V. Green, secretary of the Altadena Chamber of Commerce.

First intimation of the impending campaign was revealed in a letter written by Green to the Los Angeles City Council. Green's letter, which, it was learned, has been referred to the Los Angeles Board of Water and Power Commissioners, follows:

"There seems to be considerable sentiment developing here in Altadena in favor of annexation to Los Angeles, and I would appreciate it very much if you will kindly advise us how to proceed to consummate such a union.

"It will be necessary to join by way of your city limits east of Tujunga, and I believe there is enough sentiment in La Canada and La Crescenta to provide a connection between our community and your city limits."

Green explained that he had written the letter as a private citizen, but did not explain the reference to "us."

Altadena, with its high assessed valuation and population of [illegible] persons, at present is an unincorporated community. Many times agitation has been started for annexation to the city of Pasadena on the south, but such proposals always have met defeat.

Appointment of a committee to sound out the sentiment of the district toward annexation to Los Angeles is expected soon. Among the men who probably will be included on this body are Joseph I. Tumbach, former president of the West Altadena Improvement Association; Cecil E. Bryan, president of the Altadena Chamber of Commerce; E. Roy Mosher, president of the West Altadena Improvement Association; Walter I. Allen, president of the Citizens' Association; [illegible] O. Hatch, former president of the Altadena Kiwanis Club, and F. [illegible] Martin, prominent real estate broker.

Admiral Tells Three Primary Uses for Navy

REDLANDS, Nov. 9.—There are three primary reason for the United States maintaining an adequate Navy, Rear-Admiral J. R. P. Pringle of Battleship Division Three told Redlands men in a meeting at the American Legion clubhouse. One of these is to control sea communication, the other is to protect commerce and our insular possessions, and the third is to protect the Panama Canal.

Admiral Pringle was given a hearty welcome by the local men. His present flagship is the New York. Commander Leslie [illegible] was his host while he was in the city. Admiral Pringle has the distinction of having served as technical adviser at the London disarmament conference, and during the war he was chief-of-staff to Admiral Simms.

The admiral declared that ships of the Navy are not primarily constructed with the idea of aggressive fighting. They are a means to an end. The war cannot be won by the Navy alone, although it is most important in winning any war, he declared, adding that, of course, what happens on land is usually the deciding factor.

Admiral Pringle says that it was sea power that helped so much to win the World War, for it would have been lost had Germany been successful in wiping out the Allied fleet in the battle of Jutland.

KIWANIS MEMBERS ELECT W. W. SPEER

OWENSMOUTH, Nov. 9.—W. W. Speer was elected president of the local Kiwanis Club at the annual election conducted here. Other new officers are Clyde W. [illegible], vice-president; G. Walter [illegible], district trustee, and Walter C. [illegible]son, treasurer. Directors are [illegible] E. Heacock, Fred Eichbauer, [illegible] Hoefer, Otto Gschwind, Harold G. Hunt, David Carlson and Jerry Benjamin. Wayne E. Bechtelheimer is the retiring president.

PEACE TALKS AT RIVERSIDE

Great Britain and Japan Honored at Annual Armistice Sunday Service on Mt. Rubidoux

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 9.—While flags of the World War Allies waved peacefully in the afternoon breeze on a half dozen rocky pinnacles of Rubidoux Mountain, several thousand persons gathered on the summit of the historic hill at sunset today for the annual Armistice peace service.

Each year one or more of the allies is selected for special honor at the service, which is conducted on the Sunday preceding Armistice Day. Today the nations so distinguished were Great Britain and Japan. The Consuls of these powers were especial guests of honor and each gave a brief address on the theme of peace.

The chief speaker of the afternoon was Dr. Walter F. Dexter of Whittier College, who dealt principally with the recent naval limitation conference in London. He lauded the accomplishments of the conference and predicted that even more drastic steps toward the abolition of war will be taken in the near future.

President Hoover's Armistice Day proclamation was read by Commander Richard Welch, Jr., of Riverside Post, American Legion.

Several hundred Boy Scouts acted as guides and assisted in various ways in making the colorful and impressive service a success.

GERMAN FINANCIER COMING

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Former Reichsbank President, to Arrive in Pasadena Today for Address

PASADENA, Nov. 9.—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, outstanding German financial authority and former president of the Reichsbank, will arrive here tomorrow to give an address at the Pasadena Community Playhouse tomorrow afternoon.

The German banker was to have been one of the first illustrious guests at the Athenaeum, California Institute of Technology's newly opened $500,000 retreat for local scientists and scholars, but it was learned today that his reservation at the Athenaeum has been canceled and that he will be the guest here at a private home.

The subject of his address will be "The Pan-European Idea." The talk is one of a series given by authorities in many fields that is being sponsored by the Pasadena Lecture Course organization.

Prior to the World War, Dr. Schacht was almost unknown as president of the Dresden Bank, but when he became president of the Reichsbank in 1923, he became famous when he accepted the Dawes Reparations Plan. During the war he became a partner in the Darmstadt National Bank of Germany. H. has been a student of political economy all his life.

The lecture, which Dr. Schacht will give here tomorrow probably will conclude his formal speaking tour of the United States, although he is expected to be the guest at a banquet, which is being arranged by Germans residing in Los Angeles.

Walker in Challenge to Heavies

CHICAGO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Mickey Walker, fresh from his successful invasion of the heavyweight ranks by his decisive victory over Johnny Risko, tossed defies at Jack Sharkey and W. L. (Young) Stribling tonight. The world middleweight champion, through his manager, Jack Kearns, offered to fight Sharkey for the Milk Fund in New York next month.

"Mickey will box the Boston gob and will not take a cent more than Sharkey does for training expenses," Kearns said. "Stribling has been signed by the Chicago Stadium for a fight December 12, next, and Mickey is ready to step into that match, too, if Stribling wants to meet him."

BRUNMIER COPS RACE AT ASCOT

SHORTY CANTLON

In a wild finish that had the capacity grand stand on its feet shrieking like mad, Arvol Brunmier brought his crippled car No. 48 home a winner in the 100-lap feature race at the Legion Ascot Speedway yesterday. Brunmier finished about a quarter of a lap ahead of second-place winner, Shorty Cantlon, who was driving like a wild man in an effort to overtake him. Had the race lasted another lap it is almost certain that Cantlon would have won because Brunmier's car was missing badly and probably would not have been able to make another round of the track.

WHITE KNIGHT IN STAR ROLE

International Player Cops Mallet Spotlight

Hal Roach Takes Fall; Blue Team Loses, 14-6

BY FRANK ROCHE

Local polo customers were given a slight inside yesterday afternoon at the Uplifters' Field on just how Eric Pedley, California's most famous horsemen, conducted himself in the recent international matches at Meadowbrook, L. I.

ERIC PEDLEY

Eric, making his first appearance here since taking the nation by storm in the big series between Great Britain and the United States, led a Red four to an easy victory over the Blues with a dazzling exhibition of mallet play yesterday at the Rustic Canyon Field. The score was 14 to 6, in favor of Eric's team.

When we say Eric's team, we mean just that. Eric was about the whole show. He made shots from all angles, giving the fans any number of thrills with his deadly goal shooting. The White Knight, as Pedley is called in polo, because he was the first western man ever to ride into the international circle in the East, registered seven goals in the game yesterday. That was just half the total scored by his team. And it might be stated right here, that he was responsible for the other half, too.

Eric, when he agreed to play at the Uplifters', told club members that he might not be in good form as he was in sad need of practice. Judging from his performance it was lucky for the opposition that such was the case or else the score would have resembled that affair at the Coliseum last Saturday.

Snowy Baker, gallant Australian athlete, who rode No. 2 on Eric's team, scored six goals and Carl Beal one to make up the total of 14 for the afternoon. T. Lyell Puckett, pride of Alhambra, riding at No. 1, went scoreless. Lyell averred there was no reason for him to bother about anything like that when he had Eric as a team-mate.

The game almost proved a very serious affair for Hal Roach, hard-hitting left-handed star. Roach took a tumble from his pony in the first chukker that all but knocked him goofy for a few minutes. The mount stubbed his toe or something like that and the polo-minded motion-picture magnate went to the turf with a dull and sickening thud. It was several minutes before he was able to pull himself together and remount. The crowd gave him a fine hand when he got back into action. Incidentally Roach played a nice game for the Blues. He led the fight against the assault of Eric's team but he found it about as easy to get results as

TIGER MENTOR PRAISES IRISH

Notre Dame is Lauded for Lop-sided Triumph

Illinois Put Up Hard Game Against Army Team

One Point Decided Trio of Struggles in East

BY W. W. (BILL) ROPER
Football Coach, Princeton University

PRINCETON (N. J.) Nov. 9. (NANA)—Notre Dame played about the most brilliant football that amazing team has ever played, or for that matter ever will play, against Pennsylvania. The Quakers have a first-class team, but I doubt if any team in the country would have stopped the Notre Dame backfield. Brill, Savoldi and Carideo played as if they had an electric dynamo somewhere concealed in their football uniforms, while the entire team supported the backfield in great style. The Penn players put up a hard battle, but they were outclassed by the brilliant brand of football played by Notre Dame.

BILL ROPER

Illinois put up a great exhibition of defensive football against the powerful Army team. The fine punting of Bodman, the big Illinois tackle, was the biggest factor in staving off the Army attack. His long, high punts again and again pulled his team out of tight holes. Most of the time the Illinois forwards covered Bodman's kicks in fine style. Only once did any Army back get away for a long run after catching a kick. Army had the most versatile team, but the green Illinois players deserve lots of credit for their fine defensive play.

COLGATE TOO STRONG

Colgate was too strong for Columbia. The Colgate team is one of the best in the East. While Columbia played a surprisingly strong game against Cornell, the Columbia players played themselves off their feet in the Cornell game. Only four first-string Columbia players started the game. Columbia's line played a good game. But the Colgate open attack was too much for the Lions.

The Georgetown-Boston College game was one of the most exciting in the East, ending in a 20-19 victory for Georgetown. The result was in doubt up to the closing play. The same thing was true of the Georgia-New York University and Pitt-Carnegie Tech games, both being won by a single point. The failure of the losers to convert goals after touch-

Hail S.C. and Irish as Great Scoring Pair

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—Notre Dame and Southern California were hailed today as two of the greatest scoring machines in the history of football as a result of a pair of remarkable touchdown explosions Saturday at Philadelphia and Los Angeles. Pennsylvania and California, both rated among the strong teams of the country, were all but blown out of the park by this mighty pair. Notre Dame used its regulars less than half of the game and yet dynamited the Quakers by a score of 60 to 20, and Southern California obliterated its northern rival, 74 to 0.

GAELS TRIM CLUBMEN IN 15-0 MATCH

St. Mary's Beats Olympics on Eve of Departure for Fordham Contest

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Celebrating their last appearance on their home grounds before leaving to play Fordham University in New York next Saturday, St Mary's Gaels defeated the San Francisco Olympic Club, 15 to 0, today, at Kezar Stadium.

EDWARD "SLIP" MADIGAN

The Gaels were held scoreless in the first half, Coach Slip Madigan electing to give his reserves a workout. With some of the regulars in the line-up in the third period, St. Mary's pushed over a touchdown after a drive down the field with passes and ground plays. Stennett, left halfback, went over.

In the fourth quarter the Gaels scored another touchdown on a pass from Boyle to Beasley, the latter catching the ball behind the goal line. Ebding, end, made the extra try for point with a place kick.

Shortly before the game ended the Gaels scored an automatic safety, when Carpenter blocked a kick and the ball rolled back out of the end zone.

GIRARD GOLFER SCORES UPSET

Retains Edge Throughout to Defeat Favorite

Gilland Takes Consolation Prize With 78

Mrs. Riley, Mitchell Win Mixed Foursomes

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

Upsets, apparently, are not restricted to the gridiron, for scarcely less astonishing than that 74-to-0 score rolled up by the Trojans against the Bears Saturday was the decisive 4-and-3 victory scored yesterday by Billy Jack of Girard over Bill Jelliffe of Fox Hills in the thirty-six-hole finals of the Fox Hills Country Club invitation tournament.

W. L. JELLIFFE

Jack, although a fine golfer with an excellent tournament record, was supposed to be just a "breather" for Jelliffe, who has been wiping up local courses with the opposition all year.

The young sorrel-topped Girard golfer got the jump on Jelliffe by winning the first two holes and never once relinquished his advantage. He was 2 up after the morning round and increased his lead in the afternoon to end the match on the thirty-third hole.

Jelliffe, once down, could never get going.

Jack did not figure to do well in this tournament as he has been revamping his game. Billy displayed rare judgment in going to Lou Berrien of Santa Monica for the revamping, however, as Lou is one of the best in the business and has apparently justified Jack's faith.

STEADY GOLF

The victor played a steady, if not brilliant, brand of golf. He was around in 75, three over par, in the morning, and out in 37, 1 over perfect figures in the afternoon.

The cards:

Morning round:

Par (out)	435	443	445—36
Jack	435	542	555—38
Jelliffe	545	453	445—39
Par (in)	534	443	445—36—72
Jack	524	443	546—37—75
Jelliffe	634	443	545—38—77

Afternoon round:

Jack (out)	425	453	365—37
Jelliffe	445	443	464—38
Jack (in)	434	453
Jelliffe	536	544

This is a step upward for Jack, as Jelliffe is rated as one of the strongest match players in the Southland. "Wild Bill" has won the Los Angeles city championship, Santa Monica Bay district title and

TROJANS MEET HAWAII ELEVEN NEXT SATURDAY

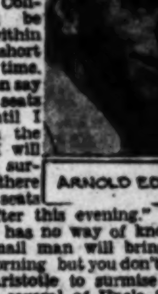
BY BRAVEN DYER

At the rate applications for tickets have been descending on Arnold Eddy at the University of Southern California the Notre Dame game billed for December 6 will be a complete sell-out within the next two days. Such was the belief of the Trojan graduate manager last night.

"There's a stack of mail higher than the City Hall at my office," declared Eddy last night, "and I won't know until Monday evening just what the situation is, but my guess is that the Coliseum will be sold out within a very short space of time. I can't even say how many seats are left until I go through the mail, but I will be greatly surprised if there are 20,000 seats available after this evening."



ARNOLD EDDY

Mr. Eddy has no way of knowing what the mail man will bring to him this morning but you don't have to be an Aristotle to surmise that it will take several of Uncle Sam's letter carriers to tote the load of requests for tickets which will automatically follow as the result of the sensational showing of Southern California and Notre Dame in Saturday's games. So if you haven't applied for a ticket you'd better get busy and even then you may be too late.

TROJANS OUT TODAY

Other reports to the contrary notwithstanding, the Trojans will resume practice this afternoon at Bovard Field. Howard Jones gave his boys permission to break training after the game Saturday night, but will have the varsity and all others out for a brief practice this evening. Tomorrow's workout will be held in the morning because it's Armistice Day. Otto Klum's Hawaiians play the Trojans Saturday.

"Did you ever give one of your major opponents a defeat like that?" the writer asked Jones yesterday, speaking of course of the 74-to-0 debacle.

"No, that's the worst I can recall," said Jones. "I beat Purdue about 50 to 0 one year while at Iowa but that season Purdue was not considered one of the strong teams of the Western Conference. The Pittsburgh game of last January was the high spot until the Bears came along."

"Why did you give Garrett

NATIONAL GRID RACE UNCHANGED

Two Minor Teams Lose, But Major Elevens Remain in Running

BY RALPH HUSTON

The list of contenders for the national football championship remained almost unchanged over the week-end. Two minor hopefuls were eliminated, and one other small team suffered its first tie of the season.

Fourteen teams are still unbeaten and untied, and ten more are undefeated, but have been tied once. Of the teams with clear records, only six are of major importance—Washington State, Alabama, Fordham, Notre Dame, Northwestern and Oregon. In the tied class are Texas Christian, Dartmouth, Army, Georgia and Michigan.

Oklahoma City tops the country with eight consecutive victories, running up 212 points to 28 for the position. In the entire list of twenty-four, Dartmouth leads in scoring with 275, followed by Texas Christian with 271. The latter team has maintained an unsullied goal line in its nine games, and is the only team not scored on.

Most of the big teams will hook up with strong opposition this coming Saturday, and it is entirely possible that some of the leaders will be eliminated. Utah plays Colorado, Akron faces Heidelberg, and Ohio U. encounters Muskingum in three games in which both opponents [illegible] FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (AP) [illegible] records of a football sea[illegible] bulging with big scores and unexpected endings, has been written the worst defeat ever inflicted by one major team upon another in the history of the Pacific Coast Conference.

When Southern California's Trojans rolled up the overwhelming total of 74 points to 0 against California's Bears, [illegible] Los Angeles Saturday, the [illegible] assembled in the [illegible] witnessed a turn of [illegible] only thumbing back [illegible] into Coast gridiron [illegible] can even come close to [illegible]

Old-time observers never expected that score to be equaled in games involving the Coast's "Big Four," California, Southern California, Washington and Stanford. And yet the Trojan victory yesterday was over a team whose predecessors have enjoyed national ranking for nearly a decade.

Howard Jones came to coach Southern California in 1925 and the triumph climaxed what he and loyal Trojan rooters had hoped for since that time—victories over both California and Stanford in the same season. Two weeks ago, the Trojans took the measure of Stanford's Cardinals in a 41-12 rout that then stunned Coast circles.

Southern California's superiority was reflected in the statistics. The Trojans gained 892 yards, 600 from scrimmage. California had a total of 154 yards, 121 from scrimmage. Southern California chalked up twenty-eight first downs to six for California.

It made four conference wins for Southern California and the last impressive victory stamps it as one of the leading teams in the country. However, the one fly in the ointment is that a few weeks ago, Washington State's conference-leading Cougars turned back the Trojans, 7-6.

Johnny Moore also hit for the circuit in the nightcap, his homer coming in the fourth with two on to put the Commercials out in front. The nightcap was called at the end of the fifth because of darkness.

An Armistice Day double-header is programmed for Wrigley Field tomorrow with the Kelley Kars and Commercial Clubmen providing the excitement. Both have formidable outfits and should draw a good

HOLLYWOOD SOCCERITES DOWN MERCURY ELEVEN

Practically clinching the honors in the first round of play in the City Soccer League, the Hollywood soccer eleven, champions last year and runners-up in the State play-offs, defeated the L.A.A.C. boys rather handily by 3 goals to 1 in the feature event out at Loyola Field yesterday afternoon. In the preliminary game, the ever-improving Richfield Oilers pulled a surprise victory over the Victorias by a 2-to-1 score.

Over at Tournament Park, Pasadena, the strong Magyars nosed out the Vikings, 2 to 1, in the feature battle on the program; while the Pasadena Country Club eleven shut out the Sons of St. George, 4 to 0, in the first game of the afternoon.

Hollywood's victory over the Club at Loyola Field leaves the Sheiks the only undefeated eleven in the league to date. The Hollywood boys had it all over the Mercuries, as they followed the ball very closely and played a man-for-man defense, which proved very effective. The Sheiks scored twice in the first half, and once in the second period, while the L.A.A.C. squad tallied only once and that came toward the end of the game. Charlie Cowie, center forward, put the ball in the net twice, while Downie was responsible for the other Hollywood score. Pearson, outside left, passed to Owens, inside left, for the only Club score. The defense of the Mercury eleven was particularly

HAWAIIAN GRID COACH ON AIR THURSDAY NIGHT

OTTO KLUM

Otto Klum, coach of the University of Hawaii football team which plays the Trojans at the Coliseum Saturday, will be interviewed over KHJ Thursday night by Braven Dyer of The Times sports staff. Coach Klum is one of the best known athletic figures of the islands and will tell radio fans something about his own football team and sports events in and around Honolulu, a territory which has developed and produced many great athletes. There are many nationalities playing on the present Hawaiian eleven and many of the boys are excellent entertainers in addition to being football players of ability. Klum attended Oregon State College many years ago and employs the Notre Dame system. He has coached at Hawaii about ten years. Listen for him Thursday night at 9:30 o'clock over KHJ.

WEST SURPASSES EAST

BY BOB ZUPPKE
Football Coach, University of Illinois

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (NANA)—I do not believe that one region is necessarily stronger in football than another, but the Illinois-Army game convinced me that this year the leading big ten teams in the West are much stronger than the best in the East.

Comparative scores are often fallacious, of course, but I believe the foregoing statement is just, since the Army is certainly one of the best teams in the East, while Illinois this year is one of the weakest of the Big Ten elevens and has been defeated by Northwestern and Purdue by big scores in one-sided games.

BOB ZUPPKE

Nevertheless, Illinois made quite a game of it against the Army for awhile, although I doubt if we had improved since a week before when Purdue ran up 25 points on us. Our boys gave everything they had and held the Cadets scoreless the first half, even threatening themselves, but through the loss of Berry, our best runner and passer, the entire second half was unreparable.

Nothing I say is to be considered as underestimating the worth of the Army team which is good defensively, well-coached, and playing clean but hard football. Maj. Sasse's line is strong and may make the Notre Dame team work a lot harder than the Irish had to against Penn.

What a team this Notre Dame outfit must be this year! Penn looked terrible against Wisconsin it is true, but even then a total of 60 points by the Irish juggernaut must mean a tremendous power.

SINGER AND CANZONERI IN TITLE SCRAP FRIDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (AP)—A battle for the lightweight championship of the world with Al Singer defending his crown against Tony Canzoneri, former featherweight title-holder, comes to the rescue of the national boxing program this week and saves it from almost complete obscurity.

The battle, which is to take place in Madison Square Garden Friday night, is something of a novelty for New York. It is the first time in nine years a lightweight title bout has been staged indoors here. Singer won the championship from Sammy Mandell in an outdoor fight last summer.

Canzoneri is considered the leading contender for the lightweight crown as a former title-holder and a veteran scrapper who once gave Mandell a great fight for the title. It is the first time the title has been at stake since Singer won it.

Other battles on the national program offer few high spots. The program includes:

Friday—At Hollywood, Cal.: Al Fay, Chicago, vs. Cigar Droman, Inglewood, Cal., heavyweights, ten rounds.

BEARS PUT UP GAME CONTEST

Southern California Mentor Lauds Opposing Linemen

Stanford Given Credit for Staging Fine Comeback

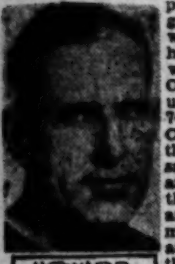
Washington State Rated as Class in Northwest

BY HOWARD JONES

Football Coach University of Southern California

(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance)

It has long been an axiom of football coaches that anything can happen in a football game and such was the case here Saturday when Southern California ran up a score of 74 to 0 against California. More than 82,000 fans saw the game and I know there wasn't anyone any more surprised at the size of the score than myself.



HOWARD JONES

California put up a game fight but it must have been evident to everyone present that we simply outclassed our opposition. I don't say this in an effort to belittle the showing of Nibs Price's team, but merely to show that the California players did the best they could under the circumstances. There is nothing in the realm of sports more difficult than fighting an uphill battle against superior opposition, and I honestly thought the Bears did all they humanly could.

If I were to single out any one Southern California player as being the star of the game I would be doing many others an injustice. I felt that our victory was made possible through excellent team play and only hope the boys can pull together throughout the rest of the season as they did against California.

DUFFIELD AND MOHLER

Duffield and Mohler directed our attack well, taking advantage of the fact that California was drawn in to stop our line plays by throwing passes which usually seemed to find their way into the arms of one of our receivers.

I thought that Beckett, guard, and Timmerman, tackle, played good ball for California in the line. No doubt the absence of Schaldach, halfback, who was unable to play due to a leg injury, handicapped California as he was a player the Bears had come to rely upon.

Stanford is entitled to credit for coming back to beat the University of Washington, 25 to 7. The Huskies gave Stanford a scare by scoring a touchdown soon after the first quarter opened on a pass by Hufford, but after this one drive Washington was outplayed by Glenn Warner's team.

Stanford made good use of the forward pass, Moffatt and other backs combining long tosses with laterals to cross Washington's secondary defense.

It takes courage for a football team to come back after a defeat such as we gave Stanford and the Cardinals are entitled to credit for their ability to do so. That's one of the great things about football—you always have the opportunity to come back. I feel that Stanford and California will wage a great battle when they meet.

COUGARS SUPERIOR

Stanford's victory over Washington rather indicates that Washington State will finish the season undefeated. The Huskies and Cougars play next Saturday in what will be Washington State's final Pacific Coast Conference game. Coach Hollingbery's team won over Idaho Saturday, 33 to 7, and appears to be head and shoulders above any other team in the Northwest.

In the Rocky Mountain Conference Utah brushed aside another rival, trimming Colorado College, 41 to 6, while Denver University won over the Utah Aggies, 32 to 7.

downs was responsible in all cases for three hard-earned victories.

Harvard led Michigan, 3 to 0, when Barry Wood kicked a field goal early in the last quarter. With a few minutes to play Harry Newman threw a long forward pass to Hudson who ran 15 yards for a touchdown. The forward pass is a favorite Michigan form of attack. The Wolverines are always dangerous because of their uncanny ability to throw and receive passes. Harvard showed plenty of improvement and put up a fine game.

Lehigh defeated Princeton, 13-9, in a hotly contested game, in which the result was in doubt up to the final minute of play. Although defeated Princeton showed its best attack of the year. Lehigh scored two touchdowns early in the game, both in the first quarter. The first one on a long run from a fake kick. The Lehigh punter dropped back and another back ran through the line for sixty yards. A few minutes afterward a Lehigh back intercepted a pass and ran over half the length of the field for a touchdown. This gave the South Bethlehem eleven a lead of thirteen points. Quite a formidable one and enough to win. From that point the Princeton team showed marked improvement and forced the play.

Princeton made one touchdown and was on the offensive most of the game. With a commanding lead Lehigh played a great defensive game and again and again stopped the Princeton attack inside of the 10-yard line.

OREGON SOCCERITES LOSE

PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Putting the ball over the line in the last minute of play, Washington broke the long string of Oregon soccer victories here today, triumphant by the close score of 3 goals to 2.

WOMEN'S TEAM MATCHES TODAY AT BRENTWOOD

Second-round matches in the Southern California women's inter-club team championship will be played this afternoon at the Brentwood Country Club.

Brentwood's team, off to a fine start at Oakmont two weeks ago, runs into stiff opposition today in Rancho. The Santa Monica women won all twelve matches from Lakeside, but Rancho's team also indicated well-balanced strength with a victory over Flintridge, 7 points to 5.

The standing of the teams are as follows: Brentwood, 12; Los Angeles, 11; Hillcrest, 8 1-2; California, 8 1-2; Fox Hills, 6 1-2; Oakmont, 5 1-2; Flintridge, 5; Wilshire, 3 1-2; Hollywood, 3 1-2; San Gabriel, 1; Lakeside, 0.

Today's schedule: Wilshire vs. Oakmont, California vs. Hollywood, Fox Hills vs. Flintridge, Hillcrest vs. Los Angeles, Lakeside vs. San Gabriel, Rancho vs. Brentwood.

DAWSON, SANGSTER WIN EXHIBITION MATCH

Johnny Dawson of New York and Denny Sangster of Potrero defeated Charles Seaver and Winston Fuller of Los Angeles, 4 and 3, yesterday, in an eighteen-hole exhibition match played at Ralph Noble's Willowick course. Willowick, a public course, has twelve holes completed and is rated as one of the most interesting tests in Southern California. It is located between Santa Ana and Garden Grove on the Santa Ana River.

Noble, who is vice-principal at L. A. High, is well known at Newport for his yachting activities, and is a pioneer in the public course idea.

Dawson and Sangster had a best ball of 62 with nine birdies. Dawson was particularly effective, shooting a 67. Danny had a 73, Fuller a 74, and Seaver a 75.

TROBABES AND BRUINS TANGLE

Yearling Elevens to Clash Tomorrow Afternoon

Anxious to make it their third successive undefeated season, the freshman football eleven of the University of Southern California has been pronounced fit and ready by Coaches Russ Saunders and Cecil Hoff to tangle with the strong U.C.L.A. freshman squad tomorrow at Westwood in the final game of the season.

THERE GOES THE KICK OFF!

Not since October 29, 1927, when the California freshmen defeated the Trobabes, 33 to 7, have the Southern California freshmen been defeated in regular competition.

With Pinckert, Shaver, Mallory and Hammack in the backfield and Arbelbide, Hall, Baker and Williamson in the line, the Trobabes went through their first undefeated season in 1928 with victories over Stanford, three junior college opponents and a 6-to-6 tie with California.

With Orv Mohler at the helm in 1929, the Southern California freshmen successfully went through the year without a defeat chalked up against them and defeated Stanford and California, two major rivals, to win the "Little Big Three" championship.

	Southern California.		U.C.L.A.
30	Erskine	L.E.R.	Kaal	34
25	Stevens	L.T.R.	Rafferty	30

PROFESSIONALS HOLD SWEEPSTAKES TODAY

The Pacific Southwest P.G.A. will hold a sweepstakes tournament today at the Hillcrest Country Club. Points will count toward the A. K. Bourne diamond medal.

LAWYERS STAGE TOURNEY AT HOLLYWOOD CLUB

Members of the Los Angeles Bar Association will hold a tournament at the Hollywood Country Club on Thursday, according to Ernie Noon, chairman of the golf section. Play starts at 8:30 a.m.

HAWAIIAN BALLYHOO ON

Advance Man for Island Football Team Here With Talk About Hula Players

BY BRAVEN DYER

Coming as advance guard of the University of Hawaii football team, the ubiquitous "Red" McQueen, irrepressible man of the islands, blew into Los Angeles Saturday morning.

During the attendant excitement of the S.C.-California game Mr. McQueen's presence was unnoticed, but only for a short space of time, and now that the Trojans have sent the Bears on their way "Red," who is here to tell the world about the Hawaiian gridders, will demand and get his share of attention.

HIRAM KAAKUA

Everybody who has ever been to Honolulu, knows "Red" McQueen. Weighing 230 pounds even when in an unsaturated condition "Red" is capable of taking care of himself in all types of company, no holds barred. He was born in Honolulu, raised on poi and okalehao, mostly the latter, which happens to be the great national beverage, and speaks only broken Hawaiian dialect, lapsing into the king's English only when unduly excited.

RED PLAYED GAME

Mr. McQueen played some football at the university several years ago and then showed that a college education is of no value after all by becoming a newspaper man. When not engaged in entertaining thirtsy tourists from the mainland, "Red" writes a few pieces for the Honolulu Advertiser. His official capacity on the present trip, however, is that of advance man for the University of Hawaii team.

"Red" went out to look at the Trojans Saturday and was duly impressed with the size, speed and power of Mr. Howard Jones's 1930 creation. "That's a powerful outfit," opined McQueen as he watched the Trojans bowl over the Bears. "Fans of Honolulu would sure get a treat if they could see that team in action and I wish that Southern California could be persuaded to come to the islands some time."

"What'll your Mr. Otto Klum's boys be able to do with the Trojans next Saturday?" inquired the writer as "Red" gazed open mouthed at the assembled 82,000 fans in the Coliseum.

"Well, now, I would like to be able to say that our Roaring Rainbows will knock the Trojans flatter than a bride's first biscuit, but in fairness to my public I must remain truthful and state that although Klum and Kompany will give you an afternoon of real entertainment they can hardly be expected to humiliate Howard Jones.

STRONG LINE

"Klum has a very strong line and I don't think you will find our boys looking for places to hide under the turf when the Trojans get the ball. Otto has five tackles weighing more than 200 pounds each, and those who know anything about athletics in Hawaii will remember that all of our performers, be they football players, swimmers or boxers, run first of all to speed. The line will have a good charge and the Trojan forwards will not have any pink tea.

"You will enjoy looking at Johnny Wise and Hiram Kaakua. The latter we Honolulu writers call 'The Red Grange of the Islands.' He is a brilliant open-field runner and and with any kind of luck at all will give you a real show next Saturday. Wise is a fine passer and Klum makes every use of his ability. Last year Hawaii completed seventeen out of twenty-seven passes against the University of Oregon and only lost, 7 to 6."

The Hawaiian team arrives in San Francisco tomorrow and will come down by train in the evening. Mr. McQueen states that the Rainbows will stop at the Hotel Huntington in Pasadena, and work out in the Rose Bowl Wednesday and Thursday, coming to the Coliseum for their final drill prior to Saturday's conflict.

DE GLANE IMPRESSIVE

French Mat Gladiator Boasts Great Record Since Coming to United States

Henri De Glane, Greco-Roman wrestling champion, who is scheduled to clash with Everett Marshall in the finish feature event of Lou Daro's wrestling card at the Olympic Wednesday night, is considered the outstanding challenger for the world's catch-as-catch-can mat title, held by "Dynamite" Gus Sonnenberg, in the game today.

In the East and Canada, where De Glane has done most of his wrestling since coming to this country from France three years ago, the Greco-Roman mat king has met nearly every top-notcher in the game today, and was defeated only by Sonnenberg.

STRANGLER LEWIS

The Frenchman's record on the mat is as impressive as that of the other great Greco-Roman champions who have come to this country in the last quarter of a century, namely, George Hackenschmidt and Stanislaus Zbyszko. Hackenschmidt came to this country in 1905 and defeated Tom Jenkins for the world's championship. The "Russian Lion" had not lost a bout until he met Frank Gotch in Chicago, in 1908. He is rated among the greatest wrestlers of all time, and during the past nineteen years has made his home near Paris and has seen De Glane in action in some of his biggest matches in that country.

Ed (Strangler) Lewis, who De Glane held to a two-hour draw in one of his first appearances in this country, and who is scheduled to meet Jose Dominguez, Mexican mat star, in the second bout of Wednesday night's wrestling card, is also after a match here with Sonnenberg, with the "billy-goat butt" barred. Dominguez has yet to meet the mat king, but he will be given serious consideration for such a match should he dispose of Lewis as he did Joe Malcewicz here several weeks ago.

Dan George, the Hollywood sensation, is another who is expected to hurl a challenge at Sonnenberg as soon as he is able to start heavy training again. He still is suffering from a sore neck as the result of the head-on collision with the mat king in their sensational battle here several weeks ago.

fourth place. The winner's time in the main event was 50m. 7 4-5s.

Wilbur Shaw, making his first start at Ascot, took the lead on the second lap of the feature affair when Stubby Stubblefield, who led the first time around, was forced out with engine trouble. Shaw came up from fifth place in one lap which was quite a feat, considering the class of the field he was competing against. A broken transmission forced him out of the event on the fourth lap after he had built up a short lead.

Brunmier went into first place when Shaw dropped out and was over a lap ahead of his nearest rival when his car started missing on the fifty-first turn. Cantlon promptly sailed by Brunmier and kept pulling away from him until suddenly Arvol's car started hitting on all four cylinders which enabled him to again go by Cantlon, who was exactly one lap behind at the time.

Brunmier's car went from bad to worse and finally Cantlon passed him and began to make up that one-lap difference. Shorty hit the curves wide open and brought the crowd to its feet with an exhibition of spectacular driving that has seldom been equalled at Ascot.

While Cantlon was putting on his one-man show, Brunmier kept nursing his crippled mount along and managed to slip across the line just as Shorty shot out of the last curve nearly crashing into the fence in his final desperate effort to win the race.

Stubblefield added another victory to his already long string when he captured first place in the Italian helmet dash, leading Brunmier and Quinn to the tape in 58.31s. Woody Woodford captured the twenty-four-lap consolation for nonprize winners in 10m. 13s.

In the consolation race Chester Gardner went to high up on the track as he was coming out of the north turn in front of the grand stand and as a result he crashed through the fence at terrific speed. Chester's car was almost demolished, but he was uninjured.

By the time the first race was under way the grand stand was packed and the overflow was forced to see the affair from the infield.

Additional prize money was given to the driver who led the procession at the end of twenty-five, fifty and seventy-five laps. Brunmier collected all of it.

Maple Leafs, Bruins Clash

If Bill Chapman, young Canadian wingman, is able to get back in the forward line of the Maple Leafs tonight they will be rated a good chance of upsetting the Los Angeles Bruins when the two ice-hockey sextets clash in a Senior League game at the Palais De Glace. Chapman, who sustained a leg injury last Thursday in a tussle with Jack Roland, is the sharpshooter of the team and if he is confined to the bench he undoubtedly will be greatly missed.

IRISH TILT IS NEAR SELL-OUT

Arbelbide such a strenuous workout?" was my second question. Garry could hardly stand up during the latter part of that long-drawn-out third quarter, but still managed to block two punts in two attempts and catch several passes.

"Well, there were some folk who insinuated that Arbelbide was not all that he should have been against California last year," replied the Trojan mentor. "I just thought I would give him a good chance to do what he wanted to out there. I guess he showed quite a bit of football, didn't he?"

PLAIN DYNAMITE

For answer to that last query you can take the word of the Bears or any of the 82,000 fans who saw the game. Arbelbide was just naturally plain dynamite to the Bears the way he exploded in all directions.

"What was the idea of keeping the regulars in the game so long?"

"The boys are out there to play football. Some of them did not get a chance to do much against Denver and even in the Stanford game many played only little more than a half. In addition the public is entitled to see the best we have in our major games."

Mr. Jones did not say so but that Notre Dame-Penn score, 60 to 20, announced at the Coliseum, may have had something to do with the length of time the Trojan regulars played.

Jones was particularly tickled yesterday as it was his little daughter Carolina's third birthday, which made the day a big one all around for the Trojan mentor.

As I said yesterday morning one of the things which stood out in bold relief Saturday was the brilliant signal calling of Duffield and Mohler. True, they were presented with a diversified attack seldom accorded any team, but the boys knew how to call their plays and that's more than you can say for the majority of college quarterbacks. This intelligent direction did more to keep the Bears bewildered and on the jump than the damaging blocking of the Trojan line.

That was a nice little speech Duffield made after the game when he gave credit to the linemen for the victory. It isn't every ball carrier who has the thoughtfulness to acknowledge his debt of gratitude to the men who clear the way for him.

Fred Chase says none of us writers gave Bob Hall enough credit. Claims Hall blocked those two punts one after another in the third quarter when we said it was Arbelbide. Says Bob has two black-and-blue spots on his physiogomy, to show for it, one on his chin and the other on his manly chest. O. K., Mr. Chase, I'll ask the boys about it today.

Speaking of his diversified attack and those new plays, especially those from the reverse formation, Jones said:

"You know when I first came to the Coast from Iowa the other coaches didn't know a great deal about my attack. When they began concentrating on the power play I naturally had to cook up a little new stuff for them and we have been fortunate in the way it has succeeded."

RETAINS SENSE OF HUMOR

Even in defeat Nibs Price failed to lose his sense of humor. There was some talk of Nibs playing golf with the Trojan coaches yesterday, but Nibs, feeling a little low, told Jones: "Your score was 74 yesterday and I couldn't expect to beat that, so there's not much use going out."

The Bears were hit rather hard by the loss of Hank Schaldach. He was the best back Price had. But he was more than that. Hank was the spark plug of the team and his absence hurt. Having Rusty Gill incapacitated early in the game was another tough blow, although this chap Castro who took his place did right well.

One of the best cracks about the game: "Were they playing with the lively ball?"

FIREMEN MEET ARIZONA TEAM

State College Team Faces Flames Tomorrow Night

Fire Department football players tangle with the strong Arizona State College team tomorrow night at Wrigley Field in a game which is expected to be one of the toughest contests of the year for the Smoke-eaters. Coach Bill Blewett's team is pointing for their sixth victory of the season but they will have to step high, wide and handsome to get over the Lumberjacks from Flagstaff, the experts claim.

BILL BLEWETT

Arizona State has made a fine record on the grid in the past three years. In that time they have won twenty-two games, lost three and tied two. In their only visit here this season they thumped Whittier College, 20 to 0.

On the Lumberjack team are several all-Southwest stars. Capt. Frank Armstrong, in addition to his football, is the champion sprinter of his State. He is a 9.8 man for the century. He plays right halfback and is one of the fastest backs in the game. Mose Cooper, the quarterback, was the unanimous choice of the experts for all-Southwest first-string team last season.

The Arizona team thirty strong arrives here tomorrow morning. They will be greeted at the station by Fire Department officials. Bill Blewett has his first-string eleven in fine shape and if his reserves hold up well when needed he is confident the firemen will walk off with the game.

The kickoff is at 8 p.m.

ZUPPKE BELIEVES GRID TEAMS OF WEST BEST

I have been talking a lot about Harry Newman, Michigan's sophomore passer, and the Wolverines beat Harvard by one of his splendid tosses. Newman runs quickly back, turns and shoots unerringly. Sometimes star receivers make ordinary passers look like wonders, but Newman makes an average receiver look like a star. Michigan now has defeated Purdue, Illinois and Harvard by his passes, but the Wolverines, a strong defensive team, are not so good with the running game. If Michigan beats Minnesota and Chicago, the worst that can happen to it then is a tie for the Big Ten title.

Northwestern defeated Indiana decisively as I expected and should be in fine fettle next Saturday to meet Wisconsin in a game in which victory for Northwestern means a tie at least for the title. Indiana is about in the same boat as Chicago and Illinois this year, sparse material, that has not the sheer physical strength to stand the gaff.

Chicago did well to hold Purdue, 26-7, for this Purdue team is a top-notcher and may be the best in the Big Ten by this time, although a 14-13 loss to Michigan has probably put it out of the championship race. Too bad that Purdue doesn't meet Notre Dame this year. The Irish might win, but I believe it would be a great exhibition.

LEO DOMINGO, HALL IN SIX-ROUND DRAW

Leo Domingo, 128-pound Mexican battler, fought a six-round draw with Rickey Hall, in the main event of the weekly fight card held at the Main Street Athletic Club Saturday evening. Neither fighter packed any kind of punch in his dukes, making the bout a rather uninteresting battle for the more than 800 fight fans in attendance.

Joe Vasquez won a six-round decision from Jimmy Valentine. Vasques took every round, Valentine being on the verge of kissing the canvas in the last canto. Santiago Lujan won a four-round decision from Milt Wilkins, Joe Delara and Johnny Gabucco fought a four-round draw.

UPSETS MARK PLAY IN SYCAMORE TENNIS EVENT

Several very close matches and two minor upsets yesterday featured the third Sunday of play in the first annual Sycamore Grove reunion doubles tennis tournament, which is to conclude on the Sycamore Grove Park courts Sunday, according to Dave Ordway and Ray Custer, who are running the event.

In one of the closest battles of the day, H. Ellsworth Vines, 1930 Pacific-Southwest singles champion, and Dick Charnock, former Pasadena title-holder, eliminated Pederson and Woodburn in straight sets, 17-15, 6-4, in a fourth-round match of the men's doubles. Another good match was played when Cliff Johnson and Jess Millman, the seventh seeded team, defeated Johnny Law and Ben Dey, South Pasadena boys, in three hard sets, 6-4, 2-6, 7-5.

One upset was registered in the men's doubles as Joe Ciano and Joe Saunders, the fifth seeded ram, were put out by Howard McDavitt and Dick Belote after three hard sets, 2-6, 9-7, 6-3. A mild upset was also registered in the mixed doubles when Irwin Reynolds and Betty Williamson defeated Leonard Dworkin and Mrs. Smith, the fourth seeded team, in straight sets, 11-9, 6-3.

Yesterday's results follow:

IN ALMOST every business where hauling plays a part, the Ford truck is giving faithful transportation at an unusually low cost. Because of its strength, reliability, long life, safety and excellent service, its low first cost makes it a remarkable value. This fact becomes more evident through the economy of the truck in daily work.

One of the most important factors contributing to its reliability and low cost of operation is the rugged simplicity of the operating mechanism. The ignition, lubrication, cooling and fuel systems are excellent examples of this feature.

Strength and simplicity of the parts of the Ford truck materially reduce the cost of maintenance, and correspondingly increase its reliability for day in and day out service.

Ford trucks are so designed that they can be economically adapted to a large number of businesses. It is possible to procure the Ford truck with a wide variety of bodies, in two different chassis lengths, with single or dual wheels, with open or closed cabs, and with high or low rear axle gear ratios.

For every business need there is a Ford haulage unit of high value that is low in first cost and low in cost of operation.

There is a special exhibit of Ford trucks and delivery cars with a wide variety of bodies at

Kraski then proceeded to enlarge upon his false story and pretended anew that it was lucky they had encountered Tarzan, who could help them out of their frightful dilemma. He was profuse in his apologies for crossing the ape-man's territory. In the end Tarzan was somewhat mollified by the evidently friendly intentions of the suave Carl. Yet he only half-believed him. Why had they called him "Esteban"? Something sounded rather suspicious to the ape-man. "Well," he decided, "I will soon get at the truth of this matter!"

"Why," she thought, "even at this moment Esteban is pilfering it from the hidden vaults." She was terrified beyond measure by the possibility of discovery, for she was positive in that event the ape-man would remember her.

CUYAMA RANCHO LEASED FOR OIL

Long Term Deal Made on Total of 45,000 Acres

Property Located in Trio of Northern Counties

Extension of Vaqueros Sand Expected in Area

Negotiations have just been completed for leasing one of the biggest tracts in the State for oil exploration purposes, according to an announcement made late Saturday. Cuyama Rancho, lying partly in San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Kern counties, and owned by Ralph and Edward Cebrian of San Francisco, has been leased for a long term of years, and its 45,000 acres may soon be prospected by a number of major companies and independent operators.

The lease was acquired by Arthur S. Wickstram of Los Angeles, and Martin Lathrop of New Orleans, who assert that geological reports concerning Cuyama Rancho seem to indicate that the Vaqueros formation, so productive at Kettleman Hills and in other fields, should be found at reasonable drilling depth upon this property. It is reported that there are a considerable number of oil seepages on the ranch.

A number of exploratory jobs already have been started there upon subleases.

Lee Burch and the Lang Transportation of Bakersfield, are rigging up for a 6000-foot test on Sec. 7, 10-26, in Santa Barbara county.

I. R. Irons is drilling at 800 feet on Sec. 19, 10-24, in Kern county.

E. P. Dakis has erected a derrick on Sec. 19, 10-25, in San Luis Obispo county.

George N. Scofield has leased Sec. 11, 10-26, in San Luis Obispo county, and will start drilling operation within sixty days.

C. H. Beggs has started drilling operations, offsetting Sec. 22. This is on the south boundary line of Cuyama Rancho.

OUTLOOK IN MINE AREA CHEERFUL

Tucson Unemployment Situation Less Grave Than First Feared

TUCSON (Ariz.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Despite the fact that most of the large copper mines of Arizona are running on about half-time and most of the small copper properties have closed, the unemployment situation is not considered as grave as had been feared. The companies are maintaining wages and are using all efforts to provide maintenance for their older employees, in the hope of retaining their organization and the services of the supervisory and technical men.

There has been something of a turn toward taking out more ore under contract. As a rule, such an arrangement serves to speed up the individual, working on his own time, and thus to reduce to a degree the cost of providing ore at the shaft head. Mining men express the belief that the unemployment problem in Arizona is not as serious as it is elsewhere. Many of the copper miners have gone into gold mines or are able, with possession of their own homes, to care for themselves over the slack period.

As a rule, the men have even greater confidence than the operators that good times are ahead, and they point to the fact that in the past thirty years several such copper slumps have been known, only to be followed by still greater activity and better prices. The mining companies have aided by continuing development work in the mines to as great an extent as possible, and every one of the larger producers has put its reduction plant into the best of condition, to assure the most effective and most economical operation in the future.

Shell Project in Weed Patch Drilling Ahead

WEED PATCH, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Shell Oil Company's Porter-Day No. 1 well, Sec. 29, 30-29, in the Weed Patch district, is drilling ahead below 6000 feet. Sandy shale is at bottom. Porter-Day No. 1 was brought in several weeks ago for initial production that ran all the way from 150 barrels to 800 barrels daily. It was killed for deepening. Shell desires to prospect lower depths of that field.

On the same section Shell's Porter No. 1 is beyond 1000 feet and drilling through shale formation.

Wharton No. 1 on Sec. 32, 30-29, originally a Shell project, but which now is being drilled by the Mohawk Oil Company, has reached 876 feet.

TEXAS ACTS ON NATURAL GAS WASTE

Rail Board Orders Quiz as First Step in Move for Conservation

AUSTIN (Tex.) Nov. 10. (Exclusive)—An investigation of natural gas waste in Texas has been ordered by the Railroad Commission. When full information has been obtained as to the extent and volume of this waste, the commission will hold a public hearing to consider the adoption of further conservation measures, it was stated.

Notwithstanding the fact that 58,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily is now used in the two casinghead gasoline plants in the Big Lake field of Reagan county, the residue gas from the plants is going to waste, and no means of utilizing approximately 100,000,000 cubic feet daily that is flowing from other wells in the field has been adopted. Reports of lesser gas waste in other oil fields of the State have been been received by the Railroad Commission.

In a statement made to the commission by Clarence Wharton of Houston, attorney for the Continental Oil Company, which has deep wells in the Big Lake field, it was explained that the gas-oil ratio in that field has been reduced to around 10,000 cubic feet with each barrel of oil produced, with tubing and other plans under way to cut it to 4000 cubic feet. Entire utilization of the gas flow will be had if a pipe-line company selling fuel-gas contracts for the large gas supply of the field. Such a contract is said to be under consideration. However, the commission demanded a policy of reducing the flow of gas in the interest of saving large quantities of oil which would be left in the ground when the gas pressure ceases.

IMPERIAL GOLD MINE ACQUIRED

Bunker Hill and Sullivan Exercises Option to Buy Nevada Property

BATTLE MOUNTAIN (Nev.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—The Imperial group of gold properties in the Galena district, near Battle Mountain, has been acquired by the powerful Bunker Hill & Sullivan Company. The corporation has been developing the holdings under an option for several months, and is understood to have placed a substantial tonnage of commercial ore in sight. The property is equipped with a mill and mine machinery. The deal ranks among the most important of the year in Nevada.

Southern California capitalists have acquired the Ramon Montara ranch and water rights on Leonard Creek, on the rim of the Black Rock Desert, according to advices received by local mining men, and will use the water to work extensive placer deposits below the ranch. The placers embrace approximately 1000 acres, and are said to contain an immense deposit of material assaying 50 cents a yard. Some gold has been recovered in the past, but the operators were forced to rely largely on dry-washing, which proved generally unsatisfactory.

The Basque Mining and Milling Company is adding a thirty-ton unit to its mill and expects to be treating fifty tons of gold-bearing ore per day early in December. Supt. F. H. Stewart states that an excellent vein of sugar quartz is being developed, with values persisting favorably at depth. The mine is seventeen miles north of Winnemucca.

OPERATIONS IN KERN OIL FIELD TOLD

Only Two New Projects Start Drilling During Week in County

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Drilling activity begun in Kern county oil fields during the past week included the starting of two new wells, one at Weed Patch and the other in the southwestern corner of the county.

The Shell Oil Company began drilling its second well on the Porter property in the Weed Patch, Sec. 29, 30-29, near the discovery well which is believed to have proved up the district.

The Bankline Oil Company spudded in its No. 1 well on the Orloff lease, Sec. 26, 11-24, southwest of Maricopa.

Reports of water shut-off tests were made by Shell Oil Company in its Jewett No. 14 well on Sec. 29, 28-29, at Round Mountain, and Standard Oil Company in its No. 118 on Sec. 31, 12-23, in the Sunset field.

The North American Oil Consolidated is deepening its No. 28 well on Sec. 30, 31-24, in the Midway, as is also Signal Oil Company its Sheehan No. 5 well on Sec. 8, 11-23, in the Sunset field.

The United Oil Company has abandoned its No. 1 well on Sec. 6, 21-23, in the Midway field.

PACT IN VENICE OIL AREA PENDS

Step Taken to Agreement on Curtailment Plan

Fear of Further Cut in Crude Prices Starts Move

Meeting of Operators in Area Called for Today

Unable to handle their own production and faced with the possibility of accepting a low price for crude oil indefinitely, the Venice oil-field independent operators, who have staged one of the most interesting drilling campaigns in the State, have at last consented to work out a curtailment program that is expected to bring about an established price.

With nearly sixty active wells and more than ninety drilling projects in the Venice oil field, the situation has reached the stage where all available storage is filled and no relief is believed to be in sight unless the operators shut down several of the more prolific wells.

Telegrams have been sent to every operator at Venice by Umpire Neil H. Anderson asking them to attend a general meeting of the group called for 8 p.m. today in the Dickinson Gillespie Auditorium for the purpose of making definite plans for a curtailment program.

According to Umpire Anderson, it now is the desire of the operators' committee to cut the daily production at least 40 per cent and, if possible, 50 per cent. This would almost immediately bring the daily flow down to about 20,000 barrels and thus relieve a portion of the storage for future completions.

The situation is entirely different from what it was six months ago when small refiners were begging for crude oil to run their plants. Instead of having too little crude they have so much that they cannot handle it. One report states that there are 500,000 barrels in storage at Venice and if the present rate of production is maintained oil may have to be run into sump holes.

To get the independent operators' signatures to the agreement a committee headed by Van Foster will make a thorough canvass this week to get the plan in such shape that curtailment may become effective at an early date. Mr. Foster will be assisted by Louis Kelly, Fred Hamilton, E. C. Bolton, Miss Lucy Hillyer and Bart Hutchins. Each will be assigned a group of operators to canvass.

Two reasons for the drastic effort to bring about curtailment at Venice are said to be the decrease in pipe line runs to the Shell Oil Company's refinery near Watson and the low price offered for crude. Venice oil is said to be selling at 25 to 90 cents a barrel, depending on which refinery makes the contract.

GOLD MINE ON MOJAVE PROMISING

Values in Workings of Yellow Treasure Said to Show Gains

MOJAVE, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Anthony De Mayo, who is sinking a shaft on the Yellow Treasure group of claims in the Rademacker district, near Lonely Camp, continues to get excellent values in gold as the hole gets deeper. The Yellow Treasure is said to be a veritable mountain of ore. There are five distinct dikes across the face.

De Mayo, who has discovered a number of good mines, believes that the Yellow Treasure will do much to build up the world's gold supply. Gold found in the Yellow Treasure is free milling and is found in a porphyry formation which requires no mortaring to pan.

Lonely Camp is showing considerable activity because of the new strike, and a number of shafts are being sunk with good values being shown in the prospects. Rademayo No. 1 and No. 2 are a couple of claims which are only a stone's throw from the Yellow Treasure. They are owned by Bakersfield interests, and a number of Los Angeles investors are interested in claims thereabouts. Lonely Camp is two and a half miles east of Rademacker siding on the Inyokern-Trona road.

GROUP OF ARIZONA PLACERS ACQUIRED

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive) — The Hugget - Hoffman Mines, Inc., has purchased a group of placer claims on Oak Creek, in the Walnut Grove mining district, twenty-five miles south of this city. The claims recently were sold by Peter Zerzey to Victor Hoffman of San Antonio, who is to be general manager. C. W. Steinman of Tucson is consulting engineer.

LOCAL OIL MEN GIVEN TRIBUTE

Two Honored by Geologist Group on Pacific

Dr. M. G. Edwards Chosen as New President

Louis N. Waterfall Elected Secretary-Treasurer

At the conclusion of its seventh annual convention in Los Angeles a few days ago the Pacific section of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists honored two Los Angeles geologists by electing them to fill its most important offices.

Dr. M. G. Edwards of No. 428 Grand avenue, South Pasadena, a geologist for the Shell Oil Company, was elected to the presidency of the Pacific Section. Louis N. Waterfall, a geologist for the Union Oil Company, was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

Both of the new officers are men of wide experience in their profession. Dr. Edwards attended the University of Wisconsin and University of California, going then to Peru, where for five years he was geologist for the Cerro Pasco Copper Company. He joined the Shell geological staff in Los Angeles a number of years ago, and is widely known in Southern California.

Mr. Waterfall studied geology at the University of California and since 1923, with the exception of a brief time in which he took post-graduate work, has been with the Union Oil Company geological staff, first as an assistant geologist in the Rocky Mountain district, and later in Canada and Venezuela. During the past year he has spent a great deal of the time at field work in the Kettleman Hills, where Union recently acquired substantial holdings. Mr. Waterfall resides at 1118 North Isabel street, Glendale.

In point of genuine interest, this year's meeting of the association attracted more than 300 local and visiting geologists. Many technical papers were read, dealing principally with the geological formation of various well-known oil fields, such as Elwood, Maricopa Flat, Venice and several areas in the San Joaquin Valley.

One of the more important items of interest was that of Olaf P. Jenkins, chief geologist of the California State Division of Mines, who explained some of the work necessary in developing a useful geological survey of the entire State. The paper on the possible source of the oil in the Venice oil field, by H. W. Hoots and A. L. Blount, geologists of the Union Oil Company, was of much local interest, and a review of Krejci-Graf's book on the origin of Rumanian oil was of interest.

Other papers were contributed by A. R. May, L. M. Clark and Thomas L. Bailey of the Shell Oil Company; E. R. Atwill of the Union Oil Company; R. D. Reed, retiring president of the association; E. K. Soper of the Texas Company, and Lewis A. Thayer of Stanford University.

NOTED GOLD MINE TAKEN ON OPTION

Sacramento Operator Plans Purchase of Old Potosi Property

REDDING, Nov. 10. (Exclusive)—The historic Potosi gold mine in the Muletown district, five miles west of Redding, has been optioned to G. W. Peltier of Sacramento for $40,000 by the Potosi Land and Mining Company. The Potosi was operated more than forty years by Senator John P. Jones of Nevada, and is said to have produced more than $3,000,000. The option calls for erection of a mill of twenty-five tons daily capacity by October 1, 1931, and vigorous mine developments.

The Blue Lead Mining Company reports that the tunnel in its placers near North Bloomfield, above Nevada City, has been driven 2500 feet from daylight, and has exposed gravel carrying good values in gold. Early production is planned. The company has taken a bond on the placer holdings of the Bonanza Mining Company at Relief Hill.

The Colossus Mining Company has developed a substantial tonnage of low-grade ore at its properties in Alpine county, states John L. Henry, president. Strong veins and shoots of fairly rich ore are exposed, and the outlook is considered favorable by the management for making of a large producer. The property has been worked intermittently for many years.

The United Trinity Mines has filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States District Court at San Francisco, after spending a large sum in vain efforts to profitably operate the Bonanza King and Bonanza Queen gold mines, located near Trinity Center. The Bonanza King was a celebrated producer of rich gold ore about twenty-eight years ago.

NOTED OLD MINE OPTIONED

PHOENIX, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Announcement is made by D. R. Finlayson, president of a company that has been developing the Vulture mine, that an option on the property has been taken by the United Verde Extension Mining Company of Jerome. A three-compartment shaft is to be started at once at a point where diamond drills are believed to have cut the faulted ore body.

This is 1200 feet northeast of the original working, cut at 425 feet depth, under a volcanic flow. It is stated that the vein, slanting to the northward, is about forty feet in width. The drills went through this ore body and cut into a second vein, said to be richer than the upper one. At another point, 700 feet east of the lava, a drilling picked up free gold in a fault, though the main vein was not struck. About $125,000 has been spend in the past three years in exploration drilling. There is expectation that the new shaft, with a development level at 500 feet of depth, will demonstrate whatever value there may be in the new find.

The old Vulture was one of the gold bonanzas of the West, with marvelously rich oxidized croppings. The rich ore continued to several hundred feet of depth, mined through two inclined shafts. The lower ores were somewhat leaner, but were in large quantity and very cheaply mined.

The first ores were reduced at Dickenburg, Smith's Mill and Seymour, but, about fifty years ago, an eighty-stamp mill was placed on the property, which then was managed by the noted George A. Treadwell. The vein abruptly faulted and the lower workings were stripped to such an extent that about half the mine caved in. For two decades, efforts have been made to find where the ore went to, but without success until the recent explorations.

The extension management, with bottoming of its own ore body at Jerome, for several years has been looking for new mines, this aided by possession of a treasury of several million dollars. A property was optioned in Canada and then surrendered, and a large amount was spent in unsuccessful development of a mine near Bisbee. Recently exploration has been done in a mine in Idaho. It is expected that the Vulture will prove to be a low-grade proposition, capable of furnishing an immense tonnage for milling. The old ores were practically free, with coarse gold occasionally encountered.

MINE PLANT IN ARIZONA CURTAILING

Calumet-Arizona Plans Five-Day Week at New Cornelia Property

AJO (Ariz.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—The New Cornelia branch of Calumet & Arizona last week shut down its mill three days, in order to curtail output. It now is proposed to run on a five-day schedule, closing Saturdays and Sundays. About 600 men are on the mine and mill pay roll, with about 450 affected by the shutdown.

Despite slack production, Arizona copper mines still are contributing materially to the State and county incomes. Calumet & Arizona, on its Ajo property alone, has just paid the tax collector of Pima county a semiannual assessment of $373,870. The New Cornelia branch is the largest single taxpayer in the county, last year giving the county about 34 per cent of its entire revenue.

F. C. Hulbert of Beverly Hills, Cal., has made announcement that El Oro Mining Company of Los Angeles has purchased the Allison property in the Baboquivari Mountains. Californians interested also have holdings in the Tom Reed company of Oatman. Diamond drilling is proposed on the southern property, as well as installation of much surface equipment for development work.

ARIZONA GROUP TO SEEK OIL AT TEMPE

TEMPE (Ariz.) Nov. 9. (Exclusive) Still another attempt to find oil in the red sandstone croppings near this point is to be made by a local association, mainly of farmers. The committee, headed by J. E. McClain, has secured leases on 4000 acres of land, to be prospected by A. B. C. Davenport. This sandstone formation extends across the Salt River Valley, just west of Tempe, through Papago Park, a national government monument.

NEW QUEST FOR MEXICO OIL PENDS

Mexican Eagle Planning Extensive Test of Area in Tabasco State

MONTEREY (Mex.) Nov. 10. (Exclusive)—An extensive oil-drilling program will soon be started by the Mexican Eagle (Aguila) Oil Company in the Jalpa de Mendez district of the State of Tabasco. The district has been thoroughly geologized and plans call for drilling a large number of test wells. The company is building a modern camp for workers near the scene of the proposed operations.

Oil production in Tabasco, the development of which was started by the Mexican Eagle (Aguila) Oil Company, and its predecessors, S. Pearson and Son, the British contractors who at that time were operating the National Tehuantepec Railroad under lease from the Mexican government, has shown a steady increase during the last several months. This older producing field is situated some distance from the locality where test drilling is now about to be carried on. The company has materially enlarged its lease holdings in Tabasco and expects to considerably increase its oil production. All crude in excess of the quantity required to supply its refinery at Minatitlan will be exported.

NEWS OF HOBBS OIL FIELD TOLD

Only One Completion Since First of Month

Amerada Project Offset of Shell's Gusher

Three Tests on West Side of District Attract

ARTESIA (N. M.) Nov. 10. (Exclusive)—Only one outstanding well has been completed in the Hobbs field since the last proration period ending October 31, it being the State No. 4-B of the Amerada Petroleum Corporation on Sec. 29, 118-38. The State No. 4-B was drilled to 4214 feet and on a company test made 1016 barrels in one hour, flowing open. The Amerada well is a south offset to the State No. 3-B well of the Shell Petroleum Corporation, completed several weeks ago for 23,000 barrels daily.

Operators will watch with interest the test to be made, in Hardin No. 2 of the Tidal Oil Company on Sec. 19, 118-38, which is one of the deepest producers in the field. Workmen are now connecting for a test.

Attention of operators now is centered on three locations; one on the west edge of the Hobbs field, one in the Hobbs pool and one in the Eunice district. The Landreth Texas Utility Company has made a west-edge location in the Hobbs area for its State No. 1-C, on Sec. 6, 19-38. The new Landreth location will force three offset wells. The Continental Oil Company has made its second location in the Eunice sector as the Lockhart No. 1-A, on Sec. 18, 21-36. The Tidal Oil Company has staked location for Grimes No. 5 in the Hobbs field on Sec. 29, 18-38.

RARE MINERALS, METALLURGY, CHEMISTRY

Qualitative analyses will be given in this department of The Times to correspondents on ores and minerals free of charge. Make each sample of an ounce or so in weight. Be sure to write a letter stating what tests are desired and give the approximate locality from which samples were taken. Do not pulverize the specimens. Give your name and address on paper wrapped with samples.

Quartzitic Rock

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23. Question: Please classify the samples according to the questions as marked on the individual sample bags. These rocks come from the San Gabriel Mountains in Los Angeles county.

L. A. EAGLE.

Answer: Sample No. 5 is impure quartz carrying traces of microscopic pyrite and hematite. It is stained with limonite; one small color of native gold was found, and yellow microscopic mica—known as cat gold—was separated in analysis. The mineralogical name of No. 1 is micaschist. No. 2 is hornblendic granite. No. 3 is ferruginous quartz. No. 4. The name given to this sample by you is "Blue-horn quartz;" it is ferruginous quartz carrying iron silicate and microscopic pyrite traces. No. 6 is altered rock, now chiefly quartz, containing microscopic pyrite, some arsenopyrite, copper absent, and carries no native gold. Correspondents are requested to limit the number of samples sent in for tests to five only at one time.

Not Gypsum

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 23.—Q.: I am submitting for your analysis, under separate cover, two samples marked Nos. 1 and 2, which I believe are gypsum or sulphate of lime, from deposits in the hills near McKittrick in Kern county. I have been a steady subscriber to The Times for more than thirty years and have, on several occasions, made use of your valuable "In the Earth" department.

X.

A.: Always glad to hear from old subscribers to The Times. Both samples run very low in gypsite (impure gysum.) They react chiefly as low-grade clays carrying more or less magnesia. Silica is present, and of problematical value as gypsum.

Rock

WASHINGTON CITY (Utah) Oct. 24.—Q.: In separate package find some opals for your own use, also a sample of ore for you to cept thanks for your kind thought In the Earth column. Look sharp for platinum, also a little gold. Silver occurs where the sample for analysis comes from.

W.

A.: No opals received. Please accept thanks for your kind though which moved you to send the gem stones. The massive sample is a siliceous and ferruginous quartzitic rock. It was thoroughly analyzed for platinum with negative results. Two very small colors of gold were obtained from the specimen, and silver known to mineralogy is absent.

Garnetyte

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—Q.: Two samples from the mountain in Los Angeles county. Are they both garnetyte? If not please classify. As ever.

J.

A.: Sample No. 1 is massive garnetyte (garnet rock,) showing one small crystal of brown garnet (essonite or cinnamon stone.) No. 2 is the better grade. It is massive, crystallized brown garnet carrying garnet crystals, and probably of fairly good abrasive uses.

Two Samples

YUCAIPA, Oct. 25.—Q.: Am sending three samples for analyses. I am particularly interested to know what the stuff in No. 1 that floats on the water when you pan it. These samples all come from San Bernardino county.

D.

A.: No. 1 is altered ferruginous quartz. Zinc (blende) is more or less present; traces of lead and arsenic found. No. 2 is pink tourmaline crystals in graphic granite and lithium is present. No. 3 was missing. The float-on-water particles are iron sulphide and microscopic serivite (potash mica.)

THREE SAMPLES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—Q.: What is sample No. 1 and what does it contain? Is No. 2 chrysoberyl? No. 3 assays about 40 per cent lead and silver, twenty ounces per ton ore.

Please give me mineralogy on this sample, and what does it contain besides lead and silver.

M. F. G.

A.: Sample No. 1 is graphic granite; the pink crystals in the rock are tourmaline, and analysis shows that more or less lithium is present. No. 2 is not chrysoberyl; it carries crystals of epidote. No. 3 is chiefly cerussite (lead carbonate;) it carries traces of galenite (lead sulphide,) and a low percentage of black stephanite (brittle silver ore.) Plumbic oxide found in traces.

Free Gold Absent

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28.—Q.: Am submitting five samples of ore for qualitative analyses, all from Bouquet Canyon. Aside from the graphite I would like to know what kind of minerals and the values which the specimens contain. Thanking you for any information you may give me.

MRS. L.

A.: Sample No. 1 is of two samples; one is low-grade graphite and the other one is altered volcanic rock carrying more or less clay, iron oxides and traces of microscopic pyrite. No. 2 carries over 95 per cent black sand (magnetic iron oxide) with microscopic garnet, titaniferous iron and hornblende crystals. No. 3 (three samples) carries clay, iron oxides, lime carbonate traces, iron silicate, banded iron oxides, and altered serpentine. No. 4 is a yellowish mixture of lime carbonate, some soda, silica, travertine (also lime carbonate) and low-grade gypsum known as gypsite. No. 5 consists of altered rocks mixed with serpentine, magnesium silicate, silica, iron oxides and clay. Free gold not present in any sample. All of the specimens represent problematical values. Please send smaller samples next time. Specimens of one ounce in weight are sufficient.

Platinum Absent

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Q.: Samples found in Butte county. Please anyalze same.

H.

A.: The eighty-seven thumb specimens and the fines mixed therewith, are chiefly greasy quartz, ferruginous quartz, some calcite, epidote, microscopic pyrite, arsenical pyrite and low percentage of zinc. Free gold found in but two small colors. It is probable that if fire assays do not give gold and silver returns such ore is of very doubtful value.

SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR

NEW PROBLEM FACED AT PORT

Immigration Station Housing Far From Adequate

Washington Will be Asked to Remedy Conditions

Third of Ships Now Building to Make Calls Here

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Inability of the present immigration station at Los Angeles Harbor to house all the "guests" detained there for investigation has become a chronic condition, and relief will be asked from Washington by Walter Carr, deputy director at Los Angeles, who goes east December 1, next.

The staff of immigration inspectors at the harbor also has become swamped by the increased duties, due to the rapid growth of travel in and out of here, as well as the vast number of promblems afforded by seamen themselves.

As a result two additional inspectors have been diverted for the time being from San Ysidro and a clerk has been borrowed from San Bernardino offices to help in board investigations.

No relief is in sight, however, for the acute housing shortage. During the past week seventy-seven were detained for various reasons, investigation, detention, deportation and such. There are sleeping accommodations for only seventy, so deportees were transferred to the Los Angeles County Jail, and a man, his wife and child were paroled on their own recognizance.

Indications are, according to C. G. Gatley, inspector in charge, that the increase is a natural one, foreseen months ago when more assistance was asked, and promises to become more acute in the immediate future.

Carr is expected to ask both for more lodging and an increase in the permanent staff here.

HARBOR SCHEDULED FOR ADDED DISTINCTION

Nearly one-third of all merchant ships now building throughout the world will operate to Los Angeles Harbor, according to a survey just completed by the United States Department of Commerce.

The local port gains this unusual distinction chiefly because 40 per cent of the tonnage under construction is made up of oil tankers. On September 30, last, 1,034,144 tons of tankers were under construction, divided by nations as follows: Great Britain and Ireland, 540,318; Germany, 128,545; Sweden, 90,550; United States, 67,500; other countries, 207,231.

Of this huge new petroleum fleet it is estimated that approximately 70 per cent, or 724,100 tons, will be operated in various trades out of Los Angeles Harbor.

Capt. W. A. Ross late yesterday brought in the Dollar globe-circling liner President Polk from New York in completion of her twenty-first successive circuit of the world, the ship having traversed approximately 550,000 miles of seaways. The voyage was the 164th for Dollar around-the-world liners.

Incoming passengers included C. C. Chapman of Fullerton, with Mrs. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Small of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Hollywood.

Sailing at noon today for the Near West, the President Polk will take out 2000 tons of local products and embark thirty passengers, including Lynn W. Franklin, new United States Consul at Chefoo, China, accompanied by Mrs. Franklin and their three children.

Lay-up of the Dollar Singapore-California liner President Monroe for at least one voyage and assumption of her schedule by the freighter Stanley Dollar, was announced yesterday. The President Monroe would have sailed from this port next Wednesday for Manila, but her cargo will be carried west by the Stanley Dollar, departing this port on the 17th inst.

Effective with the departure of the Cubore from Philadelphia for Los Angeles this week-end, the Calmar Line will reinstate its nine-day frequency of service, instead of the fifteen-day program which has been in effect since August 1, last. Three of the ships took advantage of the curtailed schedule by undergoing overhaul in eastern yards. They are the Cubore, Pennmar and the Massmar.

The San Antonio, first of six new combination freight-and-passenger carriers being built in French yards for the Pacific-European service of the French Line, is en route from Havre, and is due here the 20th inst., on her maiden voyage. She is 448 feet long, possesses a gross tonnage of 5900 and a service speed of thirteen knots. All six are sister ships, the others being due to follow a few weeks apart.

The Admiral Line flagship H. F. Alexander sailed at 2 a.m. yesterday with 500 University of California football fans and on arrival at San Francisco is to tie up for the winter season.

Effectiveness of the Australian import duty of 8½d an imperial gallon on gasoline and similar products in containers has been postponed from the 1st inst. to December 1, according to the Commercial News. Until then the present duty of 7d will continue. The delay is to permit the Australian Tariff Board to complete its hearings.

Holiday hours, from 10 a.m. to noon, will be observed by the port customs offices tomorrow, Armistice Day.

DEFEATED SAVAGES END LIVES

Bodies of Twenty-three Found Hanging in Trees After Japanese Raid

TOKIO, Nov. 9. (AP)—Rengo News Agency dispatches from Taihoku, capital of the island of Formosa, said the bodies of twenty-three savages, including two chieftains, were found hanging in trees north of the native village of Mahebo

Apparently the savages had killed themselves following the taking of their village by Japanese soldiers and police recently in a drive against a native uprising. Although the backbone of the rebellion apparently has been broken, guerrilla operations against isolated aborigine groups continue.

An official statement issued today said 122 Japanese are known to have been killed in the massacre at Musha on October 27 and seventeen are missing. These figures do not include those killed in subsequent military operations.

TWO KILLED BY AUTO

CANTON (N. Y.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Dr. Whitney Coombs, head of the economic department of St. Lawrence University, and his young daughter Betty, were killed when struck by an automobile while crossing a street here last night.

PLATICAS DE LOS LUNES

POR EL PROF. R. GUERRERO

Encargado de la Sección Española de Este Diario

De la famosa revista madrileña "Blanco y Negro" copio el siguiente cuento infantil escrito por Aurelia Ramos. Procuren mis lectores enterarse bien del significado de cuantos nuevos modismos y palabras encuentren en este sencillo relato:

Restituto X, rey de Fuentedeaguanomuyclara y último de su dinastía, por no haber tenido sucesión en ninguno de sus veintisiete matrimonios, se aburría en el soberbio palacio que le servía de morada.

Todo cuanto el gusto refinado y el dinero en abundancia pueden reunir alrededor de una persona existía en torno a Restituto.

Las arcas del tesoro de Fuentedeaguanomuyclara, que ya estaban repletas de por sí, fueron encerrando sucesivamente los millones que aportaron al matrimonio Enriqueta de Vallepimiento, Hortensia de Pinoverde, Agustina de Aragóndearriba, etc., etc., y se podía, por tanto, asegurar que la fortuna de Restituto X era inconmensurable.

Tantas comodidades reunía el palacio, que, más que una vivienda de personas, parecía morada de duendes. Si Restituto sentía calor, al instante se abrían en la pared varios boquetes y entraba por ellos una fresca y perfumada brisa, saturada precisamente del aroma que añoraba el rey en aquellos momentos: algas marinas . . . pinos montañosos . . . flores exquisitas . . . Si sentía frío, un sol artificial, pero tan bien imitado que hasta servía para engañar caracoles, le calentaba, aunque fueran las doce de la noche. Y así sucesivamente; no deseaba nada sin ver satisfechos sus deseos en el acto.

Había en su jardín toda clase de flores; en su parque zoológico, toda clase de animales; en su despensa, las mejores viandas, y en sus bodegas los mejores vinos. ¿Qué le faltaba, pues? Nada, absolutamente nada; pero se aburría soberanamente, y hasta llegó a enfermar de tedio.

Un día apareció en la "Gaceta" un anuncio original: el rey convocaba a su palacio a todos los niños del reino, desde seis a doce años, y adoptaría como hijo a aquel que le llevara una cosa que él no tuviera.

Dificililla era la cuestión, ya que nuestro buen rey tenía de todo, de todo menos narices—era chato Restituto—; pero esto, además de que no se lo podía llevar nadie, hubiera sido un insulto, una falta de lesa majestad el traérselo.

Ocurrió por aquel entonces que en el pintoresco pueblo de Cachecachete se murió el tío Gaspar, dejando a su pequeño hijo Gasparín, por toda herencia, un gran zurrón repleto de esperanzas. ¡Valiente herencia y valiente desencanto el del niño! El, que creía que lo que guardaba su padre en aquel saco era un tesoro. ¡Se ponía tan alegre siempre que, a raíz de cualquier pena, hacía una visita al sitio donde lo guardaba. . . !

Pues leyó Gasparín el anuncio, y como era alegre y optimista por naturaleza, cogió su saco y echó a andar camino adelante. Quizá que el señor rey don Restituto no tuviera de lo que él llevaba. Había que probar.

Ya una vez en la carretera, se paró un momento indeciso: ¿Por dónde se iría a Fuentedeaguanomuyclara? El lo preguntaría; pero . . . ¿podría fiarse de sus paisanos, o sería posible que, envidiosos y malintencionados, le desviaran en vez de orientarle? No preguntaría nada; confiaría en Dios y en su buena estrella, y adelante.

Mientras tanto, allá en el palacio de Restituto X se sucedían los niños y los presentes: flores fantásticas y maravillosas, aves extrañas de original plumaje, piedras preciosas de colosales tamaños, tejidos ideales fabricados por arañas . . .

Pero a la vista de unas y otras bellezas surgía de los labios del rey la misma o parecida exclamación: "Como esta flor las hay a cientos en mis jardines". "Iguales a esta avecilla hay muchísimas en mi parque". "Las últimas esmeraldas que me regalaron eran como ésta". "El último manto que rompí era de este mismo tejido" . . . Todos los niños, a quienes ya la sola presencia del rey intimidaba, bajaban la vista ante esta réplica y se retiraban avergonzados.

Cuando llegó Gasparín ante la verja del palacio, uno de los niños que salía le dijo, al ver su pobre aspecto: —No te molestes en entrar; este buen rey tiene de todo. Yo le traía un brillante como un melocotón y ni siquiera le ha mirado. A tí, quizá que ni aun te dejen entrar.

—Entrar sí que entraré—contestó Gasparín—; lo que no sé es si me dejarán salir como a tí.

—¿Crees acaso que tu regalo vale más que el mío?

—Las cosas valen más o menos según la necesidad que se tenga de ellas. De eso que tú le has traído ya tenía; de esto que yo le traigo quizá no tenga.

Y, apartando a un lado al vanidoso niño, entró decidido y valiente en el palacio, y llegó respetuoso, pero tranquilo, a la presencia del rey. —Tomad, señor—le dijo—; es la herencia de mi padre, y os la doy entera.

Abrió Restituto el zurrón, y, a la vista de su contenido, murmuró desconcertado: —¿Esperanzas? . . . ¿Esperanzas? . . . Yo jamás he tenido de esto. ¡Qué cosa más bonita y más alegre!

Y como en la vida de Restituto el deseo había sido en seguida realidad, y la realidad, por bella que sea, pierde siempre en comparación con el deseo, encontró tan agradable esperar y saboreó con tanto placer este nuevo encanto, que, adoptando a Gasparín por hijo, dio por terminado el concurso que le había dado la felicidad; esa felicidad que no se compra con dinero ni se adquiere por herencia: una esperanza y un hijo.

Murder Charge Facing Negroes

VISALIA, Nov. 9.—Murder charges have been fied against Albert Williams and Ernest (Two-Bit) Jackson, Negroes, as the result of the killing of Preston Brown, 70-year-old Negro, in a shooting scrape on the Hutchinson ranch west of Tulare, last Sunday night.

This action was taken by authorities, despite the fact an "open verdict" was returned at the Coroner's inquest. It was brought out that no one actually saw Brown shot. He was killed by a bullet which sped through a tent, striking him as he sat on a bench on the other side, peeling apples. Williams and Jackson were brawling. Jackson is said to have attacked Williams with an ax, and the latter to have grabbed his rifle and fired at Jackson. Presumedly this was the bullet which killed Brown.

Comedian Ends Long Career of Disappointment

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9. (AP)—For twenty-seven years Tommy West, a comedian, had dreamed of some day seeing his name coupled with the great stars.

Before he turned on the gas and took his life in the kitchen of his home today, he wrote his own "notice" for a theatrical magazine.

After carefully listing the parts he had portrayed and the circuits he had played, he wrote:

"And if anybody wants to know where I am, just tell them that at last I'm with the big timers—Bert Williams, Jack Donahue, Caruso and the rest of the crowd."

FLYING INSTRUCTOR MAY DIE IN CRASH

TACOMA (Wash.) Nov. 9. (AP)—Spinning down from an altitude of several hundred feet, an airplane piloted by Barney Glein, flying instructor, crashed near the Tacoma city limits here this afternoon. Glein is believed fatally injured. Eldon Virges, aviation student, suffered severe cuts and bruises and is suffering from shock but is expected to recover.

A. W. THOMPSON DIES

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 9. (AP)—Arthur W. Thompson, former president of the Philadelphia Company here as well as former president of the United Gas Improvement Company at Philadelphia and well known as a utilities executive, died here this morning.

No Personal Questions

It isn't fair to let people worry about finances when the need comes for a funeral service. With so much on their minds, they should have things made easy for them.

That is why many families are grateful for the way we solve their problems. We do not ask any intimate questions, but simply let them suggest a sum that will be easy to meet. And no matter how low that sum might be, we provide a service that is complete in every way.

When you have seen this beautiful new mortuary—different from all others in its warm homelike atmosphere—you will realize why services here are so very peaceful and soothing. Your visit is welcomed.

Complete services, of the most beautiful kind, for $70 and up.

New Arrival Shows Man's Fallibility

Hazel Shultz Feeds Baby Simian

FELIX, a wizened, 4-year-old ring-tailed monkey, ward of the Glendale Sanatorium and Hospital, recently became sick. Felix was fortunate. All the hospital's medical talent was at its disposal. Diagnosticians examined, took blood tests and X-ray pictures, and then re-examined. After consultation they reached a decision. Felix would have to undergo an operation.

The operating table was made ready and Felix prepared for the ordeal. White-clothed nurses and doctors stood near, ready to offer their help. And then Felix escaped the operation. A few minutes before the surgeon was ready to proceed a little, hairless baby ring-tailed monkey saw the light of day. To the doctors' amazement Felix recovered almost immediately. In tribute to her motherhood the ailing monkey's name was changed to Mollie.

But the hospital attendants were not yet through. Mollie would not nurse her child. It was found necessary to use a nursing bottle in order to feed it. Every two hours a trained nurse has to give it two ounces of diluted milk. The baby simian has responded to the diet and is growing rapidly, according to E. J. Fulton, business manager of the hospital.

This is the second time in animal history that ring-tailed monkeys have been known to have born when in captivity, Fulton says.

PIROTTE AND HESKETT TO FACE COURT

Impersonating Officers of Immigration Force Laid to Suspected Pair

Clinton Heskett and Peter J. Pirotte, the latter a former District Attorney's investigator, are to appear today before United States District Judge Cosgrave for arraignment and entry of plea on charges of impersonation of an immigration officer.

The two are accused of representing to a Japanese that they were immigration officers and with agreeing to prevent the deportation of the oriental on the payment of money. Other Japanese are said to have been approached in the same manner.

Following the arrests Capt. Howard J. Brooks, formerly head of the Sheriff's farm theft detail, and an acquaintance of Heskett, was arrested and charged with a similar offense. His hearing was set for Friday.

EAGLE ROCK PARK DEAL ON

City Awaits Report of Committee on Plan for Lease or Purchase of Tract

An investigation and report on the proposal to have the city lease or purchase Eagle Rock Park from the Southern California Edison Company has been referred by the Park Commission to Secretary Hassett, Frank E. Miller, right-of-way agent for the company, and Charles Butler, secretary of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce.

An investigation and report on the proposal to have the city lease or purchase Eagle Rock Park from the Southern California Edison Company has been referred by the Park Commission to Secretary Hassett, Frank E. Miller, right-of-way agent for the company, and Charles Butler, secretary of the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce.

Lease or purchase of the park has been indorsed by civic and improvement organizations, lodges and clubs in Eagle Rock. Impetus has been given to the demand because the company, which was allowed public use of the twenty-four acres for many years, now proposes to close it.

A tentative draft of a twenty-year lease of the land to the city for $25 a year, with payment of $150 a year for indemnity insurance to protect the company in case anybody is injured by high-tension wires, has been submitted to the Park Commission by Miller. He signified, however, that the company may be willing to sell the property for exactly the same amount that it cost.

The park is about 800 feet long and varying up to 200 feet in width. It is on each side of Colorado Boulevard. In addition to its use by picnickers, it is a source of much study to students of Occidental College because of the rare rock formation and native vegetation.

The committee appointed was requested to find out whether the company is willing to include a clause in the twenty-year lease providing for the purchase at the end of that time at the present price, which has not been stated.

ORANGE COVE PARK PLAN BEING BATTLED

Action by the Park Commission on the City Council's recommendation that approval be given the plan for creating an assessment district in Orange Cove for the purchase of fifty acres from Russell Johnson and associates for a park has been held up for several weeks at the request of O. E. Slinack, who heads a list of 138 property owners who have filed petitions against the plan.

Slinack informed the board that

CITY LIABILITY ON CARS AIRED

Werner Wants Insurance on Autos or Employees

Redress for Mishaps Has Been Denied in Past

Glaring Case Cited Where Police Commandeered

Some form of redress for citizens who suffer injuries or property damage from city-owned automobiles operated by city employees is proposed to the City Council by City Attorney Werner.

The matter of thus protecting the citizens from the reckless driving of city employees has agitated the Council off and on for many years, but nothing ever has been done about it.

ACT HELD NOT VALID

At the last session of the Legislature a bill was passed and signed by the Governor declaring that municipalities must be liable for the damage done by their employees while on duty.

The first time the City Attorney was required to interpret the law he declared it "unconstitutional," and the matter has been litigated since that time.

Hardly a day passes but some citizen makes complaint that his car was struck by a city machine. After the formality of an "investigation," the report is made "there is no municipal liability." Therefore the citizen has to pay for his hospital bill and repairs to his car and charge it to ill fortune.

GLARING CASE CITED

One particular glaring case recently was that of a citizen, whose car was commandeered by a policeman to chase a traffic violator. In the chase the citizen's car was damaged, but he could not get the city to pay for the repairs. Again and again automobiles are struck by city trucks, police cars, garbage trucks and fire engines, and, although the fault clearly may be that of the non-liable city worker, the injured party recovers no damages.

Werner recommends that the Council should require the city to carry liability insurance or else require the driver of a city car to carry such insurance. It was referred to the finance committee.

ASSERTED SPRECKELS SCION HELD

Youth Taken on Minor Traffic Charge Suspected as Automobile Thief

A youth representing himself as John D. Spreckels III, 19 years of age, grandson of the noted San Diego millionaire, was booked at Wilshire police station yesterday on suspicion of grand theft following his arrest for failing to make a boulevard stop at Pico street and Western avenue. Officers Brown and Ulaub, who took him in custody, reported the roadster he was driving carried no registration certificate.

Questioned at the station, the youth, who said he lives at 168 C avenue, Coronado, stated he had purchased the car in Seattle two years ago and that California authorities had refused to issue a registration certificate. He explained that a garage man, whose identity he did not reveal, had given him the license plates. The latter, according to the officers, are registered to Chester Noren and A. B. Cody jointly, of 1960 Washington street, San Francisco.

BAY CITY AUNT SAYS CHARGE RIDICULOUS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. (Exclusive)—Mrs. Alexander Hamilton, daughter of the late John D. Spreckels and an aunt of the youth held in Los Angeles, said tonight she knew her nephew had purchased a small green roadster in Seattle and the young man had driven it from there to Coronado.

"To think of John D. III, stealing a car is ridiculous," she asserted. "The boy had sufficient funds to buy himself a car. Should it develop that the machine in which the asserted Spreckels was arrested in Los Angeles was a stolen automobile, it is a certainty that the boy who gave his name as Spreckels is an impostor."

WOMAN SCORES NEW AIR MARK

Makes Parachute Leap From Glider

Crowds Get Aviation Thrill

SPINNING through space for 1000 feet over Grand Central Air Terminal yesterday afternoon, Teddy Hall, 21-year-old parachute thrill jumper, pulled the release ring of her parachute after making the first jump in history by a woman from a motorless glider.

While a crowd of 10,000 persons gasped, the young woman climbed from the glider at 2500 feet, finally pulled the release ring of her chute and settled in the center of a twenty-five-foot high tree near the Flying Club of California, at the edge of the airport.

"I had to use both hands in making my way through the braces of the glider so I could get free to jump," Miss Hall recounted.

"Usually you jump with one hand on the release ring, but I had to look for it after I left the glider. I didn't intend to worry anyone and I knew that everything was all right.

"I fell farther than I had planned before I could get at the ring and pull it. That's how I happened to land in the tree instead of on the airport—the wind did not have enough time to drift me to the clear runway."

Miss Hall was unhurt, however, and was rescued from the tree, where her tangled parachute held her six feet from the ground after she had crashed through most of the branches.

Her jump was made under direction of Bert White, executive of the Irving Parachute Company, at Grand Central.

She went aloft in the only two-place motorless biplane glider ever built with Lyman Voelpel, holder of the world's gliding-loop record of seventeen. He set the mark in the same glider last month at Dallas, Tex.

Roy Harding, flying a Travelair open biplane, towed the glider and its two occupants to the 2500-foot level before the motorless ship was cut loose.

Following Miss Hall's jump Voelpel was towed to 5000 feet and attempted to break his own loop mark, but he said the breeze gave out at 2000 feet and he was able to complete only fifteen. The last loop was started at only 500 feet and the pilot thrilled the crowd as he turned his little ship over without power so close to earth.

He will attempt to better his seventeen mark at Grand Central tomorrow afternoon as part of an Armistice Day flying program.

AUTO BILLS APPROVED

At the request of City Clerk Dominguez, the City Council has loosened up on its own gasoline and oil account to the extent of $1200 to provide for current bills for the operation of the automobiles assigned the Council. Clerk Dominguez handles the fund, but does not ride in the automobiles.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by the Southern California Telephone Company quartet.

Fraud Suspect to Plead Today

Accused of defrauding two Los Angeles women out of jewelry and clothing, Anson Shepard, who before his arrest posed as Royal Brown, wealthy author, is scheduled to appear before Superior Judge Wood today for arraignment on two grand-theft charges.

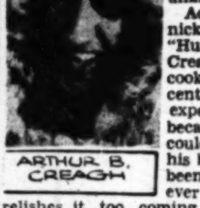
BYRD'S COOK HUNTS NEW THRILL

World Wanderer for Thirty Years Pauses at San Pedro in Hopes of Being Chosen by Admiral for More Adventure

Just a natural born wanderer is Arthur B. Creagh, world citizen, soldier of fortune, adventurer and now a guest at Robal Inn, San Pedro, but destined soon to "break out" again for parts unknown.



ARTHUR B. CREAGH

Admiral Byrd nicknamed him "Hump" while Creagh was a cook on the recent Antarctic expedition because Creagh could contort his back. He has been "Hump" ever since. He relishes it, too, coming from Byrd, his "man among men."

This adventuring cook hopes to see his admiral again here this winter and to go with Byrd on his next undisclosed expedition.

"Hump" first turned roamer, he says, about thirty years ago when he was thwarted in puppy love back in New York. He heaved an inkwell at an interfering teacher and sailed away on a Scotch windjammer. What happened since down his royal road to romance would make an exploiter into a world celebrity, but all "Hump" gained was rich experience and a nickname.

He got other names from other adventures, but some were not so choice, he confided. He and Moody, now Chief of Police at New Orleans captured a Nicaraguan colonel's horse down in Bluefields in 1911. They clipped the pony's tail and mane and painted it black, and the colonel straightway started a revolution.

TRAFFIC FATAL TO PEDESTRIANS

Two Dead and Three Other Victims May Succumb

Man's Life Crushed Out Under Truck Wheel

Woman Struck by Auto Dies in Ambulance

Five pedestrians were victims of accidents in and near Los Angeles during the past thirty-six hours. One man and a woman were killed and three others sustained possible fatal injuries. Three of the mishaps were on Huntington Drive and one motorist struck down two victims as they attempted to cross the traffic lane.

Frank Maddox, 59 years of age, 1132 Monterey Road, ran in front of a heavy truck at Monterey Road and Huntington Drive and was almost instantly killed when one of the front wheels ran over him.

The truck was driven by Carl I. Ukkestad of 2448 Shoredale avenue, police stated. Witnesses, according to Officers Kriewald and Hoy, declared Maddox had run in front of several other cars before being struck down by the truck. The accident occurred Saturday evening.

DIES IN AMBULANCE

Mrs. Minnie Coolidge, 72, 3450 South Arlington avenue, was the second victim. She was struck by a car driven by Herman Scifin, 3612 Arlington avenue, while attempting to cross Jefferson street at the Arlington avenue intersection. She sustained a basal skull fracture and died in the ambulance en route to the General Hospital after having been given first aid at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

Mrs. Mary Trask, 52 years of age, 3108 Manitou street, and Mrs. Effie Hilbert, 57, 1800 Portola street, were struck by a car driven by Carl R. Woods, 88 West Mountain Drive, in the 5100 block of Huntington Drive as they attempted to cross the boulevard. Mrs. Trask suffered a skull fracture and possible broken back, and Mrs. Hilbert a skull fracture. At the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where they were taken, it was announced that their injuries are probably fatal.

George Burnham, 87 Prince street, rammed a Southern Pacific freight train broadside last night at Fifth street and Central avenue. His wife, Bessie, 26, was precipitated through the windshield with a 10-month-old baby in her arms. The child was badly cut and Mrs. Burnham was treated at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital for a deep gash in her throat which just missed the jugular vein. The automobile was demolished.

WOMAN INJURED

In a collision between the automobile in which she was riding and one driven by a hit-and-run motorist, Mrs. Mildred Miner, 20, of 1322 South Catalina street, received a possible skull fracture and numerous severe bruises. She was accompanied by her husband Russell, 24, who was painfully lacerated, and four other persons not reported hurt.

The accident occurred at Sixth street and Western avenue, early yesterday morning. The other machine, according to the police report, fled from the scene. Mrs. Miner was given emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and then transferred to the Osteopathic Hospital.

The victim of another hit-and-run driver, Jim Tom Murphy, 63, Negro, of 123 East Twenty-seventh street, suffered a possible skull fracture and a broken left leg when struck on Main street near the City Hall. He was removed to the General Hospital.

County Motorcycle Officer Rollye Galbreth, 33, received possible fractures of both ankles and concussion of the brain when his motorcycle collided with an automobile at Temple street and Echo Park avenue.

"STORMY NIGHT"

It was a "stormy night at sea" for O. Finstead, 21, and A. G. Fagan, 23, of the U.S.S. California, when they shipped aboard a strange flivver for a short cruise from the harbor to the city early yesterday morning, according to their stories to police surgeons at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. Both displayed bruises and brush burns.

HOME INVADED BY BANDIT

Couple Relieved of $4000 and Locked in Closet; Fifteen Other Robberies Over Week-End

Holding them up in their own home, a bandit early yesterday robbed a man and his wife of more than $4000 in jewelry, money orders and cash, and insured his escape with the plunder by making the couple prisoners in a clothes closet. The robbery was the highlight in a list of fifteen reported to police over the week-end.

The two who yielded the large sum are Mr. and Mrs. A. Rothenburg of 1803 South Sycamore street. Returning to their home about 2 a.m. after attending the theater and a downtown cafe, they were preparing to retire when the doorbell summoned Mrs. Rothenberg. As she opened the door she found herself facing a gun in the hands of a youth.

Forcing her inside, the bandit ordered her to call her husband. When he appeared the youth rifled his pockets of $2500 in money orders and $50 in currency and then stripped the wife's fingers of two diamond rings valued at $1500. He then flung open the door of a closet, forced them inside, locked the door and fled.

When Mr. and Mrs. Rothenberg heard the front door close they shouted for help. Their cries aroused the maid, Miss C. Gorgiga, who was sleeping in an upstairs room. She notified police and Detective Lieutenants Vineyard and Parr liberated the couple.

Ruby Jackson, 972 East Forty-second street, was beaten about the head by a purse snatcher who attempted to grab her pocketbook as she approached her home. She screamed and fought the man, who fled when neighbors appeared in response to the victim's cries.

Three men, one of whom drove an expensive sedan in which the bandits made their escape, robbed Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nichols, managers of the Gwin Hotel, 1214 West Eighth street, of $17 and a valuable watch. Police report that two of the men entered the rooms of the Nichols and at the point of guns took $15 and a watch from Nichols and $2 from the purse of Mrs. Nichols. After the robbery the two backed to the sidewalk, leaped in their car and escaped.

G. D. Curtis, 1807 Berkeley avenue, reported to Lincoln Heights police that a bandit took $3 from him as he walked by the Broadway entrance to Elysian Park. The hold-up man escaped on foot.

THERE is no reason why West Point and Annapolis should abandon their football game which was to be played for the benefit of the unemployed.

They can come to California without danger from frozen football fields. For other reasons, that game should be played out here anyhow. The Military and Naval academies are not the personal property of the Atlantic Coast.

FLOATING SCHOOLS
One could go further than that.

It would be of benefit of both services if two years of the four-year period of instruction of the cadets were held in two new academies in the West. For a long time to come the activities of the Navy will be concentrated on this Coast. The naval cadets need contact with the ships. Just as the Army cadets need contact with the lay of the land.

STALE THEORIES
The course of instruction at West Point has always been attended by much folly. During the years following the Civil War—from 1870 to 1890—we were engaged in a long series of Indian wars—in which the Indians usually made fools of the West Pointers.

While the young Apache warrior was being taught how to recognize signs of water in the desert; how to practice camouflage before Europe ever heard of it; how to go long periods without food or water; how to take cover in a barren land, our West Point cadets were studying Napoleon's tactics at Austerlitz. A swell preparation for fighting Geronimo!

And when it came to the World War, they discovered that they had to meet new conditions, of which Napoleon had never dreamed.

TEPID
From now on Chef Wyman and I are as strangers. She can think up delectable dishes; but why does she tell them to leave out the seeds of the chili when she describes chili con carne. The seeds are where the hot is. And if it isn't hot it is just tenderfoot stuff.

OUR YEGG MIGRATION
As to the perils of the criminal hitch hiker, I can't see the philosophy of allowing these yeggs to cross the State line. They should be turned back at Yuma and Needles. In which case Arizona would turn them back at her own eastern boundaries.

A FLOATER
New York is a swell picker in the matter of judges. Ex-Municipal Judge Ewald, arraigned on criminal charges, says he has "no occupation."

GIRLS WHO SMOKE
A church convention has decided to fire any minister whose wife smokes. Any minister should be glad to slough off a parish with the mental equipment of a horned toad.

BETTER TIMES
If you don't believe that times are better, ask the corner storekeeper. Building materials are not only selling but, in some instances, show a sharp advance in price.

'DIMES' MURDER CASE UP TODAY

Arraignment of Ells and Brown Scheduled

Husband and Asserted Hired Killer to Plead

Slaying of Sleeping Woman in Plot Charged

Emory Ells and Benjamin Franklin Brown today are scheduled to enter their pleas to a charge of entering a murder contract under which Brown is asserted to have killed Mrs. Merle Ells on the 2nd inst. for a promised reward of $2000, but for which he received only $2.20 in dimes.

The two defendants are scheduled to appear in Superior Judge Wood's court for arraignment which was deferred last Friday to give them more time to confer with their attorneys. Ells is represented by Attorney Harry Margid. Brown probably will be represented by the Public Defender.

While the pleas of Ells and Brown are being awaited the police are continuing their investigation seeking a new motive for the crime to which they assert Brown already has confessed. In his asserted confession Brown said that Ells hired him to kill Ells's divorced wife to gain custody of their 18-month-old boy. The police, however, are continuing their inquiry on the theory that the woman was slain because her slayers feared that she would inform police of other things.

Since the indictment of the two Ells has denied having asked Brown to shoot his wife, police state, placing the full blame for the crime on his codefendant.

Mrs. Ells was shot to death while sleeping with her infant son at 323 East Ninety-ninth street. The charge of buckshot which killed the mother did not injure the child.

HOLD-UP MAN INVADES HOME

Varas, 4210 South Hoover avenue, of $7 a few minutes after he had left a cafe at Pico and Main streets. Varas told police he believed the man had followed him from the cafe.

Creston Wallace, milk-truck driver, 1001 South Oxford Boulevard, was robbed of $60 by a robber in the rear of an apartment house at 670 South Cloverdale avenue as he made a delivery. According to residents in the vicinity, the robber had been seen lurking in the neighborhood for several hours previous to the robbery, but no one had thought to call police.

GAS STATION RIFLED

Before midnight Saturday three bandits held up three gasoline service stations within thirty minutes.

The trio first appeared at 1600 South Los Angeles street, where they robbed G. A. Galbreth of $17. A few minutes later they drove into a Richfield station at 3651 South Main street and robbed A. H. Brockbank of $18. Swinging back swiftly to the eastern side of the city, they appeared for the third time at 2221 East Ninth street, where they obtained $20 from D. G. Allender. Check of the license number of the bandits' car showed it to have been stolen earlier in the evening.

Three other service stations were held up by lone bandits. J. L. Morgan at Ninth street and La Brea avenue lost $30; O. J. Peterson in a Shell station at 600 North Western avenue lost $8, and C. P. Hutton was robbed of $12 in a service station at 11100 South Vermont avenue.

INSOMNIA BLAMED

Insomnia was the indirect cause of John R. Owens of 6044 Echo street losing 65 cents to two bandits at Pasadena avenue and Arroyo Seco. Owens stated he got up to get a cup of coffee at a cafe near his home when he could not sleep. On his return he was held up.

Returning to his home at 4318 South Van Ness avenue from a neighborhood market, J. R. Jack was held up and robbed of $5, he reported.

Another bandit held up I. Shimizu in his grocery store at 2057 Sawtelle Boulevard and robbed him of $10.

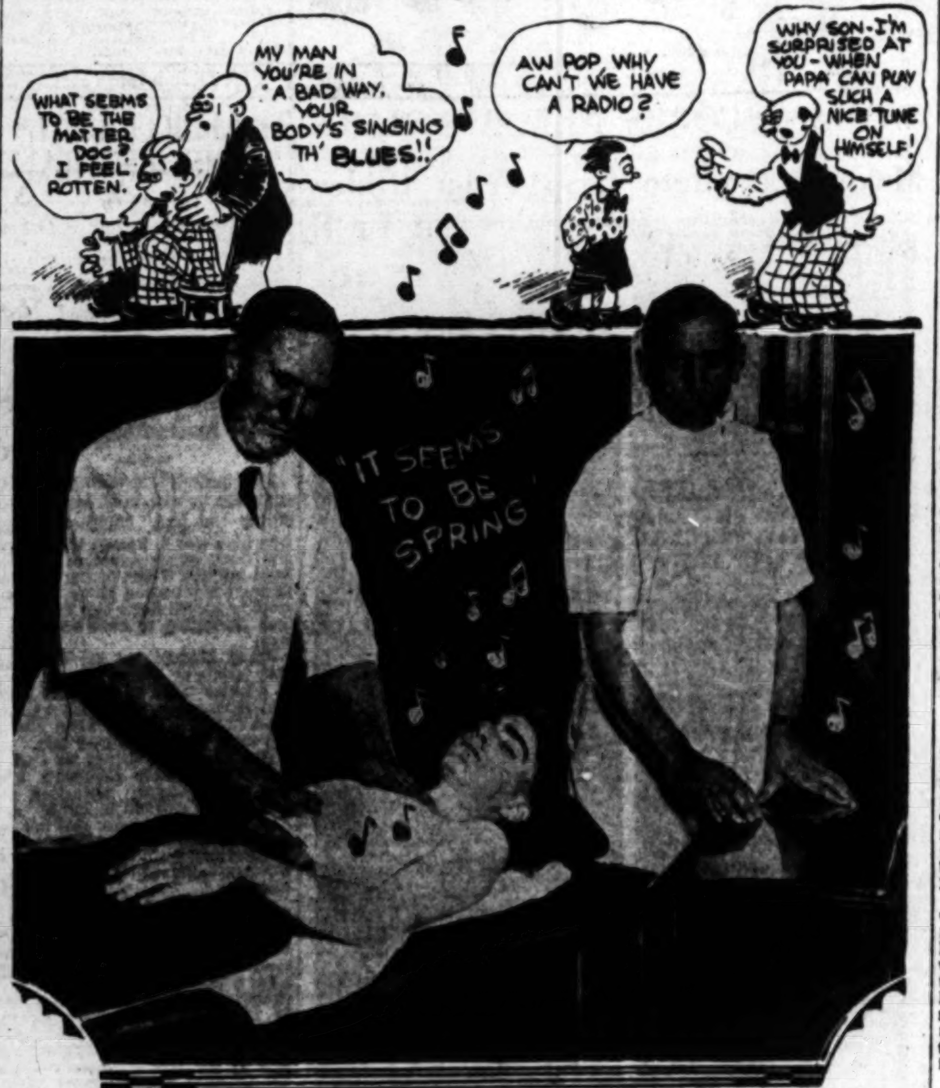
GETTING IN TUNE WITH THE INFINITE

Chest Notes Attuned to Bygone Airs by "Cosmic Rays"



WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE MATTER DOC? I FEEL ROTTEN.
MY MAN YOU'RE IN A BAD WAY. YOUR BODY'S SINGING TH' BLUES!!
AW POP, WHY CAN'T WE HAVE A RADIO?
WHY SON - I'M SURPRISED AT YOU - WHEN PAPA CAN PLAY SUCH A NICE TUNE ON HIMSELF!
"IT SEEMS TO BE SPRING"

Human Loud-speaker

NOW comes the "musical" treatment as the latest Hollywood cure-all.

The patient becomes a loud speaker as he receives through his body asserted mysterious "gravitonic cosmic rays" that are purported by their dispenser, Fred Reed, in a pretentious establishment at 8581 Melrose avenue, to do about everything but put out the cat.

In the first downtown public demonstration in a hall at 233 South Broadway Reed picked Eldon Crome out of an audience to demonstrate his self-attributed powers of picking out of the ether the "rays" with their accompanying music.

Before producing music from young Crome's body, however, Reed demonstrated his first "ray" receiver—a metal-topped apparatus that looked like a made-over end table or sewing machine.

He rubbed the metal top, explaining that his body, after fifteen years of rubbing, is attuned to the "rays" and that it would not be long until out would come the music.

AIN'T NATURE GRAND?

And it did. After turning a dial on the cabinet strains of a vocal and violin number came forth from his fingertips. It baffled the audience, though it had a familiar sound, not unlike a radio broadcast.

Then Crome was stretched on a table with a metal plate wrapped in a wet towel under his back. A few rubs by Reed on Crome's chest and, presto, a tune poured forth, rather squeaky, without Crome opening his mouth.

"Those are the 'rays' doing their stuff," was Reed's explanation.

He "explained" the exact function of a wire, however, that ran from the metal plate out of a back window to his automobile parked in an alley below.

"That goes to the 'radium salts.' They are the secret of the whole thing. There is $100,000 worth of apparatus in that box."

One of Reed's patients revealed that a glimpse in the box disclosed two cases that looked suspiciously like a radio set. A radio expert who visited the Hollywood "institute" declared it would be possible to complete a radio contact through a human body and amplify music or conversation through friction on metal or the skin.

RAYS AND MUSIC

Reed assertd the music he picked up may have been played centuries ago—that everything that is said or any noise on earth remains in the air in waves. All he has to do is turn loose his "radium salts" on these waves and in comes the healing "rays" with the accompanying music.

Besides the Hollywood establishment Reed conducts another "institute" at 660 I street, San Bernardino. He has been trying out his "rays" with success, he asserted, for two years in Hollywood.

At the Hollywood headquarters he has several "treatment" rooms rigged up with metal-plated bathtubs and beds with metal plates under them where the "rays" for each patient are captured. His main "control" room is operated similarly to a radio station, according to a radio technician.

Friends Provide Alibi for Crash Case Defendant

Evidence in Municipal Judge Turney's court connecting William G. Ebele, 900 East Adams street, with the death in an automobile crash of Edward J. Stuart, baseball umpire, was sufficient to warrant holding him for trial on manslaughter and hit-and-run driving charges until three defense witnesses testified that Ebele had been playing cards with them in his apartment at the time of the crash. Judge Turney dismissed both charges.

Rod Murphy, umpire and former Coast League player, said Ebele's car collided with his at Sixteenth and Paloma streets and that Stuart was killed in the crash. He was unable to identify Ebele positively as the driver and when the defense witnesses said that the latter's car was missing when he went to look for it an hour after the crash, Judge Turney decided that he could not have been the driver.

ATTORNEY E. E. ROGERS SUCCUMBS

Heart Attack Costs Life of Lawyer Who Had Spent Most of Life Here

Ernest E. Rogers, attorney, died early yesterday morning at his home, 2835 Westshire avenue, of a heart attack.

Death came unexpectedly to the 47-year-old lawyer, who had spent practically his entire life in Los Angeles. He was born in Kansas City, Mo., but when a few months of age came here with his parents.

He leaves his widow and four children, Jack, 14; Leland and Leslie, twins, 7, and Marion, 9. For a number of years he had his office in the Chester Williams Building at Fifth street and Broadway. He was a member of Westlake Lodge, F. and A. M., charter member of Melrose chapter, R.A.M., and member of Golden West Commandery, Al Malaikah Temple and the Cahuenga Eastern Star Chapter.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood by Rev. Stewart P. MacLellan, and his fellow-lodge members will hold their final rites at Forest Lawn Cemetery. Arrangements for the funeral will be made by Will A. Reynolds.

PARK PURCHASE DEAL TAKEN UP

this is the fourth time the same petitioners have protested against the plan and declares that the renters in the district are being used to put over the project and to compel the property owners to pay for it. He declared that only thirty-three voters are for the plan, compared to more than 100 voters against it.

Slinack plans to bring in the property owners as a demonstration against the park and also says that he will "give the members of the board some private information on what it is all about."

NEW GIFT OF PECK TO BE ACCEPTED TODAY

Another gift of ten acres, in addition to twenty acres donated a year ago, which has been offered to the city by George H. Peck of San Pedro, is to be accepted by the Park Commission at a special session today.

The entire thirty acres is located where Western avenue enters the boundaries of San Pedro, at the top of Ninth street, and most of it already has been landscaped and planted with trees and shrubbery, forming an oasis half way up the hill west of San Pedro.

Much of the area now known as Point Firmin Park was given to the city years ago by Peck, wealthy realty dealer.

Mrs. Leonard's Funeral Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Leonard of 914 South Alvarado street, who died unexpectedly from a heart attack, will be conducted today at 10 a.m. at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Ninth and Green streets. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Leonard was 62 years of age and had resided in Los Angeles for the past five years. She was the mother of Phil Leonard, a Times staff artist. Other children left are Thomas Leonard of McKeesport, Pa.; Mrs. Margaret Stanton of New York, Mrs. Gertrude Falkenstein of McKeesport and Miss Anne Leonard of Los Angeles.

Weaving Skill of Indian Told

Every step in the history and progress of weaving in America can be traced to the American Indian, declared Charles Ansen, executive secretary of the Southwest Museum, in a lecture yesterday afternoon on "The Story of the Loom."

Notwithstanding his handicap, being limited to the use of bark, roots, hair, feathers and similar materials, the redskin has produced the finest specimens of the weaver's art in the Western Hemisphere the speaker asserted. In the Old World, he said, the history is largely lost, but the missing links can be supplied by a study of the Indian's achievement.

Fabrics woven on the Navajo looms of today are unsurpassed, the speaker asserted, even by oriental rugs and Gobelin tapestries.

CHEST WORKERS RENEW EFFORTS

Golden Harvest Garnered Over Week-end

"Million Dollar Committee" Realizing Quota

Friendly Rivalry Features Intense Campaign

With renewed effort, 15,000 unpaid volunteer workers are soliciting every part of the city to reach the Community Chest quota of $3,200,000. With a little more than half of the amount reported at the close of last week's report luncheon, they are making every effort to bring in enough funds at the next report luncheon to be held on Wednesday to insure the ultimate successful conclusion of the campaign.

Reports coming into headquarters indicate that a harvest of gold was garnered during the week-end. With additional subscriptions to be obtained today and tomorrow, Chest officials feel that the quota percentage will be moved forward considerably on Wednesday. Workers are determined to stay with their task until completed, realizing that the need among the Chest agencies is greater this year than ever before.

NEED IMPERATIVE

Chest agencies have been operating on inadequate budgets, due to the fact that last year's quota fell short by some $800,000. This fact, coupled with the increasing demand for service due to unemployment and general economic conditions, makes it imperative that the full quota be raised this year.

Reports from the central division committee, comprising leading business men who are soliciting the larger donors, indicate that the wealthier residents are considering their subscriptions this year in the light of the existing need. The committee has raised 65 per cent of its $1,750,000 quota, and will obtain the entire quota before discontinuing its efforts, it is believed.

FRIENDLY RIVALRY

One of the unique features of the central division solicitation this year is the friendly rivalry which exists between the two teams known as the "Million Dollar Committee," headed by Russell H. Ballard and Harry Chandler, under the general chairmanship of Mayor Porter. Last available reports show Chandler's committee in the lead with 63 per cent of its quota. However, a hot battle is being waged by both committees and the outcome is being watched with interest by the entire campaign personnel, as these two committees are obtaining the largest subscriptions to the campaign and setting the pace this year.

Friendly rivalry also exists between the men and women workers. Mrs. Albert Crutcher, chairman of the residential districts, announced that the women are working hard to wrest laurels from the men this year. She insists that when the final reports are in, the women will be found leading in percentages of their quota. Mrs. Crutcher praised the fighting spirit of her women workers who have promised to stick on the job until their work is completed.

BYRD'S COOK HUNTS THRILL

the sea, but he always returned to the shrine of Mars. Pancho Villa had him as a follower after Pershing's pursuit from Columbus. At one time "Hump" says, he served with the French Foreign Legion.

As a flyer in the British Royal Flying Corps, he says, he got a lot of decorations for bringing down seven planes, and received a bunged-up knee for being shot down himself. America's entry into war soon found him in Battery F, Fifth Field Artillery, of the famous First Division.

Through it all his seemed a life enchanted. But with the world struggle over, war palled on him, so for diversion he hunted fossils two years with Dr. E. J. Monaghan in Northern Siberia.

Fate seemed determined, however, to make a hero of him. In 1926 as cook on the steamer Bibco down the Spanish Main, he found himself in a lifeboat picking up the crew of the Italian steamer Eliope sinking off Brazil. For this he got a testimonial from the Shipping Board.

Finally came a tough examination and acceptance on the Byrd expedition. Likewise this frigid excursion gave him his biggest thrill.

"After being isolated from the outside world," he said, "to come back to New Zealand and civilization; to see green hills and green trees and people besides ourselves—that was the greatest thrill of my life."

Nothing in all his wars compared with it. And now he is impatient for Byrd to take him on the next mysterious adventure, and so, also, he says, are Capt. Alton Parker and Max Boening, both now in Los Angeles.

"You know, even when cooking on the ice, the cook's got all the best of it," smilingly justified "Hump," the happy-go-lucky wanderer.

BOY KILLED IN CRASH AT SPEEDWAY

Wrecking of Racing Auto Sends Timber in Crowd; Small Spectator Dies

A 7-year-old boy, George Kline, of 1147 Lillian Way, Glendale, was killed instantly late yesterday at the American Legion Speedway when a car driven by Chester Gardner, 8723 South Hooper avenue, crashed into the fence while rounding a turn at high speed, catapulting a heavy timber into the grand stand which almost decapitated the youngster.

The boy was sitting beside his sister, Billie, 17, whose head was missed only a few inches by the flying missile. She received only a few scratches and bruises, caused by a glancing impact of the timber.

Gardner escaped with slight injuries, although his car was wrecked. Detective Lieutenant McBride of Lincoln Heights division investigated the accident and sent the boy's body to the County Morgue.

Thieves Chisel Safe From Wall

Chiseling a small steel safe from its concrete setting and taking the receptacle and contents valued at $100, burglars early Sunday morning paid a visit to the Comet California Orange Drink Company, at 459 South Main street.

Detective Lieutenants Colling and Slaughter of Central Station, who are working on the case declared the thieves scaled the steel grating door and battered the safe out of its place in the wall.

WIFE KILLER WILL LEARN FATE TODAY

Judge Fricke Will Pass Sentence on Miguel Garcia Who Butchered Spouse

Having already pleaded guilty to the murder of his wife Josephine, in their apartment at 808 Stanford avenue on September 5, last, Miguel Garcia will appear before Superior Judge Fricke today and hear his fate of life or death.

At the time of sentence Judge Fricke first will fix the degree of the crime. If first degree, he will then decide whether the man shall be sentenced to life imprisonment or to death.

Police assert that Mrs. Garcia was stabbed twenty-five times with a cheap butcher knife that the defendant purchased earlier on the day of the slaying.

PLAYGROUNDS WANT SHARE OF OIL FEES

A resolution asking a share in the fee of 1 per cent on the gross returns from oil developed in the Venice district, which the City Council proposes to put into effect, has been presented to the Council by the Playground and Recreation Commission. The resolution points out that oil development in the district has ruined much of the beach for public use and that it is logical that oil revenues should aid in maintenance of the rest of the public beach.

THREE BOYS LED TO DEATH'S RIM

Dog Accompanies Them Up Brush Canyon Cliff

Firemen Rescue Trio From Perilous Perch

Youths and Pet Uninjured in Adventure

Adventure's beckoning finger yesterday lured three Hollywood boys and a dog to the brink of instant death in Brush Canyon, only to be cheated by the heroism of firemen plus the intended victims' unflinching will to live in the face of overwhelming odds.

While scores of hikers and motorists looked on with bated breath, the youngsters and their dumb companion were pulled to safety over the top of a 600-foot cliff after clinging to the sheer side for an hour and a half, like flies on a wall, when they found it impossible to ascend further or descend to their starting point on the canyon floor, 500 feet below them.

The boys, who last night were none the worse for their experience save scratches and bruises, are Thomas Van Fleet, 13 years of age, of 1201 Seward street; Raymond Keith, 14, of 5139 Fountain avenue, and Lloyd Moncour, 13, of 1414 Cole avenue. The dog is Pat, a Scotch terrier. Shortly after noon they started for the old gravel pit in Brush Canyon, at the end of Bronson avenue. Arriving there, they decided to scale the steep wall of the cliff towering to a height of 600 feet.

Foot by foot the four went up, dislodging as they climbed the boulders that had served as footholds. Attaining 500 feet they found themselves unable to climb higher, although only 100 feet loomed between them and the plateau. Nor could they descend, for the footholds were gone. With their waning strength the boys clung to narrow ledges and the terrier sprawled upon a projecting boulder, while a man who had seen their plight notified Policemen Melotte and Vermuellen.

The officers summoned Fire Department Rescue Crew No. 9 and Capt. C. J. Earl led a detail of men to the cliff top. Over the edge Fireman Frank Schram was lowered on a rope until he came abreast of the helpless lads. He carried the Van Fleet boy to safety first, then returned for young Keith. Fireman "Hap" Hemsley then went down and rescued the third boy and the dog.

Rites for Couple Joined in Death Set for Today

Double funeral rites will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at St. Paul's Cathedral, 615 South Figueroa street, for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Butler Henry, residents of Los Angeles for almost half a century, whose deaths occurred within a few hours of each other. They will be laid to rest in adjoining crypts in Forest Lawn Mausoleum.

Mrs. Henry died Thursday evening at the family home, 1400 South Manhattan Place, following a long illness. The shock of her passing resulted in her husband's death the following morning in an adjoining room.

Mr. Henry was 80 years of age and his wife was 66. He was a retired broker and capitalist. Both were born in Ontario, Can., and came to Los Angeles in 1886 from Toronto. They leave a son, A. Elwood Henry of Los Angeles.

Eugene Brown Funeral Rites Will Be Today

Franklin Eugene Brown, veteran newspaper man, known to thousands of Times readers as Eugene Brown, will be laid to his last rest today in Forest Lawn Mausoleum. Masonic services at the crypt will be preceded by funeral rites at 3 p.m. at the Kiefer & Eyerick chapel in Glendale.

Mr. Brown died Friday night at his home, 321 South Lincoln avenue, Glendale. He had been ill for several months, but death came unexpectedly. He was 66 years of age. He came to Los Angeles twenty years ago from Quincy, Ill., where he had been editor of the Quincy Herald, and had been a contributor to The Times ever since. He leaves his widow and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Brown. His father is 91 years of age and his mother, 88.

Bus Extension Permit Granted

Permission for the Los Angeles Railway, motor coach division, to extend the Beverly Boulevard bus line easterly so that it will operate on Beverly Boulevard to Union avenue, thence to Rockwood street, on Rockwood street to Belmont avenue, and on Belmont avenue to Beverly Boulevard, to connect with "C" line cars at Belmont avenue and Beverly Boulevard, has been granted by the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation.

The board also has approved the company's request for permission to reroute the "R" line over new tracks on Third street between Western avenue and Gramercy Place. The new tracks are to be completed in ten days. The "R" line is to continue on Third street from Gramercy Place to Vermont avenue, south on Vermont to Sixth street, thence over its present routing on Sixth street, Alvarado street and Seventh street.

The permission provides for routing the "D" line, which now terminates at First street and Bonnie Brae avenue, out west on Sixth street instead of turning at Alvarado street and turning back in the right-of-way at Gramercy Place and Third street, making a junction with the West Third street line at that point.

Today's Bible Text

I know thy works: behold I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept My word, and hast not denied My name.—Rev. iii:8.

PHONY

While Edison is said to be discontinuing phonograph and record production and the Victor people are turning intensively to radio, another company has swept into the field and is establishing a national distribution service with a weekly circulation of 500,000 records at 15 cents each. And we thought universal peace and quietude were at hand!

TWIST OF WRIST

One scientist thinks the vacuum tube to have brought the greatest advance in radio. Another insists that the alternator is the greatest improvement. Yet a third believes the little gadget that enables you to choke it off by the twist of the wrist is the most satisfying. And some folks think there is no beneficence in science!

MAN-MADE MOUNTAINS

An engineer says that with a little more experience we may be able to construct a mountain in New York that will house a million people. Come to Los Angeles, brethren. The Santa Monica Mountains are already made and "every lot has a view." They run right through the heart of the town and can accommodate more than that number.

POINTS OF INTEREST

For the national park travel year closing September 30, visitors totaled 2,818,618, as against 2,680,597 the year before, or an increase of 138,021. Yosemite led all the rest with 458,566. Mt. Rainier, Wash., came next with 265,620. The Petrified Forest National Monument of Arizona was looked over by 105,433 visitors. This wonder spot entertained but 69,350 the year preceding. These are some of the reasons why Europe is whimpering over the loss of our innocents abroad. These are just losing their innocence and becoming sophisticated on superior home scenery.

CHANGE OF TAX

Over in England the motorists have been paying a tax amounting to $5 on each horsepower of their machines. With a big car this levy amounted to a fat sum. No wonder the Britons ran to small cars and developed so many of midget make. Now the Englishmen are seeing their mistake. There is virtually no big-car industry in the kingdom. Those who crave large cars and are able to pay get their motors in America. Now the Britons are going to change the plan of taxation. They are going to get the bulk of the revenue from the gasoline, as is done in this country. Then if they make larger cars there won't be so much kicking about it. The owner will pay as he rides and not as he buys.

EUGENE BROWN

A host of readers, who for the last twenty years have enjoyed the keen satire and merry badinage of Eugene Brown, one of our best known Pacific Coast fun makers, will share with The Times a deep sense of loss at the silencing of his witty, often brilliant and always wholesome pen. His laughter-provoking and good-humored digs at the foibles and inconsistencies of our modern society will be missed by every member of the great Times family.

The public that knew him only through his writings was unaware of the heroic efforts he put forth to amuse others, while he himself was a victim of sickness and suffering. For many months before his death Eugene Brown was bedridden. Day after day propped up with pillows, manipulating his typewriter painfully from a recumbent position, under conditions that would have incapacitated one of weaker mental fiber, he continued to contribute for others the smiles and laughter so tragically far removed from his own life.

The newspaper profession is proud to possess men and women of such indomitable spirit. When one of these passes on the loss would be irreparable did not every publisher know the same loyalty and pride of accomplishment will inspire the workman called to take his place. Eugene Brown belonged not to the old nor to the new school of journalism, but to the university of the invincible—the glory of whose graduates is to say that they endured to the end and died in harness.

FATHER AND SON

November 9 to 15 is Father and Son Week. The purpose of the promoters is to keep alive the very best in American home life for the growing boy; to encourage fathers to renew their interest and reconsecrate themselves to their paternal obligations; to lead sons to deeper respect and appreciation of their fathers; to advance the cause of world peace by creating among fathers and sons a spirit of Christian brotherhood.

Not many years ago the father was a sort of overlord. He roared around the house and ruled with iron hand. He created inhibitions in both the motherhood and childhood of the race. He had to be cajoled to be kindly. The rest of the family had to go into constant conference to outmaneuver him. The utmost ingenuity had to be employed to open his purse. Coalitions were formed between mother and son to outwit the big ogre. His whim was law. His morning started with a bad taste in his mouth and blood in his eye. He was not loved; he was feared. His footsteps resounded ominously. His religion breathed brimstone. His house was his castle. His wife and children were his slaves.

Some call those the good old days!

But the father who tramples upon the tendrils of affection in the family today is scarce. His thunder about the house has died away. Various societies against cruelty to children and animals have been formed to curb his more violent explosions.

Nobody thinks such a father looks majestic now—just disagreeable. Now dads play with their lads. Informality and frankness characterize the home. Boys are talking intimately with their fathers.

A recent graduating class of Yale was voted on the question, "What man in the world today do you most admire?" The majority said, "My father!"

Service clubs recall the father to his privileges; churches prepare banquets for father and son; the press shames both to a closer allegience. The unapproachable parent and the thoughtless boy are being brought together.

In the readjustment, the boy may be reckless in his new-found liberty and mistake it for license. In the interim between the disarmament of dad and being a brother to his boy, the youngster may not fully understand and go off on a tangent. But when he wakes up and finds it all reality and his dad not a policeman and judge, but a friend and counsellor, two in one, he will subside and become tractable and teachable. Self-control is enough better than parent control.

There is no mother and daughter week. It is not necessary. It is a fine commentary in that a demand for it does not exist. Mothers and daughters have always been confidantes. So neither feels neglected in not having a week to correct their shortcomings.

Father and Son Week is good as far as it goes but it should go fifty-one weeks farther.

POWER BUREAU INVESTIGATION

If the City Council undertakes a genuinely thorough investigation of the Power Bureau, as Councilmen have suggested, they will bring to light many facts and perhaps settle many controversies. If the investigation is merely of a political nature and intended as a whitewash, it had better not be started. Too much dust already has been thrown in the public eyes in this matter.

Councilman Cooke made one pregnant suggestion when he pointed out that the Power Bureau is making use, rent free, of a $2,000,000 building provided by the Water Bureau and for which water users are paying. It should be called to attention that there is a similar free use of the falling water in the aqueduct, for which a charge should be made in the interests of good accounting. There is a strong suspicion, which a genuine investigation could prove or disprove, that the whole set-up of the Power Bureau has been designed to put municipal electric ownership in the most favorable light possible, and that many capital expenditures which should have been charged to the electric account have, in fact, been made, indirectly at least, from water revenues or even the proceeds of water bond issues. The Power Bureau, of course, pays no taxes; Councilman Cooke points out that it pays no rent; it is known that it pays for no water. Are there other similar items? It would be interesting to know.

It is no disparagement of municipal ownership to say that it should stand on its own feet and not be protected from criticism by a juggling of the books. The power users and the water users are not the same in every case, and it is not fair to rob one to pay another.

DRIVE ON ILLITERACY

As chairman of the national advisory committee on illiteracy Secretary of the Interior Wilbur has appointed Vierling Kersey, California's Superintendent of Public Instruction as the head of a commission which will make a strong effort to eliminate illiteracy in this State.

California occupies a high position among the States in educational and cultural matters, and yet its record for illiteracy is one for which we should blush notwithstanding the cosmopolitan nature of much of our population, including the many who have come here from Asia and the poorer sections of Latin America. Without doubt many of these people should have been reached years ago and given to understand that education is obligatory upon their children and of the highest consequence to themselves. But ignorance of this sort in our State is not confined to those of foreign origin. According to census figures, there are 8747 native white illiterates in California. They are largely found in the mountain districts, a condition that is true of the Eastern and Southern States.

There are illiterates among us who cannot even read the simple traffic signs of "Stop" and "Go," and thus, where they are permitted to drive automobiles, they constitute a menace to the lives of other people as well as to themselves. The number that cannot even sign their names is legion.

Superintendent Kersey has been given a tremendous task, but if he can manage to whittle down our proportion of illiterates by 1 or 2 per cent he will have done good work, and if he can cut in two our total of more than 100,000 illiterates he will have made a high name for himself as an educator.

CRAB

The British army has developed a crab tank that can crawl sidewise out of shell holes. Since John Bull feels he is restrained by his peace pacts from going forward, and since he is too proud to go backward, he has decided to develop his armaments sidewise. This will save his face and protect his side whiskers.

A TIP TO WILL H. HAYS

By James J. Montague

Dear Mr. Hays: With some dismay
I read the tidings that you mean,
At some not very distant day,
To elevate the "speakie" screen.
In this no glint of hope I see;
In fact, it makes me rather sad,
Because the cinema, to me,
Is never good unless it's bad.

I know that, if you wield the lash
Of your authority, no doubt
You can eliminate the "pash"
And cut the virile rough stuff out.
So I'm alarmed, when you propose
That "speakie" authors shan't indite
The sort of knock-down-drag-out shows
That L. J. Carter used to write.

These were the dramas which beguiled
With thrilling scenes of love and crime
The sentimental little child
Which I was in a long past time.
Although perhaps they were not art
They drove my youthful cares away,
And it has cheered my aging heart
To see them on the screen today.

Pray, be not hasty, Mr. Hays,
The world still vibrates to a thrill,
And even in these "wise-guy" days
Folks love the good old bad stuff still.
When blood and thunder we behold
Our bosoms heave, our pulses stir,
These modern shows are bleak and cold;
We'd rather have them as they were.

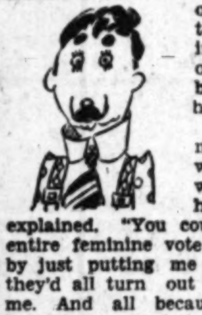
THE LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

FAITHFUL readers of this colyum may have wondered what has become of our old contributor, Adam Sinnick. We had lost track of him ourself. But yesterday he crept into our office, on crutches, to beg for a little human sympathy.



"I've gotten myself in bad with all the women who ever heard of me," he explained. "You could get out the entire feminine vote of the country by just putting me on the ballot—they'd all turn out to vote against me. And all because I tried to be helpful to one of them.

Big Business Ideas in the Home

"The trouble began," he continued, "shortly after I married. As you know, my regular job is that of efficiency expert. Cost-finding systems are my particular hobby. The first trouble came when I tried to get my wife to apply the principles of the cost-finding system to our family budget. The plan infuriated her at first. But she is a clever girl and soon found a way to turn it to advantage. She worked that cost-finding system just as a big corporation would when seeking grounds for increasing its rates. She soon proved conclusively, by her cost-finding system, that her allowance was only half enough.

The Overworked Housewife

"I raised the ante all I could, but couldn't let bad enough alone. I told my good wife that that cut me so short I would have to look to her to darn my socks and sew buttons on my shirts. A few days later I started to put on a pair of socks, and found a hole in one. Then I started to put on a fresh shirt and found two buttons off.

"I called attention to those things in a courteous yet businesslike way, and my wife explained that she had been so awfully busy she just hadn't been able to get to them. 'You simply can't imagine how busy I am,' she assured me.

Time Clocks for Wives

"From time to time she kept assuring me that I couldn't imagine how much work there was to do about a house like ours and that she really never had a minute's time to spare. So I thought it would be a great help to put a time clock in our house.

"'Punch it every time you start a job,' I instructed her, 'and then punch it again every time you finish one. That will show you just how long it takes you to cook breakfast, vacuum-clean the house, wash up dishes and do this and the other. It would be a shame for you to actually work more than eight hours a day, but only in this way can we find out just how many hours you do work. Of course, every time you sit down to read or go out to chat with a neighbor over the fence, or go to a club or entertain a caller or do anything like that you must punch time out on the clock. It is only by finding out precisely where the time is going that we can arrange a more efficient schedule.'

"A wicked gleam came into her eyes. 'I'll fix you and your old fault-finding system,' she exclaimed.

"'Not fault-finding,' I corrected. 'Yet I must concede that it is, in a way. In fact, every home ought to have a fault-finding system—a system which would find out what is the matter with it. But I am finding no fault with you, my dear. I am merely endeavoring to help you find out just where the fault in your schedule lies.'

Filling the Unforgiving Minute

"All through that first week she made that time clock total up more than eight hours a day of actual work. But she had to scrub floors, wash windows, wash curtains and do a lot of mending in order to do it. For ours is only a small apartment and we have no children.

"The second week she had to rewash curtains and windows which didn't need it in order to fill in the time, and then her daily average was only seven hours and fifty minutes.

"The third week the time-clock check-up showed an average of three hours a day spent in 'hemstitching tablecloths.' I protested that, as we already had more hemstitched tablecloths than we needed.

"'Look here!' she exclaimed, 'you're reducing me to slavery. When a woman can't go visiting or play bridge or attend a tea or a matinee or entertain a caller without punching time out on a clock, how can she get an eight-hour average unless she stitches tablecloths?'

Her Inspiration

"But I still protested, so the next week she took up story writing as a business occupation, planning to give from two to three hours a day to that.

"By that time our apartment was the spickest and spanest you ever saw. Everything which needed mending or dusting or fixing was shipshape. But after she'd been story writing a week the place looked awful. You could write your name on the mantel. There were cobwebs in the corners. The meals were haphazard. But the story was progressing wonderfully.

"She didn't let me see the story. She sent it away to a woman's magazine—and started to write another. But before the second was finished she got a telegram from the magazine. It read: 'Offer $600 for your story, "Wed to an Automaton." Most touching and poignant story we've seen for years. You have great gift. Want first choice of all your future work.'

"'There,' she said, when I had read it. 'That's what you have done for me. You are my inspiration. You are the automaton of whom I wrote. If that time-clock system of yours became general it would break up half the homes in town. What's a husband good for, if not to sympathize with you when you dramatize yourself, instead of subjecting all your statements to the time-clock test? Now I have a career I don't want such a hubby. Adam, I bid you farewell.'

"So that's the end of my romance," sighed Sinnick. "And all the women I know look on me as a dangerous man who ought to be locked up. Yet what have I done, I'd like to know?"

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

SHOULD FOLLOW MASSACHUSETTS

New York Herald-Tribune

In view of the widespread failure of criminal justice in this country and of the judiciary scandal in this city, Americans generally are beginning to ask themselves whether there is not something fundamentally at fault with our typical practice of electing judges to office. The Detroit News, for example, has recently made a study of the Massachusetts bench with a view to determining how much the appointive system in vogue there has contributed to its preeminence. It comes to the conclusion that the two are cause and effect, that the appointment of all judges for life has protected the courts of the Bay State from political pressure, added immeasurably to their dignity and developed in them a tradition of probity and learning which contrasts more favorably with conditions in Michigan and other States having the elective system.

Such findings are nothing new, but it is significant that they should now be getting journalistic support and publicity in a region hitherto wedded to the elective principle. Needless to say, they deserve our earnest consideration here in New York.

MODERN PIRATES

[Detroit Free Press]

Chicago seems to be doing the best it can with its campaign against "public enemies," and some of the boys who were strutting about the streets a few months ago as though they owned the town, are keeping out of sight. Still, sending thugs to prison as "vags" is only a slight palliative where flagrant lawlessness is concerned. It is not a cure. There will be no cure until public enemies are treated as they always were treated up to the time of the advent of the present age of mush and sentiment. Pirates were not driven from the seas by sending them to jail for a little while when they were caught.

SPEEDING CONGRESSMEN

[New York Herald-Tribune]

Life will be speeded up. Yet one would like to raise just one little question: However swift the future, shall we still be electing Congressmen at the beginning of November so that they can reach Washington in time for the opening session thirteen months later?

WORKS BOTH WAYS

[Topeka Capital]

Everybody says what goes up must come down, but nobody believes it. That was the trouble with the stock market last year. This year it is wheat, and nobody believes that what comes down must go up.

THE WASHINGTON WASH

BY STRICKLAND GILLILAN

Now that the results are known, so far as elections and defeats are concerned, it would be well to take some dispassionate views of things, on their merits, if any. We have been bughouse and haywire as long as is good for us. Sanity is dusting off her throne in order to protect the rear of her knickers, and preparing to be seated once more.

Facts may now be presented without campaign bias or a suspicion of their being considered propaganda.

One of the foolishnesses on which we were all more or less sold was and is the unemployment problem. Mr. Hoover, himself, is partly responsible for the excitement along this line, for he has so accentuated it through his work in publicly, openly lending to its solution every aid in his power. This is not the first administration that ever had a panic, but it is the first one that ever did anything active and concerted and continued and official to relieve the victims of such panic as it encountered. Bert acted as if it were the first panic the world had ever known, and bless his heart he went at it as if his and our lives depended on his immediate solution of the problem and his removal of all unfavorable conditions. He would. Every new parent thinks his children are the first ones. This is Mr. Hoover's first panic as our President, so it is the first one he has felt the imperative need of ameliorating. He has shouldered the responsibility for relief as if he were wholly responsible for the panic. He has not spared himself in the least. A key to this attitude of his is found in an answer he once made to a mutual friend who asked him:

After a long silence, he looked up and said:

"Feed all the hungry children in the world."

Swift & Co., I am privately told, had Whiting Williams (an authority on laboring people's conditions) make a survey of the present unemployment situation as compared with those that accompanied the Democratic panic of 1893 and the Republican one of 1907. The result of that survey was the discovery that in both the previous panics mentioned, there were more people unemployed than there are today and those unemployed were, on an average, less well fixed to stand the siege than the unemployed today are. There was no railroading and sidings for empty cars were at a premium.

Did anybody know enough to sound that note during the recent campaign? I didn't hear it. The Republicans missed as many bets as one set of men could have missed in a given length of time. I even believe they established a record. I am one of the gang, but they saw to it that I had no opportunity to assist them in their mistakes. Those who watched them mistaking, saw that they needed no help.

Of course one doesn't want to appear in the role of panic-minimizer. There is no unemployment situation that isn't serious. One employable man who can get no employment is a serious situation. Lots of men are proportionately more serious. But there has been a tendency to treat this unemployment situation as if it were the first and worst the world has known, when everybody knows it isn't. History will show it. History shows a lot of things, after there have been a certain number of years of unjust martyrdom for innocent goats. Vox populi becomes vox Dei only after it has been vox Satani for a few years. Vox populi waits about as many years as a boy does for the voice change.

The campaign that just ended developed one more superbuzzard—the author of "The Great Mistake." He signs his name Knox, and he does. It were well to pay one's respects to that diatribe tribe once and for all. It is wrong to call them buzzards, for buzzards are scavengers and leave a landscape cleaner after their loathsome meals. I apologize to the feathered variety. These fouler fowls leave the landscape infinitely worse. Too, the buzzard lifts himself and his fragrant load up into the azure and gets away with it all, once in a while. These human jackals stay right down with it; they are an earthbound type of carrion reveler. In only one respect they resemble a buzzard—they can scan a whole landscape of rose gardens and park and waving meadow, and never catch a whiff of new-mown hay or flower perfume, though a mile-distant dead chipmunk's olfactory allurement will reach them instantly and start them drooling. To attract them, a stench is necessary. They can look over the life of a human outstanding for kindess and gentleness and desire to help other humans, and find a blemish to write a thick, nasty book about. It doesn't have to be a big blemish; it doesn't even have to be a real blemish—just the rumor of a blemish is enough. The hyenas who dug up the pitiful dust of the gentle, friend-martyred Hardings and defiled them before scattering them to the four winds, are fair samples of the ghoul-de-luxe. And the slime-slinging defamer of our present President comes in the same category, though each should be ashamed of being in the class of the other. My vocabulary falls down in attempting to describe or characterize them. I know a lot of awful names that I once learned from an ox driver who hauled logs out of a swamp, but there isn't a skin-removing name in the lot, but that, if applied to one of these graveworms, would be a promotion. Ugh!

We have heard of nothing else that so arouses our sincere admiration as the undiluted gall of American manufacturers who speak of the wonderful standard of living among the laboring classes of this country, who spout eloquently about the dignity of American labor; who maintain that the best is none too good for the American workman; then sneak off to Europe to make their goods with the help of foreign labor and ship them into the country to compete with American-made goods, thus putting these highly-honored and pedestaled American laborers out of their jobs.

As if that alone were not enough to arouse our stupefied, goggle-eyed adulation, they gild the lily and paint the rainbow by coming here now to this town in a body to try to lower the tariff so that they can make a still bigger profit on their foreign-manufactured American-labor-robbing goods.

They make one think of the fellow who went into a New York restaurant, sat in one of the restaurant's chairs, accepted the restaurant's napkin from a waiter, drank the restaurant's free ice water, then pulled out his own home-made sandwich and began eating it. Before the waiter could get breath enough to protest, the "customer" looked up and asked querulously?

A STRANGE AWARD

BY BAILEY MILLARD

Sinclair Lewis has been awarded the first Nobel prize ever bestowed upon an American author, and the award is for his novel "Babbitt"! The "intelligentsia" will applaud, for they love all the literature that sneers at Americans, and "Babbitt," the story of "the typical American," is a sneer from beginning to end at the worthy business men of this country.

But even to those who do not much resent the oft-repeated statement that Babbitt, the booster, is a representative American and who take the rather pathetic story of his cheap, frustrated life for what it is worth, "Babbitt" is of little literary interest. For while it is an exceedingly clever piece of photography, it is so long-winded, full of common places and repetitions and so drearily sordid and inconclusive as to make one wonder what the Nobel committee could have seen in it to put it forward as a prize-winning novel.

Was it because the vulgar hero was really regarded by the judges as truly representative of us Americans? Are we looked upon in Europe as a nation of Babbitts? Or did the judges conscientiously apply literary standards of their own?

What standards? Judging by the text of "Babbitt," I should say they were those of the Russian school. It is clear that that school has captured the imagination of many of our own writers, among them Dreiser and Lewis. Both these writers have used the literary camera to fine advantage, as far as it goes, but between their products and that of a great romantic artist like Stevenson there is the same difference that lies between a good photograph and a Millet painting.

Neither Booth Tarkington nor Edith Wharton, our greatest living writers of fiction, has gone over to the Russians and probably never will. And I submit that as a work of literary art either Tarkington's "Turmoil" or his "Midlander" or "Plutocrat" is far greater than any novel Lewis ever wrote, though his "Mantrap" has essentially romantic features, and if a prize were to go to him for anything he has done it might go for that. But the fact that "Elmer Gantry" and "Arrowsmith," both of which acridly satirize Americans and their institutions, are praised by the Nobel judges indicates that they regard the exposition of our less admirable traits and tendencies as more worthy of reward than those of the opposite sort. Of course, art is art, and it is permitted to find subject material anywhere, but it is not art if it be wholly devoid of inspiration.

As for Mrs. Wharton, to whom, oddly enough, "Babbitt" is dedicated, she can write all around Lewis. Her "Hudson River Bracketed," far-fetched as is the title and disappointing the hero's labors, is a far greater work of art than the author of "Babbitt" is capable of producing.

This Nobel award to Lewis for "Babbitt" doubtless will cause many Europeans who never heard of the book before to read it now. As they peruse it, how they will laugh at us!

Wales Observes Office Hours

The Prince of Wales has been observing office hours strictly at his estate office in London just behind Wellington Barracks, where he holds extended conferences with those responsible for his estates. They make reports and he makes suggestions. After dinner he usually attends one of the neighboring theaters.

CHAMBER ADDS TRADE EXPERT

Domestic Business Staff Increased to Three

New Markets to Be Sought for Local Goods

Ware Joins Department to Expand Service

W. L. WARE

To make possible further development of the organization's drive to create new market outlets for goods manufactured in this county and to increase reciprocal trade activity in western States, the Chamber of Commerce has added another trade commissioner to its staff of the domestic trade department, Secretary-Manager A. G. Arnoll announced yesterday.

The addition of the new commissioner makes a total of three men in the domestic trade department, working under the direction of E. F. MacDonough, manager, who are covering the territory of the western States as a service to manufacturers and jobbers in this area.

CHICAGO MEN ADDED

W. L. Ware, formerly trade commissioner of the Chicago Association of Commerce and with a background of many years of practical experience in this type of work, is the new man added to the department. In Chicago, Mr. Ware organized and developed the Interstate Merchants' Council, representing 3000 stores.

In addition to his experience in developing trade territory in the vicinity of Chicago and New York, he served as director of merchandise and advertising manager of the Hart publications of Chicago and New York and later merchandise editor of the Dry Goods Reporter, Chicago.

AID TO BUSINESS

"The surveys and reports of our domestic trade commissioners, who are constantly in the field, have received such favorable commendation that we are intensifying our effort in this direction, realizing that this work is highly important at the present time as an aid to better business conditions and unemployment," Arnoll said yesterday.

"The domestic trade department receives numerous letters from manufacturers and jobbers here, telling of contacts which they have established through material furnished by our commissioners, and the cities of the western States are becoming more friendly since they have learned that our offers of assistance in finding markets here for their raw products was not merely a gesture. We have the facts which prove that our consumers are drawing from the market basket of the West in increasing quantity, largely in appreciation for the reception which they are giving our manufactured material and goods distributed from this center."

ADDITIONAL EXPERTS TO ATTEND COUNCIL

Hereafter a representative of the Bureau of Budget and Efficiency and a representative of the Department of Public Utilities and Transportation will be present at City Council sessions while committee reports and ordinances are under consideration, the Council having adopted a report of the Finance Committee to that effect. At present representatives of the Bureau of Engineering and the City Attorney's office are present.

AMATEUR AIR PILOT CROWNED

James Brown Wins Title in Tests as Other Flyers Prepare to Protest

Despite protests expected to be filed by other pilots, James Barton, Hollywood amateur flyer, emerged with enough points yesterday afternoon at Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport, to claim the title of champion in the western amateur flying tournament.

Barton finished yesterday's meet, the last of three, with a score of 22 points after competing in a total of seven races and three precision landing contests.

He was followed closely in total point scoring by B. E. Alvord of Glendale, and W. L. Graves of La Canada. These two, and Jack Barstow, gliding champion of San Diego, are expected to be among those to file protests.

It was asserted by participating pilots that in the absence of Edgar C. Anderson, chairman of the technical committee in charge of the events, handicap scoring in the races was not correct. It is pointed out, however, that Barton cannot lose first place. The protests may change the order of other place winners, not officially announced.

KILLING THREAT CHARGED

Policemen were desired by her husband to witness a killing he promised, complained Mrs. Helen Messerer in winning a divorce on file yesterday in Superior Judge Tappaan's court. She said she married Joseph R. Messerer August 5, 1927, and that they parted June 4, last. "Last June he came home intoxicated," asserted Mrs. Messerer. "He announced he would kill me and called the police, saying he wanted them present when he killed me. Policemen came to our home, greatly to my humiliation."

For Normal Girlhood

"My daughter Magdalen did not seem to develop as she should. At times she had no pep at all and couldn't get her school work very easily. For four years we doctored her off and on. Then a friend told us how much Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her years ago, so I got a bottle for Magdalen. Her nerves are quieting, her general health is better and she is now as normal as other girls."—Mrs. J. Bartholdi, Thompson's Addition, The Dalles, Oregon.

Chrysanthemums and roses in rich fall tones of yellow, deepening into the tomato shades, were used in the centerpiece of the tea table, the same tones having been chosen by the bride-elect for her wedding motif.

Visiting Here

One of the most charming visitors in Los Angeles this month is Miss Esther Ehrman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Ehrman of San Francisco, who is making an extended sojourn as house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jewett Schweppe in their apartments at the Biltmore.

Jacob George Reynolds, U.S.A., and Mrs. Neva Witt (Louise Durham,) who has just arrived from New York to make her home here. Golden, brown and russet hues were combined in a profusion of lovely fall blossoms decorating the tea table and yellow candles added a soft glow to the setting. An attractive frock of brown chiffon was chosen by the bride and with it she wore a hat and slippers of harmonizing tones. She carried an armful of yellow roses. Mrs. Fuller was in brown crepe with matching slippers and her flowers were golden chrysanthemums. A buffet supper for a score of service friends followed at the Fuller quarters.

Much too Much

Take a look at the tops of your bureau and dressing table and see if they have too many things on them, presenting a cluttered appearance. Too many articles, no matter how handsome, will spoil the effect of the room by making it appear cluttered and upset. Besides, it's not fashionable.

Clean Wall Paper

There will be no marks on your wall paper from collected dust on the backs of pictures if each frame has two rubber-headed tacks on the back, thus holding the frame away from the paper. However, in these times of few pictures, it takes very little more time to include picture cleaning when doing the room. Then you know there can be no soil from the frames.

BRIDE HONORED AT RECEPTION

Was Married Last July in France

[Maryland studio, Pasadena]

Mrs. Giles Gilbert

MRS. PAGE MORRIS and Mrs. Mary Beaumont Statham, grandmother and grand-aunt, respectively, of Giles Gilbert, professor in the college of music, University of Southern California, were hostesses at a smartly appointed reception last Saturday in Mrs. Morris's new home in Vista del Arroyo, Pasadena, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert (Claire Benoist,) who were married last July in Cannes, France.

The affair marked the first appearance of Mrs. Gilbert in Southland society.

MODES OF THE MOMENT

by Honore Booth

FASHION EXPERT OF HARPER'S BAZAAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. (Exclusive) New York's winter social season was officially opened with the opening of the doors of the Metropolitan Opera House. All society was there in its best bib and tucker and in its full regalia of jewels. It was interesting to note the shift in the color spectrum, which has been accomplished in the past year. Black, so little seen last autumn for the most formal occasions, was definitely in the ascendency. White was almost as popular. There were reds, tending to be on the orange or flame tones, shading to their pastel equivalents and peach. Blue of the turquoise family made splashes of dramatic color against the red hangings.

Transparent velvets fell in fluid lines to the floor. Taffeta made many a picturesque crisp frock of the period sort. There was little lace compared to the past season. Crepe backed satins in pastel shades were much worn and very flattering they are to the mature figure. Lames appeared in wraps rather than gowns. Ermine still holds its high place as the foremost evening fur and was seen over the backs of many seats.

FANS THAT WAVE AT NIGHT

Fans, which have been threatening for some time to make a reappearance, were definitely in favor. Long, uncurled ostrich fronds dripped, like weeping willows, over the sides of boxes. Slippers and accessories matched them. And very charming they looked with the recapitulated modes of yesteryear. It is all of a piece with long dresses and curls clustering behind the ears. It was a revelation to see the women coming up the staircase at the opera, holding up their trailing gowns. The whole technique of the proper way to keep yourself from tumbling precipitously up the stairs will have to be gone into as thoroughly as it was in Godey's Ladies Book.

TWO IMPORTANT COSTUMES

Still more interesting was an ensemble, beautiful in its line and its detail. A black velvet dress of utter simplicity was made with exquisite lines. The decolletage was high in the front, low in the back; a long panel in the back made a slight train. Coral moire sandals were worn over the thinest of black stockings. A coral bag was quilted. Jewelry: Enormous earrings and a matching pendant of coral, onyx and crystal, very modern indeed. Long black suede gloves, matching diamond bracelets worn one on each wrist. A huge black chiffon handkerchief with a coral colored monogram. The wrap was a sable cape reaching only to the waist.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

Every Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

SALMON SOUFFLE

Mix two cupfuls of boned and flaked cooked salmon with two cupfuls of mashed potatoes, one cupful of milk, a seasoning of salt, paprika and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley. Beat two eggs and add to the mixture. Butter a baking dish, and set in the oven until heated, beat the yolks of two eggs until light and lemon colored with half a teaspoonful of salt. Beat the whites of the two eggs stiff and add to them one-quarter of a teaspoonful of paprika. Combine the two egg mixtures by folding the whites into the yolks. Pour the fish mixture into the heated dish and cover with the egg. Place in the oven to brown.

BRAN COOKIES

Beat one-third of a cupful of butter to a cream, and beat into it one cupful of honey. Beat until smooth, then add one well-beaten egg, four tablespoonfuls of milk, one and one-half cupfuls of wholewheat flour, sifted with two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, half a teaspoonful of mace and half a teaspoonful of salt. Work to a smooth dough, then add two-thirds of a cupful of bran. Roll out on a floured board, cut, place on a baking sheet one-half inch apart and bake in a moderate oven.

BOILED APPLE DUMPLINGS

Boil one and one-half cupfuls of sugar with one and one-half cupfuls of water for three minutes, peel and core six apples; cook the apples slowly in the syrup until tender, but not broken, turning them often while cooking. Sift two and a quarter cupfuls of sifted flour with one and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one-third of a teaspoonful of salt; chop into the mixture nine level tablespoonfuls of shortening and work to a stiff dough with about one-third of a cupful of ice water. Divide the dough after rolling out into six even-sized pieces. Place a cooked apple in the center of each round, sprinkle with cinnamon, pour over a little of the syrup, dot with bits of butter, and fold the dough around the apples. Pinch together, prick the tops with a fork and place them upside down in a buttered baking dish. Bake for fifteen minutes in a hot oven and serve hot with a hard sauce or cream.

BOMBAY EGGPLANT

Cut the top off an unpeeled egg plant, and cut in half lengthwise, remove the pulp, leaving about an eighth of an inch all around to protect the skin. Chop the pulp fine, add to it one small green pepper chopped, one-third of a cupful of finely chopped celery, and three tomatoes, cut in small pieces, add a cupful of bread crumbs, a seasoning of salt and paprika, and two tablespoonfuls of finely grated cheese. If possible, add a tablespoonful of chutney syrup, fill the eggplant shells with the mixture, place in a well-buttered baking dish, add to the dish one cupful of vegetable or soup stock and bake until tender about thirty minutes. Serve with a tomato sauce.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORNTON W. BURGESS

THE END OF THE HUNT

Hope and courage strength will lend
To bring you safely to the end.
—Bobby Coon.

Bobby ought to know. He has had occasion to prove the truth of this little saying more than once. If he had not clung to hope and had the courage to keep on doing his best he would have lost his life long ago. Quitting is a word Bobby doesn't know the meaning of.

So it was that Bobby didn't once think of giving up that night when the hunters were after him, with a dog barking on his trail, a dog he could not fool by any trick, and no place of safety near enough for him to reach. That is, there was no place that he could think of. Still he clung to hope and had the courage to keep on running even when he was so tired and so out of breath that it seemed to him that he must stop. And then all in a flash it came to him that there was a place of safety, just one place where he could be where the dog and the hunters could not get him. He hadn't thought of it before because he never had had occasion to make use of it before.

When he did think of it he was near the edge of the Green Forest beyond which was the Old Orchard. New strength came to him and his tired legs began to move faster than before.

"I'll fool them. I'll fool them," he kept saying over and over to himself. "Yes, sir, I'll fool them. Oh, dear, why didn't I think of this before! But I'll get there. I must get there and I will."

Straight through the Old Orchard ran Bobby Coon. He was panting for breath and there was a pain in his side. That dog was gaining. Yes, sir, he certainly was gaining. Bobby could tell that by the sound of the dog's voice. You see, that dog wasn't fat and heavy as Bobby Coon was. He was in splendid condition for running. He was neither tired nor out of breath. He knew that he was gaining and there was increasing excitement and eagerness in his barking. He felt sure that in a few minutes he would catch Bobby.

Straight through the Old Orchard ran Bobby. Over the old stone wall into Farmer Brown's dooryard he scrambled. Where do you think he headed for then? Straight for Farmer Brown's woodshed at the back of the house! He was making for that cat hole in the shed through which he and Jimmy Skunk had entered so often to get their dinner. It seemed to Bobby that he just couldn't run another step, but he gritted his teeth and kept on. He was almost to that hole now and that dog was almost at his heels. He wasn't barking now. He was running with all his might for he was sure of catching Bobby in a minute or so.

And then Bobby disappeared. He had squeezed through that cat hole and was safe inside Farmer Brown's shed. That hole was too small for the dog to get through. Bobby scrambled on a pile of wood in the farthest corner and there he gasped for breath and trembled with weakness, so tired that it seemed to him that he couldn't ever lift a paw again. His heart was thumping as if it were trying to thump its way out through his side. Despite this Bobby grinned. Outside that dog was barking as if he would bark his head off. Every now and then he would thrust his head in at that hole, but that was all he could do.

Suddenly there was the sound of another voice, a deep voice that Bobby recognized. It was the voice of Bowser the Hound, and there was anger in that voice. Then there was such a snarling and growling and yelping as only two dogs in a fight can make. Bowser, who had come out from his little house over by the barn to see what was going on, had jumped on that other dog for daring to come into that yard uninvited.

In a few minutes Bobby heard the hunters trying to rescue their dog, and he grinned again. Presently he heard them hurry away, taking their dog with them. They were grumbling, for they were sorely disappointed. Their hunt was ended and Bobby was safe. They had no intention of being caught there by the return of Farmer Brown or Farmer Brown's Boy. Bobby drew a long breath and then settled down to rest.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

RULES FOR GAIN NOT APPLICABLE TO UNUSUAL BABY

Some of the well-known and glibly repeated "rules" about children often lead to misunderstanding. The supposed rule that a baby doubles his birth weight at five months and triples it at one year is really applicable only to the average baby who weighs about seven pounds at birth. Thus, the "rule" applies with these babies who make the normal weekly gain, but it does not apply to babies who weigh much above or below seven pounds at birth.

Regardless of his birth weight, there is no reason to expect that the baby will make much more than the average weekly gain. His average gain will be from seven to eight pounds the first five months. In the case of the seven-pound baby this brings him to fourteen pounds or twice his birth weight. It brings the baby who weighs ten pounds at birth to a weight of seventeen or eighteen pounds, and does not double his birth weight. The next seven months he will gain from seven to seven and one-half pounds, bringing the seven-pound baby to twenty-one pounds and our ten-pound baby to twenty-five and one-half pounds.

DEVELOPMENT AT THIRTEEN MONTHS

Does this answer your question clearly, Mrs. H. W.? For your benefit I am appending below a picture of the usual thirteen-months-old child. This is discussed also in our leaflet, "Mental and Physical Development from Birth to One Year," which may be secured by any interested reader for the usual self-addressed, stamped envelope sent with your request to the "Your Baby and Mine" department of this newspaper.

The thirteen-months-old baby should be a very definite stage of development. He has dropped all the habits of the first year and is practicing all the new ones of the second year. He is certainly creeping and probably walking if his mother has been wise enough to put him on the floor. He does not learn this by being strapped all day in a high chair or a walk contrivance, but by placing him in a playpen and giving him the opportunity to learn balance by his efforts to walk about the inclosure.

NEW HABITS

He will say at least five words. He will have six teeth. He will be feeding himself with a spoon and drinking all of his milk from a cup. If he is not doing these things, it is a sad indictment of his mother's modernity. Any mother who will stop and think about it, cannot fail to realize that babies have to learn new habits in order to progress both physically and mentally. The child from ten months on is capable of mastering the habits of cup drinking and self-feeding if given a chance to practice them.

The thirteen-months-old baby will probably have only one long nap daily in the middle of the day, instead of one in the morning and one in the afternoon. For five months, perhaps, he will not be dry, but he will be receiving training along that line and will be refraining from soiling himself.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

THE "COLD" DAYS ARE COMING

A cold in the head is the most common acute disease known to civilized man. You would find it more difficult to find an adult who had never had a cold than it was for Diogenes to find an honest man. It has been estimated that only fifteen out of a hundred people are lucky enough to have only one cold a year. The other eighty-five have two or more.

Colds become prevalent right after the start of the school season, keep on through the fall, and suddenly become widespread right after the overfeeding of the holiday seasons. The first stage of the cold is the dry congested swollen mucus membranes. The second stage is when the mucus membrane suddenly becomes moist with free discharge of mucus.

Everyone is familiar with the symptoms of a cold, the burning or itching sensation of the nose, sneezing and a watery fluid thrown out in great quantities. The eyes are reddened, the nose stopped up, the back of the throat is raw, and cold air causes stinging, and a hoarseness is noted. In the influenza type a dull throbbing ache in the head and limbs may accompany the cold. As the cold becomes worse, the end of the nose becomes red and tender, the sinuses may ache and the whole head feels hot and heavy. There may be a slight fever and chilly sensations. The nostrils may become stopped up until it is difficult to breathe. The discharge of mucus from the nose becomes thicker. The lymph glands along the jaws are often swollen and tender. The ears may seem full, the tongue coated, the breath foul, the voice thickened. The patient may have an annoying cough, especially in those prone to bronchitis.

Some people always have a sore throat or tonsil trouble with a cold. With some people the cold stays principally in the head; in others the chest is more affected. An ordinary cold lasts about a week and is a self-limited disease.

Many people will tell you they caught a cold from sitting in a draft or getting wet feet, or from forgetting their winter underwear, but I am convinced there are only two main causes of colds. A cold develops because of fatigue and overeating and although colds may be caught, those catching them must have the proper conditions in which the bacteria can develop. These conditions are dependent upon enervation and wrong feeding. Those who become fatigued by mental overwork, worry, anger or the nerve-racking exhaustion of shopping develop colds because they are too enervated to properly carry on the necessary elimination of toxins through the lungs, kidneys, liver and bowels.

To avoid winter colds, eat less starch and avoid such heavy desserts as mince pie, plum pudding and fruit cake. Eat plenty of vegetables, using canned ones for variety. Get plenty of sleep and sufficient exercise. Take walks out of doors and inhale fresh air into your lungs. Men who work out of doors in all kinds of winter weather have fewer colds than those who are protected in cold weather. Do not coddle yourself with heavy underwear. Use medium weight and supplement it with a sweater or overcoat if you are going out into the cold.

A Dainty Touch

One housewife who packs a number of lunches for members of the family bakes her cup cakes in the little fluted paper cases that can be bought at the 5 and 10-cent store. She inserts each case in a compartment of the gem pans, greases the inside and pours in her batter. The little fluted edges look very attractive in the lunch kit.

Once in a While

Every so often instead of using soap and water on windows, try using a cloth dipped in ammonia and whiting and then polish with a chamois. They will sparkle.

EXOTIC STAR; EXOTIC PLAY

"Bird of Flame" Features Dorothy Burgess

Efforts of Leading Actress Win Approval

South Seas Setting Primary Allure in Stage Piece

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Milady of the South Seas emerges again in the play. She exhibits her facility for quaintly mispronouncing words, and charmingly misconstruing ideas. She is glad to become the sacrificial heroine, and to permit the white man she loves to return to his erstwhile fiancee. She can be fiery and tempestuous, threatening death and mischief, and she adds the lure of the temptress to her other qualifications for being interesting.

Ergo (if an ergo be necessary) "The Bird of the Flame" is just what you might expect of an "exotic drama of the South Seas." But after all, the stage play with the hula dance, tum-tuming music, and a vivid tropic storm isn't visible so often nowadays, and there is perhaps some special justification for the footlight piece by John B. Hymer and LeRoy Clemens, owing to the presence of Dorothy Burgess of local "Lulu Belle" fame.

"The Bird of the Flame" opened its engagement last evening, and Miss Burgess achieved a pleasing impression by her personal efforts. That she works diligently in the play goes unquestioned. Where the brightness of the lines fails—and it does fail frequently—she succeeds in emphasizing the personality of the role, and whenever opportunity affords she is both whimsical and delightful. A situation here and there she stresses too broadly perhaps, but summed up her impersonation is very inspiritingly contrived.

The play itself seems rather antedated and outworn in both dialogue and plot. It was originally known as "Aloma of the South Seas," but has been revised for the present production. However, it could have been brought more up-to-date.

The best, as things stand, are the general atmosphere, the latitude granted for enticing settings, and the comedy mood of some of the scenes. Belasco and Curran and Lou C. Wiswell have done well in their staging, and the storm is realistic enough to lend a thrill. It really far overshadows the threats and dangers that seem to menace the characters at the end of the second act, for such David-Belascoesque scenic effects are invoked. I always have approved good stage storms.

The cohorts of Miss Burgess in the interpretation of the play include Bramwell Fletcher and Robert Frazer. She is enamored of the former, but barriers of race, or rather shall one say, geography, intervene.

Frazer enacts a native pearl fisher, and administers the destiny that permits Fletcher to wed the woman he loves by allowing her husband to be eaten by the sharks. He has had a considerable experience in furnishing the service of meals to the tropical gourmands, having fed them most of the swains who evidenced too much ardency for his native sweetheart.

As you may gather, there is the old familiar conflict of the primitive and the civilized.

Fletcher and Frazer both achieve favor in their portrayals, Fletcher being excellent in his enacting of the drink-ridden figure of the first act. Frazer is rather at home in a role of the native type, as he has done several to my recollection in pictures. Others commendable are Mattie Edwards, Bruno Barnabe, Robert Keith, "Jimmy" Burtis, Evelyne Humes and Barbara Jo Allen. One might call special attention to Barnabe for the note of comedy which he brought to his role. Others in the ample cast are Robert E. Homans and Raymond Lawrence. Keith gives zest to a caddish role.

VINE STREET OFFERS NEW MELODRAMA

"Green Bottle," by John T. Murray, Due for Run in Hollywood Tonight

Promise of a new assortment of thrills, comedy and romance is given theatergoers tonight in the first presentation of "The Green Bottle," mystery melodrama, at the Vine-street Theater. The play was written by John T. Murray in collaboration with Ernest Young.

According to present indications, a large number of screen and stage folk will turn out for the premiere in tribute to Murray, who is widely known to the films and footlights.

Numbered in the cast are Oscar Apfel, Nita Cavalier, Al Bridge, Frances Morris, Arnold Gray, Gordon De Main, Buddy Clark and Wing Kong. The story centers about a bottle of jade.

The drama offers Chinese, South American, English and American characters in colorful backgrounds, it is said.

Variety Star to Officiate at Preview

William Desmond, who was a star in numerous western silent films before going on the vaudeville stage, is to be the guest master of ceremonies for tonight's variety preview program at the R.-K.-O. Theater.

Currently on the screen is "Today," a story of a young capitalist and his beautiful wife, who are reduced to poverty through a crash of the stock market. The girl is played by Catherine Dale Owen, and the husband by Conrad Nagel. Sarah Padden has the chief character role.

Farce Approaches Theater Record

John Litel, Sally Starr and Charlotte Greenwood
In a scene from "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," which is now in its eighth week at El Capitan. The run will be extended two more weeks. Miss Greenwood holds the present house mark at thirteen weeks.

CIRCLE BOOKS NEW FILM

"Min and Bill," with Marie Dressler and Wallace Berry, will be seen at the Carthay Circle Theater, starting Thursday, the 20th inst.

"America's New Sweethearts," as the pair are now termed, are seen for their first time together in a talking film. Both have reached new heights since the advent of dialogue in films. Although it is hard to conceive that the names of the stars, as well as the title, could spell anything but comedy, M.-G.-M. and Director George Hill are said to have turned out a classic of pathos and drama that will live longer for its humanness than for its comedy.

Marie Dressler, most noted for her characterization in "Anna Christie," "Caught Short" and "Let Us be Gay," is being acclaimed for her masterful role as Min. Beery is also said to contribute a fine portrayal.

"Min and Bill" was adapted from the late Lorna Moon's novel, "Dark Star," by Frances Marion. In the supporting cast are Marjorie Rambeau and Dorothy Jordan.

GIESEKING TRIUMPHS AT PIANO

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Walter Gieseking played over the long range of piano music from Bach to Ravel for two hours and a half at the Philharmonic Auditorium yesterday afternoon and left the audience of thousands of pianists and potential pianists begging vociferously for more. He is one of the miracles of the concert world. Tall, bald, intensely intellectual and one of the great masters of technic, he recreates the work of past and present composers with emotional warmth and spiritual inspiration.

Beginning with Bach and playing it with the clean clarity and delicate delineation of each phrase as Gieseking did, the Partita in B flat amounts to a declaration of faith. Three short sonatas of Scarlatti's made one wish to go back to that fair day when fine melody was the every-day accomplishment of fine ladies and gentlemen. The sonatas were followed by another Scarlatti, the one in E major, as an encore. The four made a group memorable for taste and exquisite polish.

Beethoven's C minor sonata was revealed in full majesty. Gieseking refrains from thunder. There was no wild fury of sound. All was music—as much the music of Gieseking as of Beethoven, possibly, but great music for all that. Generously giving, he played a familiar Brahms Intermezzo as an encore after the tremendous effort of the Beethoven. Gieseking's Brahms was different than the accepted interpretation, but it held a new beauty.

And so this remarkable concert went on through the Schumann Symphonic Etudes, which closely approach the grandeur and the poetry of orchestral writing, and Gieseking was at one with Schumann.

To put his audience in the rarefied atmosphere of the Debussy group which was programmed, the pianist played the "Sunken Cathedral" as an encore to the Schumann. One found a definite connection between Schumann and the modern French poet, Debussy. "The Reflections in the Water," "Golden Fishes" and Ravel's similar "Ondine" evoked overtones from an ethereal world. Romance, mystery and charm flowed from under those powerful, sensitive fingers, and a vast audience sat entranced.

It was the end of the listed program but no one moved to go home. Again and again the artist came back and played. First came the Serenade by Richard Strauss, then the "Golliwog Cake-walk" (Debussy;) Liszt's Rhapsodie No. 8, and finally the "Serenade for the Doll" as a last Debussyan gesture.

It is seldom that one sees the well-known pianists in this town gathered together for any concert, as occurred yesterday. There were two reasons. One was that Gieseking is a super-pianist, and the other that it was Sunday afternoon. The lobby buzzed with excitement and appreciation during intermission. Here, at last, was a man to make even pianists and music reviewers humble. He will play at the Town House today at 11 a.m.

MELODRAMA IN SPANISH PRESENTED

BY SALVADOR BAGUEZ

Since the outset of audible films the Paramount company has been slowly but surely developing the quality of its Spanish pictures, both here and abroad. This is plainly demonstrated by the film, "El Secreto del Doctor," current at the California International Theater, which was produced in the company's Joinville studios, near Paris.

Taken from the play, "The Doctor's Secret," by Sir James M. Barrie, it helps to introduce to picture audiences that charming and talented actress, Eugenia Zuffoli, who has long been a favorite of the Spanish-speaking stage.

There has always existed a sort of competition between the motion-picture cameramen of Europe and those of America, with the latter always showing a marked superiority, and such is the case with the photography of this picture, which is lacking in clearness as compared with local productions.

However, poor photography, inadequate direction and the fact that the beginning is somewhat tiresome do not detract in the least from the film's absorbing story that gradually gains in momentum until it reaches a very pleasing finish. The story is a familiar one and is well remembered for the performance of Ruth Chatterton in the English version, produced some time ago. It was her excellent work in this picture that led Paramount to give her a long-term contract.

Senora Zuffoli, brings that same charm and finesse to this, her initial role before the camera, and should increase the popularity that has been hers on the stage. Felix de Pomes, Antonia D'Algy and others in the supporting cast do commendable work. The adaptation was done by Camilo Aldao, and Adelqui Miller directed.

The remainder of the program is featured by the fine singing of Roberto Guzman, whose vivid presentation of "La Paloma," a Warner Brothers natural color short, should please. An M.-G.-M. dog comedy and newsreel complete the bill.

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

WHEN a Hollywood audience is enthusiastic, it makes that fact known in no uncertain terms.

One of the most appreciative groups seen in the theater this season came to the Vine Street Theater last evening and applauded roundly the appearance and the words of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, famous English actress.

Mrs. Campbell, distinguished in appearance, charming in manner and with certain definite things to say, talked on "Beautiful Speech and the Art of Acting." She illustrated her talk with scenes from "Lady Macbeth," "Pelleas and Melisande," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "Magda," "Pygmalion," certain poems and others of her plays.

Last night's appearance was her second upon the Vine Street rostrum. She is soon to return in Ibsen's "Ghosts."

Romberg-Harbach Operetta Coming

One of this department's most sharp-eared scouts brought the news last night that a local production of the Sigmund Romberg - Otto Harbach operetta, "Nina Rosa," is imminent.

Lee Ephraim, producer of "On the Spot," now in New York, is supposed to be in Hollywood for the announced purpose of seeking a prima donna for the London production. Meanwhile, it is said, he may do something about placing "Nina Rosa" before the Hollywood and Los Angeles crowd of theatergoers.

It is known that Robert Chisholm has been assigned an important role in whatever production—Hollywood or London—is done first.

New York Tryout in Pasadena

In December, there will be presented on its stage a new drama called "Spring Song" by Bella Spewack (known in some circles as Bella Cohen.) It is about mother love and rebellious daughters.

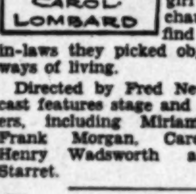
Woolsey Musical on Broadway

Robert Woolsey, who used to call New York home, but whom Hollywood now thinks as one of the local citizenry, has a musical show about to be produced on Broadway.

He wrote it with Edward Clark Lilley a couple of seasons ago, but it is just arriving in New York. Blanche Ring, Jack Hazzard and Betty Compton are to be in the cast.

'Fast and Loose' Booked as Next Paramount Film



CAROL LOMBARD

"Fast and Loose," taken from Avery Hopwood's farce, "Best People," will have its western premiere at the Paramount Theater Thursday, in conjunction with an eastern stage show.

"Fast and Loose" is the story of the doings of the younger generation. Two children of a wealthy family fall in love with a chorus girl and a chauffeur, and find that the in-laws they picked object to their ways of living.

Directed by Fred Newmeyer, the cast features stage and screen players, including Miriam Hopkins, Frank Morgan, Carol Lombard, Henry Wadsworth and Charles Starret.

Baxter Stars in New Film

Warner Baxter's new film vehicle, "Renegades," has been selected as the picture to celebrate anniversary week at Loew's State Theater, starting Thursday.

In his new role as a soldier of the Foreign Legion Baxter is said to greatly enhance the popularity which he has built up with "In Old Arizona" and "The Arizona Kid."

Myrna Loy has the leading feminine role and Noah Beery, Gregory Gaye, George Cooper, C. Henry Gordin, Colin Chase and Bela Lugosi are prominent in the supporting cast. Victor Fleming directed.

Our Business Was Never Better
WHY
Because they are very successful. One man made $3000 last month. Several made over $1000 last month. Many made over $500 last month.
BECAUSE THEY DO NOT HAVE TO FIND A NEW CUSTOMER EVERY TIME THEY MADE A SALE.
BECAUSE we can give them leads.
BECAUSE we train them thoroughly.
BECAUSE we have a very small turnover. Some of our men have been with us four years.
BECAUSE we have opened 4 branches in the last 6 months, and can give them plenty of opportunities for advancement.
BECAUSE when they make a sale they make a friend for life.

COURT AWAITS SHULERITES

Two Youths Face Trial Today on Cruelty Charge as Result of Asserted Attack on Dog

Accused of cruelty to animals by beating a dog nearly to death with a hatchet and shovel, E. E. Wall and Melvin Addington, members of Trinity Methodist Church, are scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Curtis today for trial. Wall is the son of Rev. R. P. Shuler's associate pastor and Addington is a ministerial student in the church.

Shuler broadcast a protest against the arrest of the two youths on the charge some time ago, adding that he would "have something to say about this Humane Society later." Humane Officer Lee arrested Wall and Addington on complaint of Mrs. Connie Williams, 1226 East Twenty-second street, owner of the dog. Reaching Mrs. Williams's residence a half-hour after the attack on the dog, Lee found the animal gasping out its life on the sidewalk, he said, and in such condition that he had to shoot it to end its suffering.

Wall and Addington said they attacked the dog because they believed it had rabies. Lee reported that it showed no symptoms of rabies and that an examination proved it free from that disease. City Prosecutor Johnson, after a special investigation following Shuler's radio protest last week, announced that he refused to dismiss the complaint.

VISITORS' WEEK SET AT Y.W.C.A.

Women Extended Invitation to See Classes in Action

Swimming Demonstrations to Be Among Features

Women of the city will have an opportunity to visit the Young Women's Christian Association health education classes during visitors' week, beginning next Monday. Morning classes, meeting from 10 to 11 o'clock on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, are made up of women who have joined the clases for reducing or gaining, for strength and endurance and for overcoming physical handicaps. These women will demonstrate the individual exercises to correct these faults. They also will take part in folk dancing. After an hour's work in the gymnasium, the classes will go to the plunge and there the visitors may see them in a progression in swimming, showing beginning, intermediate, advanced swimming and diving.

Every evening from 5:30 to 9, busines girls will demonstrate the work they have accomplished during the past ten weeks of the fall term. The activities demonstrated will be individual exercises for the business girl who sits all day and rides to and from work.

TAP-DANCING CLASSES

Tap-dancing classes will show the fun and complete relaxation brought about in tripping in time with the old popular music. The tennis classes will show how business girls may become good tennis players in a course of eight lessons in indoor tennis, showing the different drives and serves. The golf classes will show their work on Monday evening at 5:30.

The large, tiled plunge will be a popular place throughout the week, with many different classes showing various styles of swimming and diving.

Saturday morning, the 22nd inst., the schoolgirls' classes will demonstrate how in a course of ten lessons many girls have progressed from the beginning classes to intermediate and are ready for the advanced work in diving.

BOYS' CLASS ENTERED

For the first time the Y.W.C.A. has a boys' class in swimming on Saturday mornings at 10:30, and visitors may observe this class of twenty boys from 6 to 10 years of age.

During the fall term which started September 8, last, there has been an attendance of 7086 women, business girls and children in the plunge. Six hundred and thirty women, business girls and children have been registered for the gymnasium work, tap and social dancing, tennis, golf and horseback riding.

The winter term starts next Monday and will continue to February 1, 1931.

Miss Ella Stevers, head of the health education department, states that the Y.M.C.A. health education department is ready to meet the needs of all women and girls along lines of health and recreation. Registration for the new term begins today.

she hove to for our signals near the beach," said Finstead. "And it was all plain sailing until we picked up Magnolia avenue on Pico Boulevard. For some reason we never had a chance to find out, the skipper, who was a stranger to us, lost control. Hard aport she went, then veered to starboard, bumped over a row of traffic buttons, leaped the curbing, and swung to about a telephone pole. Fagan and I went overboard, and when we struck surface again the flivver was gone."

Robert Riadell, 43, 1427 Seventh street, Santa Monica, according to the police, walked into the side of a Los Angeles Railway bus at Manchester and Normandie avenues and sustained a skull fracture. He was treated at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where it is said his injuries are possibly fatal.

Bite of Spider Proves Serious

Bitten by a black spider, Mariano Brillandes, 26 years of age, of 2435 East Flower street, Huntington Park, is in a serious condition at the General Hospital.

Brillandes was working in the kitchen of his home when the spider bit him on the left little finger. Home remedies failing to prevent a swelling of the finger, Brillandes sought aid at the Huntington Park Emergency Hospital, and from there went to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital for treatment. The swelling spread to the arm, causing Brillandes severe pain. He later was sent to the General Hospital.

DESCENDANT OF PIONEERS SUCCUMBS

Orestes J. Orena, Member of Old California Line, Dies at Santa Barbara

Orestes J. Orena, descendant of a family prominent in the early history of California, died last night of a heart attack at St. Francis Hospital in Santa Barbara, according to word received from that city. Moving here about a year ago from Santa Barbara, he had resided at 1033 South Arlington avenue, and had left here Thursday to enter the hospital in Santa Barbara.

He was a grandson of Don Jose de la Guerra, who was commandante of the Santa Barbara Presidio. His family are the owners of large tracts of land in Southern California, among their holdings being the Cuyama ranch and Los Alamos ranch, both in Santa Barbara county.

Born seventy years ago in Santa Barbara, Orena was educated at Santa Clara University, and then engaged in the practice of law in San Francisco. Some years ago, however, he retired from his profession to devote all of his time to the management of his family's properties.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Bertha Orena, two brothers, Dario and Arturio Orena of this city; two sisters, Mrs. Serena de Koch of this city, and Mrs. James Rickard, who is the wife of the postmaster of Santa Barbara, and a half-brother, Caesar Lataillade of Santa Barbara.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 9 a.m., at the Church of Our Lady of Sorrows in Santa Barbara, and interment will be in Calvary Cemetery in that city.

Museum Draws 20,000 in Day

The recently opened exhibits in the new unit of the Los Angeles Museum drew 20,000 visitors yesterday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock, a report issued by Director Bryan said. The new wing of the museum was opened to the public with an informal reception Friday afternoon and yesterday's attendance was regarded as a record by officials of the institution.

Although the crowds were guided through all of the thirty-five halls of the new unit, the showings of prehistoric mammal skeletons, many of them taken from the La Brea tar pits, continued yesterday to draw the most interest.

Kaibab Hunters Kill Four Deer

Col. Arthur C. Goebel, most of whose adventures take place above the clouds, turned to a new field, it was learned, when he returned to Los Angeles last night with approximately 600 pounds of deer meat—the result of one day's hunting in Kaibab National Forest, near St. George, Utah.

With Pete Cunningham, local pioneer sportsman, the airplane pilot brought down two bucks and two does during eight hours of hunting last Friday in the territory surrounding Big Saddle Camp. The largest buck weighed 185 pounds dressed and had an eight-point spread of horns. The local pair drove a round trip of 1250 miles to bag the four deer.

Artist Departs After Long Toil to Study Abroad

PASQUALE NAPOLITANO

With Pasquale Napolitano it was a matter of pride to earn his way to a period of study in mural painting and sculpture in the capitals of Europe. In 1922-1923, he was in the sculpture class at Otis Art Institute and was urged to apply for a traveling scholarship. He wanted to stand on his own feet, however, asking favors of none.

This meant years of apprenticeship and hard labor, but Pasquale managed it. Regularly from his hard-won wages he laid by a little, until he had enough to pay for study among the masters. Which explains the pride of his former teachers and fellow-students at Otis Art Institute when they announced yesterday that Pasquale is on his way to Italy and will spend some time acquainting himself with the works of his beloved Giotto and Michael Angelo.

W. H. Leimert Donates Park to Los Angeles

Los Angeles yesterday acquired a new park when Walter H. Leimert formally turned over a plot of ground of one and one-half acres to the city. The new park is located at West Vernon avenue, Crenshaw Boulevard, Leimert Place and Leimert Boulevard. The new park is 325x165 feet and is beautifully decorated with large trees, shrubs and flowers while a big stone fountain plays in the center.

Kenneth Belknap, president of the Ephebian Society, presided as chairman. Speakers were Fred L. Mayhew, president Southwest Chamber of Commerce, Councilman James G. McAllister, Mrs. Mable V. Socha, president of the Park Commission, and the donor, Walter Leimert. The fire department band provided the music.

Eagles' Chief Visits Lodges

On his first official visit to Southern California Aeries, George A. Duddy, San Francisco newspaper man and new State President of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, will arrive in Los Angeles today to participate in special exercises at five Southland Eagles' lodges. He is instigating a State-wide campaign for 10,000 new members of the fraternal order. He will be guest of Aerie, No. 102, on Thursday night.

Tonight Duddy will visit the Long Beach Aerie, and he will be the Armistice Day guest of the San Diego group tomorrow. Wednesday he will be at Pasadena, and following his visit at the local lodge will be the guest of the San Bernardino Aerie the following night.

Fire Warden's Work Praised

Spence D. Turner, County Fire Warden, has received numerous complimentary letters from property owners in the Malibu Range area commending him and his force of fire fighters for the manner in which they handled the recent brush fire in that district.

Although 8000 acres of land was burned over, the total loss in buildings amounted to only $1500, according to county fire officials.

"PROMISE" TO WED FILED

Along with the divorce decree obtained by Leo J. Post against his wife Loretta, there has been filed in Superior Judge Collier's court the written declaration of the "other man," Herbert Gann, that "Mrs. Post told me she loved me, and when she is free, will come to me." Whether Mrs. Post intends to keep her asserted promise and wed Gann could not be learned yesterday.

NIGHT HAD COME IN HOLLYWOOD

Private Detective Looking for Evidence in Actress' Suit for Divorce Against Director Peeps Into Wrong House and Gazes Into Muzzle of Pistol

This is the tale of a private detective who was mistaken for a burglar while watching the wrong house in quest of ocular evidence to be used in a Hollywood divorce case.

The detective was captured at the point of a gun when he assertedly trespassed upon the premises of J. F. Hudson, attorney, of 1488 North Kings Road. The Hudson family had retired for the night Saturday when the head of the house discovered a masculine figure prowling stealthily about.

Gun in hand and clad in pajamas, Hudson crept out a rear entrance and, ere the suspected burglar had a chance to explain, he found himself gazing into the front end of a .38-caliber pistol.

BURGLARY DENIED

"Sh-sh-sh," said the captive, "I'm not an ordinary burglar. I'm a private detective and I'm gathering evidence."

"Gather all you like," Hudson retorted, "but keep off of my property. Besides, how do I know you're not a burglar?"

Whereupon the captive produced his credentials which purported to establish that he is an operative for a well-known private detective agency. Meanwhile the still skeptical Hudson called Hollywood police, who sent out officers to investigate.

The captive explained that he had been retained to watch the supposed home of Luther Reed, motion-picture director, by his wife, known professionally in Hollywood as Jocelyn Lee, for evidence of infidelity to be used by Miss Lee in her cross-complaint to a divorce proceeding filed by the director.

Hollywood police said an attractive blonde lurking in the vicinity gave her name as Jocelyn Lee and confirmed the story told by the supposed burglar. The police accepted the explanation and released the prowler.

REED NOT SURPRISED

When questioned yesterday Reed denied that he had heard anything about it. However, he said, he doesn't live in that vicinity.

"I'm not surprised," the director said. "My wife is doing everything she can to get something on me, but this is the first time I suspected that she had private detectives on my trail." At any rate, she and her detectives were watching the wrong house.

All attempts to establish communication with Miss Lee yesterday were unavailing. Her attorney, Aloysius I. McCormick, professed ignorance of the whole affair and declared even he was unaware of her present whereabouts.

The director and the actress were married June 15, last, and Reed filed suit for divorce on September 10, accusing the actress-wife of an overdose of temperament. A counter-suit was filed a few days later by Miss Lee in which she charged the director with cruelty.

ARMISTICE DAY SERMON WARNS AGAINST WARS

World in Momentary Danger of New Conflict Unless Prince of Peace Rules Ideals

"Until we apply the ideals of the Master and follow the things that make for peace, we may expect at any moment to be thrown again into the tumult of another World War," declared Rev. Merle N. Fish in his sermon yesterday at Pico Heights Christian Church.

"While in celebrating Armistice Day we all are resolved that a disaster similar to the one which drenched the world in blood from 1914 to 1918 never again shall visit this planet if we can prevent it, it is well for us to remember that the only certain preventive of conflict between individuals and nations lies in adherence to the peace principles and program of Jesus Christ," said Mr. Fish.

"Race prejudice, international hatred, economic depression—all of these can be overcome if the nations determine that they will not come to blows but decide all questions by conference, League or World Court," said the speaker.

"It will mean, of course, that every nation shall be guided by the divine love and ethical standard of Christ. It will be necessary to give sometimes, and at other times take much that we would rather not have forced upon us. It will mean that we shall do all within our power to overcome the things that cause dispute and quarrel and remain rational and reasonable under the most severe stress, that our emotions shall not rule in the hour of test.

"We are progressing in no uncertain way toward the Utopia of world peace, but the way is obstructed by rocks from the cliffs of selfish desire. The waters of unrest in the realms of labor and capital may flood the highway and cause detours that may seem unsurmountable or impassable; but when we follow things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another, the rocks will be removed, the waters will be dried up and peace will reign supreme. Then will the great Prince of Peace in glory and love return to us and lead us to victory of everlasting life."

PATHWAY POINTED TO INTERNATIONAL PEACE

"The solution to the problem of war lies in the hands of those who call themselves religious and of the workers who pay the war bills in blood and gold," according to the opinion expressed by Rev. Ernest Caldecott in his sermon yesterday at First Unitarian Church. Preaching on "Is There Any Hope for Peace?" Mr. Caldecott spoke in part as follows:

"We have learned that our overseas economic policy, intense nationalism, fear and secret diplomacy are the chief contributors to war. Confining our study to the first two factors, we discover that when individuals or corporations do business abroad and expect the government to protect them we have the beginnings of a possible war. This is fanned by the desire for private profit beyond reason for service rendered. Groups and nations vie with one another for concessions, and when the circle becomes sufficiently vicious, war follows, just as unemployment has resulted from ignorant and selfish practices from the top to the bottom in our country."

SELLER OF LIQUOR TO REMAIN OUTLAW

"The liquor seller must remain an outlaw or the government must legalize his business and that would mean the return of the saloon," Dr. Bruce Brown told his audience yesterday at South Park Christian Church. Dr. Brown said in part:

"Let advocates make 10,000 radio addresses and fill the world with newspaper articles and the stubborn fact still stands out that it is either prohibition or the saloon. It is all nonsense to couple up the words 'temperance' and 'modification.' Everybody knows that all the crowd that ever fought restrictions on the sale of liquor or the evils of the saloon are on the side against prohibition, as they were always against high license and local option. It is strange that so many good people listen to the crowd that always wants rivers of hard liquors. The prohibition law against liquor is being as well enforced as the laws against narcotics or robbery."

WAR HELLISH ORGY OF MEN'S UNREASON

"The statement that you cannot change human nature is a poisonous broth brewed in the pits of pessimism," said Dr. Sheldon Shepard in his sermon yesterday at First Universalist Church. "The steady advancement of civilization and the kaleidoscopic parade of customs, fashions and institutions is evidence of the constant changing of human nature and the instruments by which it is accomplished. Advertisers spend thousands of dollars to change the response of human nature to their businesses.

"The response of human nature to any situation can be changed by education, propaganda, example and experience. War has always been the response of the nations to difficult international situations and the harangues of the jingoists, because the race has been war-conscious. Now the dawn begins to glow on the far mental horizon. We are not so cocksurely war-conscious. Light is breaking into the darkness. When we finally arrive at an adult stage of consciousness war will be recognized in its true character as an orgy of inhuman hellishness turned loose upon the world when judgment has flown to beasts and men have lost their reason."

DANGER OF RICHES POINTED BY PASTOR

The curse of wealth when wrongly used and the blessing of riches when rightly handled formed the theme of a sermon preached yesterday by Dr. J. George Dorn at Hollywood Lutheran Church. Preaching on "Stock in Heaven's Bank," Dr. Dorn spoke in part as follows:

"The rich young prince came to Jesus in quest of the highest law. The one was an inhabitant of the earth, the other an inhabitant of eternity. The Lord, though Himself penniless, tells this prince of profits that he will never fail if he will only invest his perishing moneys in the poor of earth. A terrible struggle ensues. He strives against his better judgment and conquers. He makes the great refusal. He hugs to himself the paltry stuff called gold and lets go the true riches. Wealth possessed and used aright may become a help toward eternal life, but wealth as often regarded and employed by its possessors is an obstacle to the Kingdom of God."

ARABS' FRIENDSHIP URGED UPON JEWS

Dr. Julius Leibert, rabbi of Temple Emanu-El, preached yesterday on "The Jewish Gentleman." He said in part:

"'The British action' in so far as it nullifies the Balfour and the Churchill declarations in regard to the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine is indeed a crushing blow—but not to Zionism. It is a crushing blow only to Jewish credulity. We have trusted ourselves to empire and empire has thrust us aside. There is nothing unusual in this. World politics is controlled not by sentiment but by presentiment. We have known right along that the British fear of the Arab was more potent than the British love for the Jew and therefore we should not now complain about it. Instead, we should rise from under the debris of our ruined castles in the air and cast about for newer dream-palaces. Perhaps, the time has come to direct our diplomatic gaze in friendship and in amity toward the Arab world."

WEALTH'S DEFECTS TOLD BY ADJUTANT

"Defects of Wealth" is the topic of a sermon preached yesterday by Adjt. Frank Howell at Salvation Army Temple. Adjt. Howell said in part:

"Wealth has certain glaring defects. To seek it solely is to seek that which not only satisfieth not but that which will last not. The love of money is the root of all evil, strife, hatred, discord, wars, separation, divorce. In fact, every kind of sin finds a root in the love for money. Men seek wealth to their own hurt just as they often seek power to their own destruction. Few men have reached the height of power, few have climbed to the prinnacle of authority and dominion. And when they have attained the power they have sought, it develops that it is merely transitory."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON YESTERDAY

"Adam and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon, yesterday, in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

One of the verses in the Responsive Reading presented Paul's words to the Romans, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord."

Among the Scripture selections in the Lesson-Sermon were other statements by Paul to the Romans: "For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound; that as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ, our Lord."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, stated: "In divince Science, man is the true image of God. The divine nature was best expresed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the truer reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought models would allow—thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning and dying.

CHRIST IS CALLED IDEAL OF INDIA

Bramacharee Nerod preached at Mt. Washington Center yesterday on "The Web of Hindu Life." He said in part:

"India, lying on the outskirts of the Christian faith, yet Christian in heart, recently has been swept by the cyclonic idealism of the Son of Man, the meaning of which one has to seek in the inner constitution of Hindu life. The national mind of India always has looked at life in its entirety and its relation to the cosmos and the Creator; consequently, in spite of her extremely individualistic philosophy, individual ideas, always have been ideally ethical and ethically idealistic and the fulfillment of life has been looked upon as the expression of the Divine. Such being the case, though there has been cyclic depression of morals and ideals in her life history, the heart of India has forever looked up to the Christ in one form or another, but ceaselessly endeavoring to unveil the veil of the unknown. Therefore, even in this unbelieving age, an age of strife and hatred, her national life has responded to the silent cry of Jesus — 'And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.'"

GREWSOME 'CLEWS' LEAD BACK TO TRIVIAL AFFRAY

A blood-spattered automobile, a .32-caliber revolver from which one shell had been fired and the empty cartridge were held by police last night until they discovered the reasons for the awesome combination.

The car is registered to Mrs. Jean Bell of 459 Holt avenue and was found early yesterday morning parked in front of 1725 North El Cerito avenue. The seats were blood-covered and the running-board and wheels were likewise stained. Under a rear seat Detective Lieutenants Prosper and Taylor found the revolver and on the floor the empty shell, beside a bloody and crumpled man's hat.

From Miss Patsy Richard, who lives at the El Cerito address, the officers learned that the auto had been used by several people late Saturday night returning from a party at a cabin in the mountains. With Miss Richard they questioned Dr. Robert M. Lumsten, a physician of 1680 Vine street, and also Mrs. Bell, owner of the auto.

The police learned that Carlos Bell, a member of the mountain-cabin party, had a fight and was badly cut about the head. His companions loaded Bell into the car and brought him to the office of Dr. William Carr, 6404 Hollywood Boulevard, where his wound was dressed, and later took him to his hotel at 551 Fremont street. Bell freely told police of his injury and the cabin party. Dr. Lumsten in explaining the gun and empty shell said that some one in the party fired a shot out the window on the return trip to the city.

OIL PROMOTER TO FACE TRIAL

Case of Gilbert S. Johnson Will Open Tomorrow

Government Charges Use of Mails to Defraud

Millions Involved in His Wide Operations

Gilbert S. Johnson, wealthy oil promoter of Fort Worth, Tex., with offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles, will go on trial tomorrow before United States District Judge Cosgrave on a charge of using the mails to defraud in connection with the promotion of various oil companies in Texas and California.

According to Asst. U. S. Atty. Davis, who, with John S. Pratt, special assistant to the Attorney-General, will prosecute the case, the operations of Johnson and his associates involved several million dollars. It was stated that Johnson had offices in Texas, San Francisco and Los Angeles from 1919 to 1925. Johnson resisted removal to Los Angeles for trial since 1925, stated Mr. Davis.

Osteopaths in Quiz for State Certificates

Oral examination of twenty-five candidates for osteopathic physicians' and surgeons' certificates, most of whom are holders of certificates in other States, was begun yesterday by the State Board of Osteopathic Examiners, which is holding a two-day session at the Biltmore. The examination will be concluded today

Routine matters were disposed of at a business session of the board yesterday and several proposed administrative changes in the State law governing the profession were discussed. The board informally considered a complaint against a physician, but since no official citation had been made no action was taken. Dr. Ernest G. Bashor of this city, president of the board, presided at yesterday's session.

"Presidents' night" will be observed at the meeting of the Los Angeles Osteopathic Society at the Hotel Knickerbocker tonight, among the guests of honor being Dr. Warren B. Davis of Long Beach, national president of the American Osteopathic Association, and Dr. Evangeline Percival of this city, past president of the California Osteopathic Association.

FINGERPRINTS TRIP UP LIQUOR SUSPECT

Bottles of beer which Jack Langford denied belonged to him disclosed his fingerprints, police and Federal dry agents showed in Municipal Judge Rosenkranz's court, where Langford was on trial on the liquor charge. He was found guilty and paid a $100 fine. Langford, manager of an Eleventh-street hotel, denied knowledge of the beer which the officers said they found in a room there. The officers produced photographs of fingerprints on the bottles and gave them to Judge Rosenkranz to compare with Langford's fingerprints taken at the time of his arrest.

FOUR FACE HEARING ON MAIL FRAUD

Charge Involves Sale of So-called Cure for Lung Troubles

Four men accused of using the mail to defraud in connection with the sale here of a so-called cure for lung trouble are to appear today before United States District Judge Hazel to face the charges.

Chamber Films Seen by Many

Motion pictures and views of Los Angeles county and the harbor district formed parts of the American exhibit entered in the Ibero-American Exposition at Seville recently, according to a report received by the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the display.

Secretary-Manager A. G. Arnoll of the chamber said yesterday that he has received a letter from officials of the United States Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Department of Commerce stating that the material proved of interest to visitors at the exposition, as 37,000 persons witnessed showings of the film on Los Angeles Harbor. The United States Department of Commerce won the medal of honor and a gold medal in recognition of industrial and educational exhibits.
